My dear Mrs. Sayre:

I have received your kind letter and I am so glad to have your little book. Please tell me when you will be in New York so that I would like to see you very much.

With many thanks,

Very sincerely yours,
Mrs. Roosevelt,

When I saw a copy of this booklet in a bindery exhibition last spring, I asked Miss Mary Low to bind a copy of it for me, thinking you might like to have it. She completed it only last week, so I send it now as a Christmas card—carrying my very warm wishes for a happy holiday season.

Such a tiny book to hold such momentous words of truth and wisdom! May I say also at this time, how very proud all American women feel your record of achievement in The United Nations Organization?
You have stood up valiantly for those things which we feel are right and tremendously important. Your speech at the end of the session, making an appeal for the work of helping displaced persons, within the framework of an international organization—was so sound—and needed to be made.
I hope to be in New York for a little while in January, and would love to see you. But perhaps now you are going away for a rest.
Writ every good word—

Thankfully yours—

Elizabeth Sayre
