My dear Mrs. Roosevelt:

It is my privilege as president of the Plainfield Zionist District to send you, under separate cover, a certificate for the inscription in the Golden Book, in the name of your beloved husband.

This is but a slight indication of the esteem in which we of Plainfield Jewry held and still hold Franklin D. Roosevelt.

Sincerely yours,

Arthur Saltz O.D.

Mrs. Franklin Roosevelt
29 Washington Square West
New York City

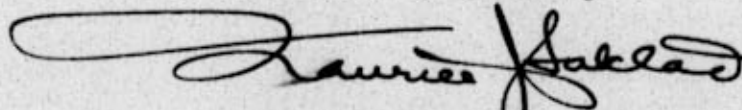

Dear Mrs. Roosevelt:

It was my intention to thank you personally for autographing a copy of the book, "Franklin D. Roosevelt, The Tribute of the Synagogue" which had been presented to Mrs. Saklad and myself by its sponsor.

We hoped we might be able to see you on the Sunday of our visit with Elliot and Faye at Hyde Park. We look forward to this pleasure at some future date.

Again my thanks for this treasure and with every good wish, I am

Cordially yours,
