My dear Mrs. Roosevelt:

As a result of your recent article in the May issue of the Ladies Home Journal entitled "Can America be Prosperous in a Sea of Human Misery," we have been deluged with requests for lists of names of needy persons throughout Europe.

We thought you would be interested in knowing of this very wonderful response to your interview. You will also be glad to know that we have been able to meet each of the requests. Because of this article we believe that a greater consciousness to help the needy has arisen.

I am enclosing sample copies of the letters so that you can see the type of people who have been responding.

Sincerely yours,

Donald McMillan
