Dear Eleanor Roosevelt.

Thank you so much. pl
For your kind letter of Nov 1945 (Copy enclosed)

If and when a Publisher takes it I should like the letter on the fly leaf of the book and a cut made of your autograph, Scribner
re. the work I have spent fourteen years of notations on, but I have not sent it to Holt ^{and} Co.

Editor Sloan (4th Ave. #257)
New York, and hope for better luck; May I tell you

Mr Atee.

Dear Madam:

We have given your manuscript careful attention and are sorry to report that it does not turn out to be anything for which we can make you an offer of publication.

We are returning the manuscript to you today with sincere thanks for the opportunity of considering your work.

Very truly yours,

Charles Scribner's Sons

My dear Mrs. Hoabe:

I am more than sorry that I cannot comply with your request for a photograph of my husband. There were only a few on hand at the time of his death and these have been given away long ago. All I have left are those which belong to the family.

I was interested to read about your book and I hope it is successful.

Very sincerely yours,

(signed) Eleanor Roosevelt.
