Dear Mrs. Roosevelt,~~

The senior class
of our high school is planning a program in memory
of President Roosevelt
on his birthday, January 30. We had thought of these numbers:

1. a brief sketch
of his life
2. His first inaugural address

3. His prayer on the invasion of Europe.
4. Musical numbers consisting of his favourite songs and hymns.

We should like for you to verify the following songs and hymns, which have been recorded as his favourites:

1. Home on the Range
2. Yellow Rose of Texas
3. Anchors Aweigh
4. Happy Days are Here Again
5. Abide with me
6. Day is Dying in the West

If there are others which should be included, please advise.

President Roosevelt will ever be remembered as the greatest president by the people of our little community. I might add that it was my great privilege to see him inaugurated for the first time - an event that I shall always cherish dearly.

This program is to be given in an assembly for the entire school

uncertainty

of about 600 students.
We also invite patrons.
We shall greatly appreciate an early reply.

Sincerely yours,
Mrs. Fred C. Wilbanks
