Dear Mrs. Roosevelt -

On the first page of this morning's paper appears a picture of a model of the statue of the late President, by Sir Willem Reid Dick.

It is very gratifying to me, a Canadian, to see that the national hero of a great land is being immortalized by the people of another great land.

With this picture in mind, I have today written a few lines which I am sending to you, and which I hope may in some way express the warmth of affection which we in Canada have felt and will ever feel, for him.

Sincerely,

Chas. C. Udell.

FDR Statue for London Square—This is a model of the statue of the late President Franklin D. Roosevelt by Sir William Reid Dick which the Pilgrims of Great Britain intend to erect in Grosvenor Square, London, as Britain's memorial. Five-shilling subscriptions are being received.

To - A Great Warrior.

There he stands
pause
and look at him.
Yes, pause and bow your head.
Behold
this outward visage
of a great immortal soul.
Enclosed in this breast
a courage unshakable,
a mind discernable,
a spirit unconquerable.

Eyes fathoming
the forbidding
convulsions of nature -
selfishness, avarice
and greed.
His a holy pilgrimage,
a Prince of Peace
warring only
to gain that peace
for children
and their children's children.

Yes,
stand uncovered
in this presence.
Thank God
for such as he;
having had the will
to do,
and in doing
was broken this mighty heart.

Dear Mrs. Roosevelt:

I have received your note of October 14 in regard to a book by Admiral Nomura entitled A Mission to America, which is being sent to you from Japan by Mr. Compton Pakenham.

As you know, present mail restrictions relative to Japan prevent Admiral Nomura from sending you the book directly. Mr. Pakenham admits in his letter that, in acting as an intermediary, he is circumventing these restrictions, although it seems clear that he is unconscious of any irresponsibility on his part.

The fact that you have written me indicates that you have some doubts as to the propriety of acknowledging receipt of the book when it comes. I may say that I share your doubts and would therefore suggest, in view of the circumstances, that you pay no further attention to the matter.

My dear Mrs. Roosevelt:

As you undoubtedly know, I am a candidate for re-election to Congress on the Democratic, American Labor Party and Liberal Party tickets. I was originally elected at a Special Election in July 1941 on a platform of 100% support of the policies of your late husband. I carried out that platform to the fullest extent during all of my subsequent service in Congress. As a matter of fact, you had occasion in your column "My Day" to comment on a letter which I sent you regarding some of my post war plans. You reprinted my letter in your column and commented favorably on it. I am very proud of the friendship which existed between the late President and myself, which I hope extends to you as well.

My purpose in writing to you at this time is to ask you to serve on the Non-Partisan Committee which is being formed in my behalf. Mr. Henry A. Wallace is sending me a letter of his support, and I am hopeful that he also will serve on this Committee. If it is at all possible, I would like to have you be the Honorary Chairman of this Committee. I would like to have you appear in this capacity, not so much because it is necessary to insure my election, but because I would like to have the entire country know that you feel about me as your late husband did.

Please let me hear from you at your earliest convenience at my New York office, 50 Broad Street, New York 4, N. Y.

With kind personal regards, I am

Sincerely yours,
Arthur G. Klein
