My dear Mrs. Roosevelt:—

Some weeks ago I sent you a little sketch which I had written of President Roosevelt, venturing to ask if I might dedicate it to you, and if you feel that you could give a few words of approbation.

Of course, I know that you have many important matters which require your attention and consequently you may not have been able to read my sketch.

I will greatly appreciate it if you would favor me by doing so and returning this

Dear Mrs. Roosevelt:

Some weeks ago I sent you a little speech which I had written, of President Roosevelt's, pertaining to you and so far as I can, if you please, what you gave a few words of approval. Of course, I know that you have many important business which require your attention and consequently I want you to know that if you would like some one to do this work for you, I am more than happy to do it.

I hope you will have the opportunity to see the speech, but if not, I shall be glad to send you a copy. I am very much interested in the work of the National Red Cross and I think that there is a great deal we can do to help in this work.
