

Wilson: A-L

April 12, 1945

My dear Mr. Wilson:

I am sorry that you are having such a difficult time getting the correct information about the positions in the Veterans Administration. As I stated in my former letter, you would have to be willing to accept a position in Washington at the present time in order to be considered for a position without Civil Service. Conditions in the field offices vary and authority to take a person without Civil Service status was granted only where the recruitment situation warranted and for such period of time as circumstances justified.

Very sincerely yours,

Secretary to
Mrs. Roosevelt
