IMMIGRATION CASE

Dr. Alfred Einstein
and family

October 24, 1938

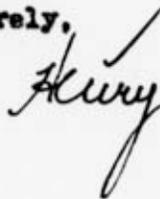

Dear Werner:

I wish to acknowledge receipt of your letter of October 19th.

Inasmuch as this matter is not an emergency, I would rather not do anything about it, because, frankly, I am saving the little influence that I have for real emergency cases. However, if the matter should become an emergency later on, I will be glad to hear from you again.

With kind regards,

Sincerely,

Mr. Werner Josten,
95 Round Hill,
Northampton, Mass.

IMMIGRATION CASE

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Brunell
Erich & Margot Liepmann
(children of Mrs. B.)

November 23, 1938.

Dear Mr. Rosen:

On behalf of the Secretary I am answering your personal letter of November 14th, telling him of the club in which your wife is interested, which has brought to this country a young German girl, and now wishes to assist her family in the same way.

I am sorry to say that it is not possible for Mr. Morgenthau to comply with your request that he communicate with the State Department in order to have them check with their authorities in Cologne. Mr. Morgenthau receives literally hundreds of requests for personal intervention of one sort or another, and in order to be fair to all has had to adopt a very strict policy of non-intervention. I know that the State Department is unwilling to bring pressure to bear upon their Consuls abroad to whom they leave the responsibility of passing upon the different cases. The Consuls abroad are doing everything in their power to clear the many pathetic cases which are presented to them, and I feel sure that Mr. and Mrs. Brunell will receive courteous treatment at the hands of American officials abroad.

Sincerely yours,

H. C. Klotz,
Private Secretary.

Mr. Charles Rosen,

IMMIGRATION CASE

Leopold Weiss

Mr. and Mrs. Fischer

January 24, 1939.

Dear Mr. Weiss:

In some way your letter of November 5th became mislaid, and I am only just acknowledging it on behalf of the Secretary.

It may be that you have been able to work out the problem in connection with your brother's immigration since you wrote Mr. Morgenthau in November. However, I am afraid that in any case, there would be no way by which he could be of assistance to you. He has many such appeals for help, and since the granting of visas comes entirely under the jurisdiction of the State Department, he has had to make it a very strict rule not to intervene on behalf of any particular case. We have been referring requests for assistance to The National Co-ordinating Committee located at 165 West 46th Street, New York, New York. It may be that if you write to the headquarters in New York, they might be able to make some suggestion to you or be of some assistance.

Sincerely yours,

H. S. Klots,
Private Secretary. ✓

IMMIGRATION CASE

Bernard Baruch

July 27, 1938.

Dear Mr. Baruch:

The enclosed letter has reached the Secretary's office during his absence on vacation. Since the writer bears your name and asks that the letter be forwarded to you, we are sending it in accordance with this request.

I may say that in connection with these applications for visas, no answer is made from this office. Mr. Morgenthau's secretary, Mrs. Klots, who is also away, has been forwarding the letters to Mr. George L. Warren, Executive Secretary of the President's Advisory Committee on Political Refugees, 122 East 22nd Street, New York, New York.

Sincerely yours,

N. M. Chauncey.

Mr. Bernard Baruch,
597 Madison Avenue,
New York, New York.

Enclosure.
