

Admission of Refugees to Unit
(Free Ports and Emergency Shelter)

Emergency Refugee Shelter
(Approval - 5 folders
Folder 1a

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

17

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed)

Gertrude Houser

Address

308 W. 93 St, New York

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

WRB

9/15

RO

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed)

Benjamin Haberman

Address

121-02 - 103 Ave Richmond Hill
N.Y.C.

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

1795

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed) Hettie Greenfield
Address 108. Charles St. E. No. 4. 57, N. Y.

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

1796

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed) Renee Gross
Address 80-26 Greenfield Ave., Kew Gardens 15, N. Y.

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

1797

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed) (Mrs.) Gertrude S. Grosskopf
Address 789 West End Ave., Apt. 6C, New York, N. Y.

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

1792

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed) Miss Dolores Green
Address 127 1/2 Fifth Ave., Coraopolis, Pa.

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

1793

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed) Estelle Green
Address 17 Jackson St. New York City

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

4/15
1794

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed) Harriet Greenblatt
Address 486 Empire - Blvd. Brooklyn, N.Y.

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

1789

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed) Fred Gougeon
Address 282 Cadogan Blvd. N.Y.C.

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

1790

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed) Mrs. Geo. A. Grabow
Address 139 E. 94 St., N.Y. 28, N.Y.

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

1791

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed) A.L. Grauer (A.L. Grauer)
Address 6 Melbourne Road, Great Neck, N.Y.

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed)

Address

Leah Goodman
293 1/2 St. Bklyn, N.Y.

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed)

Address

Mrs. Mrs. M. G. Goadrich
4501 Delafield Ave. Fieldston, N.Y.

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed)

Address

Edward R. Gargol
Bronx 494 East 143 St.

1783

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed) Esther Goodman
Address 401 Ogden Av. Jersey City 2 N.J.

1784

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed) Sylvia S. Goldman
Address 1114 Gerard Ave - NYC

1785

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed) Hilda M. Goodman
Address 40 W. 27 St. N.Y.C.

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

1700

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed) Miss Selma Goldberg
Address 423 Hixdale St., Bklyn. 7, N.Y.

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

1701

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed) Mr. & Mrs. Rubin Goldfield
Address 2755 Sedgwick Ave. Bronx 63, N.Y.

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

1702

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed) Miriam Goldhor
Address 2861 W 22 St Bklyn 24 N.Y.

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

Good bless You!

(Signed) Joseph Gaar U.S.
Address 330 East 79th St. New York 21, N.Y.

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed) MORRIS H. GOLD
Address 20 Cabini Blvd N.Y. 433 N.Y.

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed) Mr. Joseph Gold
Address 293 W. 44th St. N.Y.

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

1774

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed) Rose Garlock
Address 3 East 9th St. N.Y.C. - N.Y.

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

WRB

6/15 1773

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed) Leah L. ...
Address P.O. Huntington, Terry, New York

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

1776

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed) Nathan Galinsky, President
Address Temple Beth Joseph, Berkshire, N.Y.

1771

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed)

Address

Mrs. Ward E. Gage
Colonial Hpts. - Lewisburg, Penna

1772

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed)

Address

Anne Gallant
1670 Longfellow Av. New York
NEW YORK 60

1773

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed)

Address

(Mrs.) Dorothy K. Garber
308 East Fifth St. Bklyn, 18, N.Y.

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

1768

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed) MISS FAY FRIED
Address 2964 BRIGHTON 3RD STREET
BROOKLYN, N.Y.

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

1769

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed) Frederick Fried
Address 322 Reid Av. Brooklyn NY

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

1770

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed) Gertrude Sachs
Address 212 Lincoln Place N.Y.

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

1785

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed) Florence Fishman
Address 1553-42 Street - B'klyn, N.Y.

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

6/14/44 1786

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed) Dora, Mauda & Frances Stacey
Address 1227 Franklin Avenue, N.Y.C.

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

1787

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed) Loby E. Frank
Address 363 South 5th St. B'klyn, N.Y.

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

9/15 1762

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed)

Address

Anna C. Feinberg
5 W. 11th St., N.Y.C.

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

1763

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed)

Address

Mrs. Lucie Feitler
38 E. 14th Ave. N.Y.C.

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

1764

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed)

Address

Mr. & Mrs. G. FERTIK
215 Rochester Ave. N.Y.C.

175

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed) Harriette Franklin
Address 15 Cornelia Street, New York City.....

4/10 1760

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed) Jack Truchman
Address 80 Van Sant Pl. N.Y. 63 N.Y.

1701

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed) Samuel Farber
Address 1263 Grant Avenue - Bronx, N.Y.

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

1756

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed) HARRY EMEN
Address 1297 E. N.Y. Av.
BKLYN, N.Y.

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

1757

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed) ✓ Bernard Bugler
Address 1705 Fulton Ave. Bronx, N.Y.

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

1758

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed) John Egerton
Address 1562 Ocean Ave. Bklyn
N.Y.

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed) ... Sylvia Ethel
Address ... 255 E. 5th St. N. Y. C.

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed) ... Esther Ebenstein
Address ... 4909 Fort Hamilton Pkwy. Bklyn.

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed) ... Murray Deady
Address ... 145 Mackenzie St. Bklyn.

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

1750

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed)

Address

Milton Dicker
60 Bergen Ave Jersey City 5 N.J.

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

1751

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed)

Address

Angelina DiLona
794 Meeker Ave., B'klyn, 22, N.Y.

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

1752

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed)

Address

Manuel Davis
1/0 Queen 1402 Ave K. Blauvelt, N.Y.

1747

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed) Blain Davis
Address 419 East 57 St., New York City, N. Y.

1748

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed) Sgt. Charles J. De Luca
Address W. 135th St. New York, N. Y.

1749

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed) Mrs. Fay Diamond
Address 1540 Walton Ave. Sx. 52, N.Y.

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed) Celia Dwork
Address 123 Stagy Walk Bklyn N.Y.

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed) Mrs. + Mrs. A. B. Davy
Address 29 Washington Square West N.Y.C.

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed) Irving Davich
Address 1463 Boston Rd Bronx 60, N.Y.

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

1741

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed) Jacob J. Cohen
Address 350 Clinton St., New Bedford, Mass

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

1742

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed) Rose Cohen
Address 43 Riverside Drive, New York City

To the President ✓
The White House
Washington, D. C.

6/15 20 1743

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed) Mrs. Doris Cooper
Address 143 Ridge Ave. Pantheret R.I.

1738

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed) ... Mrs. Charlotte Clark
Address ... Apt. 81 ... 440 Riverside Drive, New York 27 N.Y.

1739

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed) ... Mr. & Mrs. David Cohen
Address ... 5115-47 St. Wendel St. N.Y.

1740

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed) ... Herman Cohen
Address ... 1848 Monroe Ave. Bx, NY

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

770
1735

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed)

Address

Lily S. Carnay
140 West 187 Street 42 City

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

770
1736

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed)

Address

Nancy Carpenter
350 Lefferts Ave. Bklyn, N.Y.

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

770
1737

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed)

Address

Julia Ceisler
1574 Beach Ave
Brooklyn 62 N.Y.

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

1732

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed) ... Mr + Mrs - S. Coleman
Address ... 1259 - 45 St. Bklyn 19, N.Y.

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

1733

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed) ... Pearl Crystal, Pfc. MCW
Address ... Court. Apts. 5, Sq. 4, Henderson Hall,
Delmon. Ja

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

1734

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed) ... Sam Capalbo
Address ... 143 DeKalb Ave Jersey City N.J.

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

6/17/29

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed) MARION BRENNER
Address 68 HOELTZER ST
ROCKAWAY

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

1730

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed) Mrs. E. Puskoman
Address 219 W. 81. St. N.Y.

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

7
New Refugee Bld

6/15 1731

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed) Paul Bronstein
Address 771 West End Ave. N.Y.C., N.Y.

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

1726

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed)

Address

Max K. Borinich
964 1st Ave N.Y.C.

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

1727

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed)

Address

Albert A. Boriskin
225 Sterling Place - Brooklyn 17,
N.Y.

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

1728

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed)

Address

Mr + Mrs William B. B. B.
811 Ave C, Brooklyn 7 N.Y.

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

1723

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed) Ruth Blond
Address 240 E. 5 St - NYC

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

1724

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed) Mat Bookhills
Address 221 E. 173 St. Bronx 57. N.Y.

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

1725

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed) (Mrs.) Pauline Boratynski
Address 1050 Phandome Rd., Manhattan N.Y.

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

1720

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed) Pearl Bimbaum.....
Address 233 Weequahic Ave., Newark, N. J.

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

1721

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed) SHIRLEY BLASENHEIM.....
Address 1492 PLIMPTON AVE.....

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

1722

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed) Betsy Blom.....
Address 510 OCEAN AVE., BROOKLYN, 26, N.Y.

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

1717

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed) ... Lewis W. Beck
Address ... University of Delaware, Newark, Del.

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

1718

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed) ... Sheila Berger
Address ... 233 Broadway, Passaic, New Jersey

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

1719

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed) ... Shirley Betts
Address ... 2138-63 St. Albans, N.Y.

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed)

Address

Samuel Barber
Ridgefield Conn. N.J.

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed)

Address

Miriam Barouch
119 W. 25 St. N.Y. City

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed)

Address

Dance Baxter
444 Central Park West N.Y. N.Y.

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

1/11

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed) Mr. and Mrs. Jack Bursstein
Address 32-79 30 St. Astor, N.Y.

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

4/12

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed) Alexander Bader
Address 210 Laurel Ave. Bridgeport Conn

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

4/15

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed) Joyce Bradley Galoskie
Address 439 East 51st New York City

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

1708

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed) Frederick B. and Frances Agard
Address 182 Prospect Ave. Princeton, N.J.

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

1709

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed) AUGUSTA ALBERG
Address 304 W. 92 St. N. Y. C.

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

6/15 1710

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed) Michael Alper
Address 1003 K St. N.W. Wash. 1, D.C.

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

1706

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed) Mr. & Mrs. Samuel Abrams
Address 2427 Webster Ave., Bronx 58, N.Y.

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

1707

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in the country.

(Signed) Alex. Adlerman
Address Ida R. Adlerman
1075 Grand Concourse
N.Y. City.

on Nov. 7th next we will have voted for the H^{is}time for you for the office you have so well filled all these years.

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

1
WRB

1703

6/15
90

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed)

Metzi Aber

Address

8953-199 ST. HOLLIS L.I.

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

1704

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed)

Fannie S. Abraham

Address

839 West End Ave New York 25 N.Y.

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

1705

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed)

Mark Abrahams

Address

703 S. St. Cloud St Allentown Pa.

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

1678

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed) Mary Zlotkes
Address 2150 Wallace Ave. Bx 60, N.Y.

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

1679

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed) Mary Zabludowsky
Address 394 East 58th St. Bklyn, N.Y.

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

1680

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed) Mr. & Mrs. B. Zamber
Address 202 E. 91 St. Bklyn, N.Y.

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

1675

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed)

Address

Jessie B. Wolf ✓
2734 Chapin Cr., Bronx, N.Y.

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

1676

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed)

Address

MR. & MRS. I. WOODNER ✓
39 WEST 67th ST. NEW YORK CITY

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

1677

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed)

Address

Fans Woolsey ✓
744 Dr 54th St. Brooklyn N.Y.

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

1672

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed) William and Jobie Wiener
Address 116 Canaan St., B'klyn. 25, New York

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

1673

1673

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed) (Mrs.) Lydia S. Wilson
Address Greenlawn - L.I. - N.Y.

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

1674

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed) Frieda Wolf
Address 1284 E. 27th St., B'klyn, N.Y.

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed) Lucille M. Menden
(Mrs.) Lucille Menden
Address ... 4614 Harvard Road, College Park, Maryland

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed) Mrs. S. Westlake
Address ... 112 Holland Ave. Albany, N.Y.

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed) Lloyd White
Address ... One Park Ave., N.Y.C.

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

1666

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed) Mrs. J. Newcomb
Address 1615 - 48 St. Belton, N.Y.

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

4/14 1667

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed) Sara Helene Weiskopf
Address 1551 Welton Ave, Bronx, N.Y.

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

1668

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed) Ethel Weiss
Address 103 - 76, 68 Rd. Forest Hills N.Y.

1663

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed) Harry Weingarten
Address 130-10 - 226 / Stuyvesant Heights, N.Y.

1664

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed) (Mrs.) Sylvia R. Heurich
Address 525 Schenck Ave., Bklyn. 7, N.Y.

1665

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed) Shirley Weinstein
Address 482 St. Marks Ave., Brooklyn 33, N.Y.

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

1660

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed)

Address

May Waldman
46 F. Washington

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

1661

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed)

Address

Joseph M. Baldo
233 Lincoln Ave. Elizabeth, N.J.

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

1662

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed)

Address

Sydney Wechsler
3150 Rochambeau Ave., 67 N.Y.

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

1657

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed)

Address

Samuel Taylor
514 Jerome St., Brooklyn, N.Y.

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

1658

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed)

Address

Mrs. Miriam Teitel
10 Downing St. N.Y.C.

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

1659

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed)

Address

Mildred L. Tinsley
Pawtucket, R.I.

THE LITTLE ABBEN BOOKSHOP
34 NORTH UNION STREET
PAWTUCKET, R. I.

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

1654
4/15

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed) Martha B. Stern
Address 78 Bay 27 St. Brooklyn N.Y.

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

1638
1635

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed) Max and Berta Stevens
Address 357 West 58 Street New York 19 N.Y.

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

1635

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed) A. Stoll
Address 60 E. 24 St. N.Y.C.

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

1651

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed) Virginia Spallwood Simon
Address 1324 2nd St. NW - Washington 9, D.C.

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

1652

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed) Mrs. Margaret Stebbins
Address 300 E. - 201 St. Pierre, 58, New York

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

1653

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed) MURRAY STEINBERG
Address 1266 E. 3 St., D. K. N. Y.

1648

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

Makilda S. Larr (Signed) Estelle I. Silverman
420 Riverside Dr., N.Y.C. Address 7322-107 St., Flushing, N.Y.

1649
4/16

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed) Rhulip Winn Sisko
Address 119 Henry Street, N.Y., N.Y.

1650

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed) Joseph Solady (Mrs. L. Solady)
Address 341 Nepphuson Ave. - Tonawanda - N.Y.

1645

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed) Myrtle Schwartz
Address 240 West End Ave. New York N.Y. 4-4

1646

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed) Eleanor Regel
Address 420 W. 121st St. N.Y. 27, N.Y.

1647

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed) S. H. SILVER
Address 602 A 92nd St. Lafayette Ind

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

1642

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed)

Address

Esther Schwartz
1927 Bergen Street, Bklyn, N.Y.

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

1643

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed)

Address

Louis Schwartz
2909 - E. 10th Street Detroit

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

1644

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed)

Address

Mrs. Bertha Shankman
33 Argyle Rd. Bklyn, N.Y.

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

4/16 1639

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed) Mrs. Natalie Schecter
Address 170 Burnside Ave., Bridgeport, Conn.

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

4/16 1640

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed) Mrs. Lee Schoen
Address 154 E. 171 Street, Bronx, N.Y.

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

1641

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed) Mrs. David Schwartz N.Y.
Address 254 Legion St. Bklyn.

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

1636

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed) Bernard Rosenberg
Address Lower Washington St Peekskill, N.Y.

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

1637

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed) SYLVIA ROSENFELD
Address 2419 NO. 56TH ST. PHILA, PA.

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

1638

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed) Mrs Ruth Roth
Address 1120 Wheeler Ave

Bx # 59 NY

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed) Lou Gray Ristkin
Address Ritz tower 57th & Park New York City 22 N.Y.

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed) E. Vance Ralutaille
Address 108-24-71st Ave Forest Hills, L.I.

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed) MISS ANNA ROSEN
Address 174 W. 89 St. N.Y. City

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

1630

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed)

Mrs E Rickett

Address

345 E. 52 N.Y.C.

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

1631

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed)

Myer Rice

Address

5017 Illinois Ave. N.W. Wash D.C.

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

1632

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed)

Fannie Ringheim

Address

2145 So. Blvd. - Apartment 601 N.Y.

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

1627

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed) Esther Pavitaky
Address 1735 Fulton Ave Bronx 57 N.Y.

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

1628

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed) Mr. & Mrs. Emil Bergan
Address 111 Mt. Hope Pl. Box 712 C.

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

6/15/43

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed) Frank Ricart
Address 139-06 Pershing Crescent Jamaica 2 N.Y.

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

1624

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed) Rose, Etta + Anna Pollock
Address 182 Harold St. Roxbury 21, Mass.

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

1625

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed) MRS. A. M. POTTENSON
Address 57 DEERFIELD AVE. HARTFORD 5, Ct.

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

1626

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed) Reba Rosner
Address 16 W 77 St NYC

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

1621

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed)

Address

Joseph Dexter
2066 Creston av Bronx, N.Y.

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

1622

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed)

Address

Mrs. B. H. Peterson
485 Linden Blvd. Bklyn, N.Y.

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

1623

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed)

Address

May Pisk
8712 Colsonville Road
Silver Spring Md

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

1618

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed) Israel Paley
Address 57 W. 75 St. NYC

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

1619

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed) Paula Parson
Address 50 S. Madison St. Dover, N. J.

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

1620

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed) Mrs. Anna Pearlstein
Address 611 Birch Ave., Whaling, W. Va.

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

1615

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

Nortonville

(Signed)

Address

E. J. Oates
Nortonville, Pa.

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

1616

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed)

Address

Leonore J. Sherman
105-47-63 Ave Forest Hills, N.Y.

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

1617

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed)

Address

Thomas J. Specker
131 Terrace Bldg. Belmar, N. J.

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

161
4/15

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed) Mrs. David Norick
Address 446 Ocean Ave. Brooklyn, N.Y.

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

161

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed) Mrs. Rose Weiss
Address 17 Park Ave. Newark, N.J.

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed) Mr. + Mrs. J. Romanek + Family
Address 110 Keap St. Brooklyn, N.Y.

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

1609

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed) Fanita Morgan

Address Longview, Texas

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

1610

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed) (Mrs.) Rose B. Moss

Address 243 West End Ave NYC

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

1611

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed) F. Hassan

Address 410 E. Union St. Tampa

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

1606

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed) Anna + William Miller
Address 131 Lincoln Rd., Bklyn. 25, N.Y.

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

1607

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed) Wilton Mills
Address 920 Ave. St. John, Bronx 55, N.Y.

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

1608

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed) Thilo H. Muesbauer
Address 575 W 172nd New York 32, N.Y.

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

1603

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed)

Iscidor Meyraux

Address

*900 Grand Concourse
New York 56 N.Y.*

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

1604

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed)

Anna Mikoff

Address

*6454 Alameda Ave
Denver, CO*

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

1605

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed)

Mrs. Ruth Milch

Address

722 Clarendon Ave, Syracuse, N.Y.

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

1600

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed) ... Sarnia Marquand
Address ... 31 East 12 St., New York 3, N.Y. ...

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

1601

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

Godspeed (Signed) ... Dr. and Mrs. J. Martin + Family
Address ... 106-15 Queens Blvd., Forest Hills, L.I. ...

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

1602

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed) ... Mrs. Erik S. Mauber
Address ... 24 Fifth Ave., N.Y.C. ...

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

1597

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed) Mrs. Debora Lee
Address 1459-43 Street, Brooklyn 19, N.Y.

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

1598

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed) Harris Levin
Address 216 B 143rd St. Hempstead, L.I. N.Y.

To the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

1599

I am with you heart and soul in your new move to save the victims of Hitler's terror in Europe. And I know that you would have not only my support, but the support of most Americans, if you could see your way clear to open additional camps in which Hitler's victims could find temporary asylum in this country.

(Signed) Milton L Levin
Address 741 Coster St Bx. 59 N.Y.