Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt,
Hyde Park,
New York.

Dear Mrs. Roosevelt:

We of the ROUND ROBIN, just one of the groups of physically handicapped so near and dear to our late president's heart, want you to have a copy of our May issue, which in its humble way seeks to pay tribute to him. Please accept the enclosed issue with our love and deepest sympathy.

His life will be a challenge to all of us through generations to come, not only by example but through the National Foundation and Warm Springs. I am grateful that his last hours could be there.

Mother and I are daily readers of your column, "My Day" and have missed it. We wonder if the reason is illness but we hope that you are merely very busy. I hope tomorrow's paper finds "My Day" once again returned to the public.

Sincerely,

Mabel Starrett

P. S. Raymond Baird, whom you mentioned in March 6, 1944 in "My Day", has a bit of the famous camp "Wawbeek" on page 12.
