My dear Mr. Williams:

As you probably know by now I telegraphed Governor Arnall that in view of the situation which has arisen I think it unwise for me to go to Georgia at this time and therefore am canceling the engagement.

Very sincerely yours,

My dear Mr. Williams:

I could come to a meeting of the young Democrats on the 3rd of December or on the 7th, if I can travel by air.

I have been overwhelmed by telegrams from various colleges, and I would like to be sure that in addition to the college students, the audience would be representative of all groups of young people.

Will you let me know as quickly as possible which date you select as my calendar fills up very quickly?

Very sincerely yours,

I'll get down by train if possible
I return by air.

Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt
Hyde Park, New York

My dear Mrs. Roosevelt:

It was our thought that you might be interested in having a copy of the announcement of our Franklin Delano Roosevelt on Human Relations. This announcement describes the Fall series.

There will be a Mid-Winter series on the four Monday evenings in January which we hope to devote to the theme "What We Fought For," and to secure several military leaders and several leaders on the home front to be the speakers.

A third series will be held in the Spring, probably beginning in the middle of March. We have not as yet phrased its theme, but anticipate further development of the issues which must be resolved if we are to achieve a happier society.

Any suggestions you may wish to give us will be gratefully received by

Yours sincerely,

Harold Beker
Executive Director
