Dear Mr. Secretary:

The enclosed material was brought to me by a Dr. Adler who says he has talked to Ben Cohen. He is very much troubled because they feel a great injustice was done in 1918 to the South Tyrol, and they now think there is a chance of holding a plebiscite, not on Tranteno which is overwhelmingly Italian, but on the part which takes in Bortzen and Meran.

You will see by the maps that they feel a plebiscite would show that one hundred and fifty our of the one hundred and eighty million people want to be with Austria and that a real wrong should be righted.

I am sending the information on to you simply because I felt that there may be something in which you would find worthwhile.

They have asked me to write something about it in my column and from what I see, I think the request for a plebiscite is entirely fair. If you have any objections to my mentioning it, or if it would interfere in any way with your negotiations, please be quite frank.

Very sincerely yours,

THE HONORABLE

THE SECRETARY OF STATE, (FOR OIX)

WASHINGTON.

SIR:

I have the honor to transmit herewith the parchment mentioned in dispatch No. 4152 of May 3, 1946 from this office, which was prepared by the Grupo Nenlntivo “Rooosevelt”, commemorating the first anniversary of Roosevelt’s death.

This club is composed of chauffeurs and other workers who took the name of Roosevelt over a year ago. In his memory, they placed this year a huge wreath in the central plaza of Quitte with the enclosed parchment resting on the wreath.

The group asked if the document could be sent to the State Department, and then forwarded to Mrs. Roosevelt.

Respectfully yours,
