Dear Mrs. Roosevelt:

I appreciate your thoughtfulness in commending the work done by Miss Marjorie Whiteman at the recent conference in Geneva. I have been aware of Miss Whiteman's ability, and it is a source of satisfaction to know that she was helpful.

I have taken the liberty of giving her the original of your letter, which she wishes to keep as a distinguished mark of her association with you at Geneva.

Sincerely yours,

Ernest A. Gross

Dear Mrs. Roosevelt:

Thank you for your nice note of December 22.

I very much appreciate your kind expressions, and I heartily reciprocate your good wishes for the New Year. It was indeed a privilege and pleasure to work with and for you, and I shall always treasure that experience.

Faithfully yours,

Virginia Belmont
