Dear Sir,

I have your letter of April 4th acknowledging my recent letter, that was addressed to Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt, & in which you stated that you would bring my letter to Mrs. Roosevelt's attention at the first opportunity.

Will you sure do that for me, as I enclosed some nice clippings for our 1st Lady, and asked her for a bit of information - or her opinion. I shall anticipate Mrs. Roosevelt's personal response, & Thank you.

Courteously yours -
