Dear Mrs Roosevelt.

Under seperate cover I am mailing you a bottle of la-de-Jeans OILS for the FACE.

The enclosed advertising is self explanatory. Please accept this little gift of appreciation for what you have done to make the world a better place in which to live.

Sincerely.

Dear Mrs. Roosevelt:

Since writing you, our program for the Wallace dinner has shaped up more definitely, following a conference with Harold Young. Mr. Wallace was happy to have the dinner essentially a memorial to your husband, on the theme, "The kind of world Roosevelt wanted: victory, peace, and jobs."

We would be enormously pleased if you, as the first recipient of the award, make the presentation to Mr. Wallace. It would not be necessary for you to make an address if you prefered not to do so.

Of course we shall understand fully if you feel that you cannot do this--and I hope that you will forgive my further request, made only because it would mean so much to all of us to have you.

I am enclosing a copy of The Churchman just off the press, containing the little article about which I told you in my earlier letter.

With kindest wishes always.

Very cordially yours,

Guy Emery Shipler
