October 17th, 1945

Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt,
Hyde Park,
New York.

Dear Mrs. Roosevelt:

I am forwarding under separate cover a complimentary copy of the University of Virginia Law Review, September 1945 issue, containing an article by Mr. Abraham Wilson, a member of the New York Bar, on the Fair Employment Practices legislation which you may find of interest.

We were very much impressed with the article and were pleased to publish it under our auspices.

Sincerely,
