

E. Ross

Young: A-2¹₆

410 Crocker, Street

Apt. 51

Los Angeles 13, California

February 3, 1947

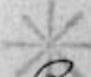

THE LATE ROOSEVELT

Dear Mrs. Roosevelt,

Being unable to tribute anything else of memorial influence to the people, I decided nothing to be more impressive than these thoughts put to music. Thoughts which undoubtedly are not only the thoughts of my inferior race, but those also of others unfortunately having the same inferiority complex.

With expecting some regret I still want to try publish this composition myself, yet there something that tells me some how I am going too far without your consent, but with a "yes" from you I am determined to continue.

I remain:

Respectfully yours,
John Anna Young

THE LATE ROOSEVELT

Words by JOHN ANNA YOUNG

Music by
LEO and HECTOR RICHARD

Published by JOHN ANNA YOUNG
410 Crocker St.
Los Angeles 13 Calif.

THE LATE ROOSEVELT

Words by JOHN ANNA YOUNG

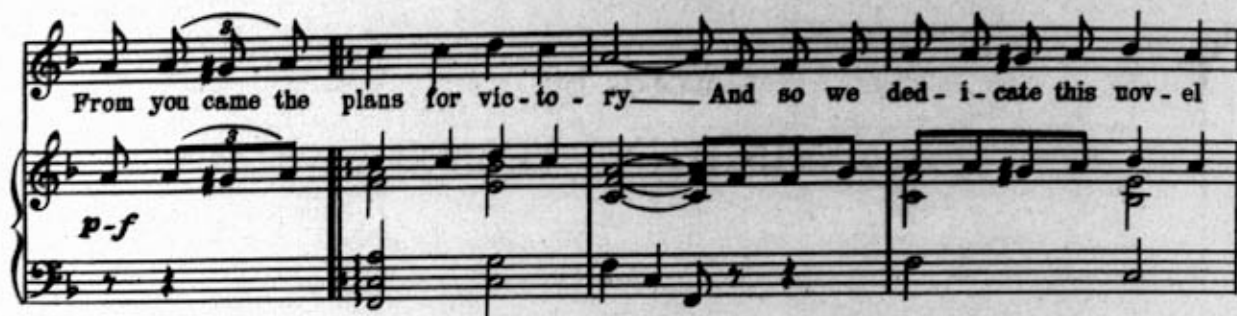

Music by LEO and HECTOR RICHARD

Moderato

mf

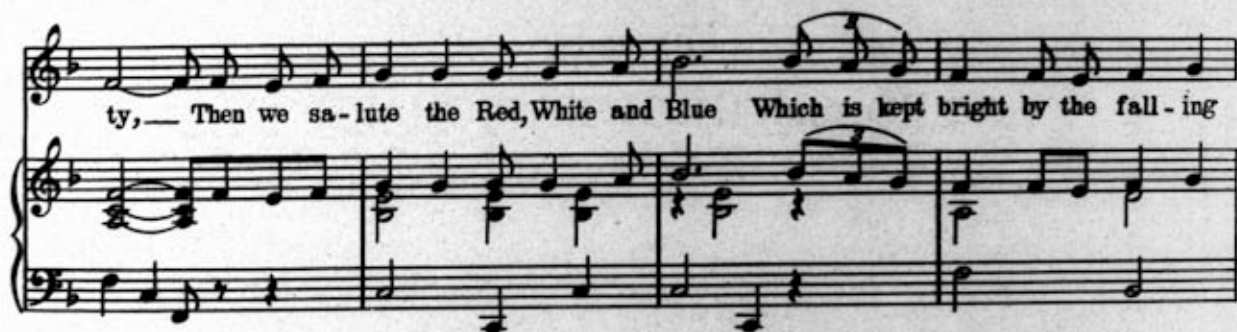

Two staves of piano introduction in 2/4 time, marked mf. The melody is in the right hand, and the accompaniment is in the left hand.

From you came the plans for vic-to - ry — And so we ded - i - cate this nov - el

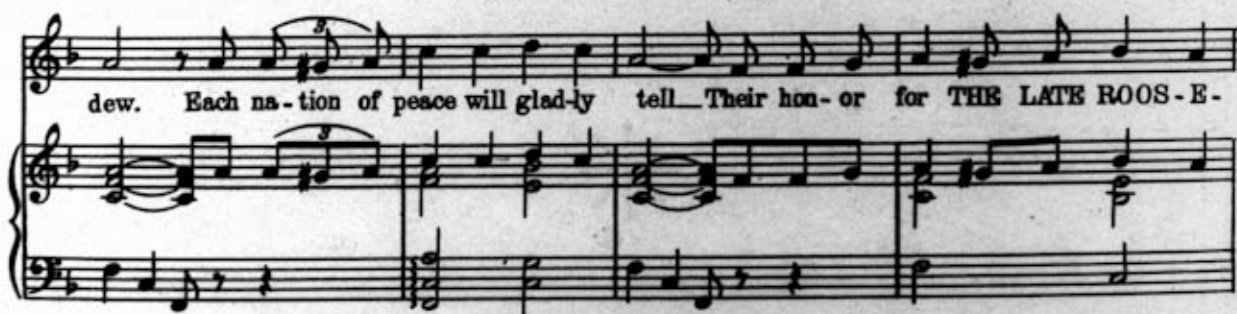

p-f

Vocal line with piano accompaniment. The piano part is marked p-f. The lyrics are: "From you came the plans for vic-to - ry — And so we ded - i - cate this nov - el".

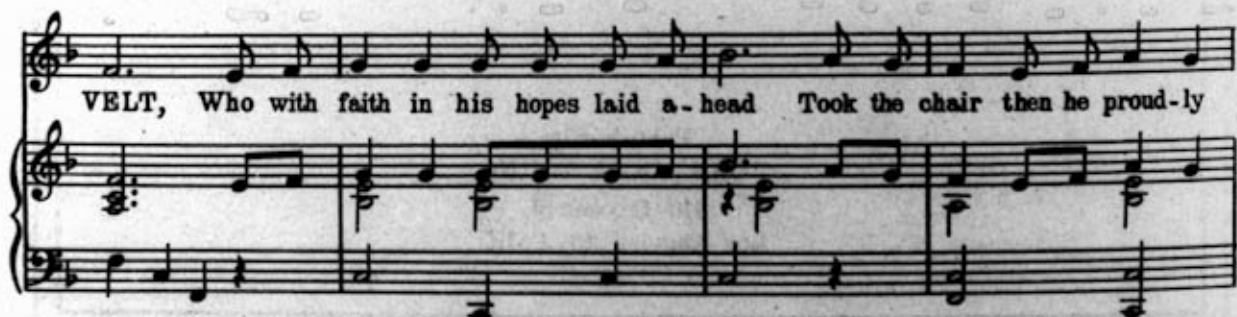

ty, — Then we sa - lute the Red, White and Blue Which is kept bright by the fall - ing Vocal line with piano accompaniment. The lyrics are: "ty, — Then we sa - lute the Red, White and Blue Which is kept bright by the fall - ing".

dew. Each na - tion of peace will glad - ly tell Their hon - or for THE LATE ROOS - E -

Vocal line with piano accompaniment. The lyrics are: "dew. Each na - tion of peace will glad - ly tell Their hon - or for THE LATE ROOS - E -".

VELT, Who with faith in his hopes laid a - head Took the chair then he proud - ly Vocal line with piano accompaniment. The lyrics are: "VELT, Who with faith in his hopes laid a - head Took the chair then he proud - ly".

Continuation of the musical score on the adjacent page, showing piano accompaniment and vocal lines.

LARD

said The U - nit - ed Na - tions A - mer - i - ca That we call re - main now and el

ev - er, Our peace we love, yet too we must fight — So that all na - tions will have their

- ing

right. Now to all ra - ces creeds and col - ors We're go - ing to strive and stay to - geth - er; Let's hail for vic - to - ry our boys have felt, Hail, Hail, Hail, for THE

S - E -

nd - ly

1 Repeat ad lib.
LATE ROOS - E - VELT. From you came the VELT.
2

1524 1/2 Echo Park ave
Los Angeles - 26 - Cal
Oct 9 - 1947

Mrs Eleanor Roosevelt
Hyde Park - N.Y.

✓
H. Young

Dear Madam, I enclose a copy of a letter which is self explanatory.

My purpose in mailing you this copy,
is that I want you, above all people;
to know, that your great Loss and Memories, are also in the Heart of many People here and in Foreign Lands as well.

Yours Respectfully
Joseph J. Young.

1524 1/2 Echo Park ave
Los Angeles - 26 - California
Oct 9 - 1947

The Editor
Weekblad Panorama
Wassenaar 51
Haarlem, Netherlands.

Dear Sir, yesterday I received a copy of your "Panorama" dated April 11th and find on pages 8 and 9, your most timely and well illustrated Memorial Editorial of our, never to be forgotten and most beloved deceased "President Franklin Delano Roosevelt."

It is with much pleasure that I read your fine Eulogies, which I showed, in translation read, to many friends, all of them expressing high praise for your remembrance of, "The One Man," this world at this time is so sadly in need of.

His understanding of Humanity and World Affairs, would have done so much, towards a more speedy and amicable feeling among the nations of this world of ours, which since His death, have been in so much turmoil.

He answered the Call of our Holy Father and we feel and know that His outstanding efforts, gained for Him the Blessings of the Almighty; in to whose hands we leave Him.

In speaking for my friends and myself, may I take this occasion of sincerity thank you.

Very truly yours
Joseph G. Young.