Hopkins, Harry L. and Family 1945-52
Dear Mrs Roosevelt,

I'm writing to tell you some news that is very exciting to me. I'm going to be married the 12th of September and I wanted you to hear it from me before the newspapers get ahold of it. The man is Geoffrey Gates - he's financial executive at the Parson's school of Design. He's very, very nice and I'm sure you will be very fond of him. I hope you can meet him soon. Diana is happy about it, too. He is a widower and has a cute young son of fifteen, who goes to St Paul's.

I'll never forget your kindness to me and want to thank you again for the lovely years you helped to make possible for me.

I hope you are well and do please find a minute to come up and have a cup of tea with us some time this fall when you are in New York. Give my best regards to Tommy and please tell her my news. I'm very happy in every way - I adore my new job at Bergdorf Goodman's, too.

Most affectionately,

Sonia Hopkins

Dear Mrs. Roosevelt,

Thank you so much for the disk you sent me for my birthday, I was really Go nice of you I remember me.

I am back at Madeira for my senior year now, and I'm very glad E be back in an American school again for my last year, even though the work seems I get harder every day. I can't quite believe that this is my last year of high school and that next year I'll be in college (I hope); it really seems like a dream, it's as though only yesterday I was in fifth grade. I am registered at both Wellesley and Bryn Mawr and am keeping my fingers crossed for getting into at least one of them. I have spells of preferring one and then the other, but I think I'd have a hard job if the time came for choosing between them again. Thanks even so much for thinking of me.

Much love,

Diana

Can you help us locate him, please?
The Alumni Office of the University of North Carolina (Chapel Hill) attempts to keep up-to-date addresses of all former students. Some 35,000 addressograph stencils of living alumni are included in the mailing list files of the Alumni Office. These lists are used for the purpose of sending invitations to local alumni meetings, sending information about class reunions, mailing football ticket information, etc. Every former student is urged to keep his or her address up to date in the Alumni Office. Please fill in the information called for on this card and mail it. We wish every name and address properly listed.
