My dear Professor Earle:

As Mr. Bowles is now at the University of Puerto Rico on a special assignment, your letter of January 23 concerning Edward Maynard Zohman has been referred to me for reply.

Mr. Zohman has been denied admission to Columbia College in February, 1947, because no non-veterans are being admitted at this time. We told the young man that he will be a very strong candidate for admission in September provided that he enters no other collegiate institution in the meantime.

Very truly yours,

Bernard P. Ireland

Dear Puss:

In view of the enclosed letter from Columbia, I am wondering what all the shooting has been about. It looks more than ever as if this young man and his mother were common nuisances.

As ever,

Dear Mrs. Roosevelt,

Although I am
eighty years old,
I have written this poem because I have always admired the work that President Roosevelt did to uplift humanity.
I hope you will like it.

Sincerely,
Rose Givim

In Memory of Franklin Delano Roosevelt

Still lies our hero's body
In his beloved native land,
But his spirit is not resting there
For rest it never can,
It is alive in great ideals,
Those of our hero's dreams,
It is he, the ideal hero,
Who created all his themes
To work the wide world over,
It carries the message abroad,
The greatest work of a martyr for freedom
Who fought with his mind more than with sword,
We shall fulfil his wishes
By putting his cause to the test,
That we may live in peace and freedom,
While he may lie in peace and rest.
