October 10, 1946

My dear Mr. Freed:

I believe that it is essential that the Big Three, Great Britain, The U.S.S.R. and the United States work together to obtain peace, just as they worked together to win the war.

It is harder to keep unity when we are at peace, but it seems to me that if we want peace and begin to work together, we can accomplish it.

Very truly yours,
October 6th, 1946

Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt
29 Washington Square
New York City

Dear Mrs. Roosevelt:

On the occasion of the twenty ninth anniversary of the Soviet Union, the Morning Freiheit will publish a special issue dedicated to Big Three Unity and American-Soviet friendship, in accordance with the policies of the immortal Franklin Delano Roosevelt.

We would appreciate a statement from you for publication in this issue which will appear November 7th. We will be grateful for a favorable reply at your earliest convenience.

Sincerely yours,

Irving Freed
Acting Editor
To the tune of "Oh! What A Beautiful Morning"

THEY REMEMBERED F.D.R.

Oh, it sure was a wonderful morning
It sure was a wonderful day
When Truman did win the election
Now everything will be O.K.

Every one went out and voted
And that is as it ought to be
And from that it should be noted
They all love our Democracy.

They voted for Truman their leader
To keep them from want and from fear
And somehow I'm sure that the spirit
Of Roosevelt was guiding them there.

So let's now resolve all together
Dear people whatever you are
To always be loyal Americans
In memory of great F.D.R.

Rudolph Freed
1668 Coventry Road
Cleveland Heights 18, Ohio