Dear Boss,

Here is the first draft on the show, which we are now trying to schedule Monday March 6th; the reason being that you are busy on Friday & Saturday, Thursday & Sunday are bad nights, and before Thursday we would run into possible trouble getting figures, according to Tickton.

There is a lot of Spittin' & polishing to be yet done (keep that split infinitive from Mrs M & Joan) but the idea seems to be sound and will give us an opportunity to give you some strong talk here & there.

We will go ahead, mostly Dudley, on the script & try to fix it up, sos it will be another bell ringer. The music drama of Italy will be a humdinger.

You are not yet a Grandpop but you are sitting on the edge and the ground is giving away under you. It is so close (on a maybe basis) that maybe when Dudley & I go downstairs we will find 2 in the car where only 1 grew before.

Fred Dudley

PS The Dudleys & Smiths just had dinner in Chinatown while the gals mimeographed the script. I hope your mouth is watering.

Sec. Morgenthau: This is Henry Morgenthau, Jr.

Tonight, I have a report for our fighting forces. "A Letter from Home".

Every American in uniform deserves all the support we can give him. And that includes letting him know just how much support he is getting.

A soldier who knows he is being backed up carries an extra supply of confidence...

And confidence is a mighty important piece of fighting equipment.

This letter is being broadcast to our boys overseas. In it, among other things, they will hear a report of the results of the Fourth War Loan Drive.

Every one of the 50 million Americans who bought bonds during that drive has had a hand in writing this letter.

MRS. DUNCAN:

This is Mrs. Wilbur M. Duncan, speaking from our home at Three-Twenty-One Hart Street, here in Omaha, Nebraska.

Our son, Robert, has been serving in the Army Air Forces for three years. He is an aerial gunner, stationed in England.

During the Fourth War Loan Drive, we bought one war bond for each month Robert has served his country.

MY WIFE AND I WORK IN A WAR PLANT. DURING THE FOURTH WAR LOAN DRIVE, WE BOUGHT EVERY

IT'S OUR JOB .. AS PARENTS .. AND AS AMERICANS .. TO BACK JIM'S ATTACK.

OUR QUOTA OF BONDS .. UNTIL THIS WAR IS WON.

SEC. MORGENTHAU: PARENTS OF THREE AMERICAN BOYS IN UNIFORM.

THEIR BOYS .. BOB AND JIM AND JOHN .. ARE THREE AMONG THE MANY MILLIONS OF AMERICAN BOYS TO WHOM WE ADDRESS THIS .. LETTER FROM HOME.

IT IS A LETTER TO BOB AND JIM AND TO HARRY AND FRED AND TO MAX AND TO BILL. A LETTER FROM THEIR NATION .. FROM THEIR UNCLE SAM..

AND IT STARTS "DEAR NEPHEW" ..

EVERY AMERICAN HEART IS FILLED WITH LOVE FOR YOU .. AND PRIDE IN YOU. WE WANT YOU TO KNOW THAT, EVEN THOUGH WE'RE HAVING OUR TROUBLES BACK HERE, BY AND LARGE, WE'RE GETTING ALONG PRETTY WELL. MORE THAN ANYTHING ELSE, WE WANT TO GET THIS WAR OVER WITH .. AND BRING YOU HOME .. VICTORIOUS.

(over)
SEC. MORGENTHAU: IT IS A BIG JOB \ldots BUT THIS IS A BIG NATION. AND WORKING TOGETHER \ldots WE CAN GET THE JOB DONE.

HERE AT HOME, WE ALWAYS FEEL STRONGER AND HAPPIER, WHEN WE RECEIVE WORD OF YOUR PROGRESS ON THE FIGHTING FRONT.

SO, IN THE HOPE THAT IT WILL MAKE YOU FEEL STRONGER AND HAPPIER \ldots WE WOULD LIKE TO REPORT TO YOU \ldots SOME OF OUR PROGRESS ON THE HOME FRONT.

ONE THING \ldots THE FOURTH WAR LOAN DRIVE IS OVER. IN THIS LETTER, WE'LL TELL YOU THE RESULTS. TRUE \ldots WE HAVE SUCCESSFULLY TAKEN ONE MORE STEP CLOSER TO VICTORY.

YOU, G. I. JOE, HAVE Fought YOUR WAY TO MANY INSPIRING VICTORIES.

SEC. MORGENTHAU: BUT, YOU KNOW, BEST OF ALL, THAT ONLY FINAL VICTORY CALLS FOR A LETDOWN .. A REST FROM THE RELENTLESS RESPONSIBILITY OF FIGHTING THIS WAR.

YOU DON'T RELAX AFTER YOU HAVE TAKEN HILL NUMBER FOUR .. IF YOU KNOW THAT THE ENEMY IS ENTRENCHED BEHIND HILL NUMBER FIVE.

SO IT IS WITH THOSE OF US HERE AT HOME.

WITH THE COMPLETION OF THE FOURTH WAR LOAN DRIVE .. ONE JOB IS DONE. BUT OUR FIGHT IS FAR FROM WON. WE KNOW THAT. WE KNOW IT IS OUR RESPONSIBILITY NOT TO LET DOWN.

WE KNOW WE MUST CONTINUE TO BACK YOUR ATTACK ON ALL HOME FRONTS. BOND BUYING .. MILITARY TRAINING .. PRODUCTION .. ALL MUST CONTINUE AT FULL SPEED .. AT FULL STRENGTH.

The men being inducted and trained today will be out there fighting by your side tomorrow. Thru your experience, you have sent many valuable lessons in combat technique back here to the training centers.

And, at those training centers, you will find Americans like yourselves making ready to help do the inspiring front-line job you are doing.

For, just as the Selective Service Program carries on procuring men, our great system of military education carries on training them.

SEC. MORGENTHAU: G. I. JOE, HERE'S ANOTHER PAGE IN YOUR "LETTER FROM HOME".

PEOPLE ARE BUYING WAR BONDS. MEN ARE BEING TRAINED FOR THE FIGHTING FRONTS. BUT, HERE'S ANOTHER THING: WHEN I WAS OVER THERE WITH YOU . . IN ITALY AND AFRICA . . I SAW, AS YOU SEE, THE TOWERING MOUNTAINS OF INEVITABLE WAR WRECKAGE PILING UP, AND I WONDERED, AS YOU MUST WONDER, HOW WE CAN EVER HOPE TO REPLACE THE THOUSANDS OF TONS OF WRECKED EQUIPMENT.

I REMEMBER HOW YOU BOYS HATED TO LOSE A HALF-TRAC. I REMEMBER HOW YOU DEPEND ON THAT SIX-WHEELED HALF-TRACTOR, HALF-TRUCK TO TAKE YOU WHEREVER YOU HAVE TO GO . . AND TO HELP YOU DO YOUR JOB WHEN YOU GET THERE. YOU MUST ASK YOURSELF WHERE ENOUGH OF THESE HALF-TRACS ARE COMING FROM.
SEC. MORGENTHAU: ENOUGH TO KEEP DOING THE OLD JOBS ... AND MORE TO HELP DO THE NEW JOBS THAT WILL BE A VITAL FACTOR IN THE SUCCESS OF THE COMING INVASION.

...RIGHT NOW, I'M STANDING BY THE DOOR AT THE END OF THE PRODUCTION LINE. TAKE A LISTEN TO THIS ...

(SOUND: HALF-TRAC ROLLING OFF LINE)

...DO YOU HEAR THAT? KNOW WHAT IT IS? YOU SHOULD RECOGNIZE IT. YOU HEAR IT ON THE ROADS TO ROME ...

YOU HEAR IT IN AUSTRALIA AND THE SOUTH PACIFIC OR WHEREVER YOU HAPPEN TO BE FIGHTING. BECAUSE THAT'S THE SOUND OF A HALF-TRAC AND THIS PARTICULAR HALF-TRAC HAPPENS TO BE NUMBER ______ PRODUCED AT THIS ONE PLANT!

(SWITCH TO NEW YORK)
SEC. MORGENTHAU: THAT'S WHERE YOUR HALF-TRACS ARE COMING FROM, G.I. JOE. AND THERE ARE MORE AND MORE COMING. THERE IS MORE AND MORE OF ALL THE THINGS YOU NEED COMING FROM ALL THE PRODUCTION LINES THROUGHOUT THE COUNTRY. JUST AS YOU MUST HEAP BATTLE VICTORY UPON BATTLE VICTORY ... AMERICAN INDUSTRY MUST KEEP MEETING PRODUCTION GOAL AFTER PRODUCTION GOAL.

YES, THE WAR-BOND FRONT .. THE MILITARY TRAINING FRONT AND THE PRODUCTION FRONT ARE ALL IN ACTION, BACKING YOUR ATTACK. AND YOUR ATTACK TAKES A LOT OF BACKING, G. I. JOE. THE ACCOUNTS OF YOUR DEEDS IN THIS WAR WILL LIVE FOREVER UPON THE PAGES OF AMERICAN HISTORY.

(SWITCH TO NEW YORK)
IN THIS "LETTER FROM HOME", YOU MEN STATIONED IN THE EUROPEAN AND MEDITERRANEAN THEATRES OF WAR HAVE JUST HEARD ABOUT THE JOB BEING DONE IN THE SOUTH PACIFIC.

THE GREAT VICTORY AT TRUK STANDS AS A GLOWING ACHIEVEMENT IN OUR AMERICAN NAVAL LOG. IT WAS THE RESULT OF CAREFUL PLANNING AND THE STRATEGY OF SURPRISE. THAT IS ONE KIND OF BATTLE WE KNOW HOW TO FIGHT. ANOTHER KIND IS BEST ILLUSTRATED BY THE KIND OF WARFARE BEING WAGED BY OUR ARMY AGAINST A STRONGLY ENTRENCHED ENEMY PLUS MUD AND HEARTBREAKING WEATHER AND MOUNTAINOUS TERRAIN.

SLOWLY BUT SURELY ... FIGHTING A MASTERFUL FIGHT ... OUR ARMY IN ITALY IS WINNING THE BATTLE FOR ROME.

THE FRUITS OF THE FREEDOM FOR WHICH YOU FIGHT. TONIGHT, AS YOU SLEEP, YOU WILL DREAM OF YOUR MOTHERS, AND WIVES AND YOUR CHILDREN.

AND THIS "LETTER FROM HOME" ... ADDRESSED TO EVERY FIGHTING SON OF FREEDOM ... IS HAPPY TO REPORT ITS RESULTS.

By victories like that being won now by our army in Italy.

And by victories like that being waged and won in war bond sales and war loan drives right here on the home front.
SEC. MORGENTHAU: G. I. JOE ... THIS IS YOUR "LETTER FROM HOME".

- END -
TO THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES:

I return herewith, without my approval, H. R. 3687, entitled "An Act to provide revenue, and for other purposes".

I regret that I find it necessary in the midst of this great war to be compelled to do this in what I regard as the public interest.

Many months ago, after careful examination of the finances of the Nation, I asked the Congress for legislation to raise $10,500,000,000 over and above the existing revenue system. Since then persons prominent in our national life have stated in no uncertain terms that my figure was too low.

The measure before me purports to increase the national revenue by a little over $2,000,000,000. Actually, however, the bill in its net results will enrich the Treasury by less than $1,000,000,000.

As a tax bill, therefore, I am compelled to decide that it is wholly ineffective toward that end.

More specifically the bill purports to provide $2,100,000,000 in new revenues. At the same time it cancels out automatic increases in the Social Security tax which would yield $1,100,000,000. In addition it grants relief from existing taxes which would cost the Treasury at least $150,000,000 and possibly much more.

In this respect it is not a tax bill but a tax relief bill providing relief not for the needy but for the greedy.

The elimination of automatic increases provided in the Social Security Law comes at a time when industry and labor are best able to adjust themselves to such increases. These automatic increases are required to meet the claims that are being built up against the social security fund. Such a postponement does not seem wise.

The clause relating to renegotiating of war contracts terminates the present renegotiation authority on December 31st of this year. This seems wise at this time because no person can at present determine what a renegotiation time limit should be. More experience is needed. The formal right of appeal to the Tax Court that is granted by this bill is an inept provision. The present Tax Court exists for a wholly different purpose and does not have the personnel or the time to assume this heavy load.

The bill is replete with provisions which not only afford indefensible special privileges to favored groups but sets dangerous precedents for the future. This tendency toward the embodiment of special privileges in our legislation is in itself sufficiently dangerous to counterbalance the loss of a very inadequate sum in additional revenue.
Among these special privileges are:

(a) Permission for corporations reorganized in bankruptcy to retain the high excess profits credit and depreciation basis attributable to the contributions of stockholders who are usually eliminated in the reorganization. This privilege is due to the benefit of bondholders who, in many cases, have purchased their bonds in the speculative market for far less than their face value. It may open the door to further windfall profits in this market because of the undeserved benefit received by reorganized corporations.

(b) Percentage depletion allowances, questionable in any case, are now extended to such minerals as vermiculite, potash, feldspar, mica, talc, lepidolite, berite and apodumone. In the case of some of these minerals the War Production Board refused to certify that current output was inadequate for war needs.

(c) The lumber industry is permitted to treat income from the cutting of timber, including selective logging, as a capital gain rather than annual income. As a grower and seller of timber, I think that timber should be treated as a crop and therefore as income when it is sold. This would encourage reforestation.

(d) Natural gas pipelines are exempted from the excess profits tax without justification and in a manner which might well lead oil companies to request similar treatment for their pipelines.

(e) Commercial airlines are granted an unjustifiable extension of the tax subsidy on their airmail contracts.

It has been suggested by some that I should give my approval to this bill on the grounds that having asked the Congress for a loaf of bread to take care of this war for the sake of this and succeeding generations, I should be content with a small piece of crust. I might have done so if I had not noted that the small piece of crust contained so many extraneous and inedible materials.

In regard to that part of the bill which relates to wholly unobjectionable tax increases, may I respectfully suggest to the Congress that the excise taxes can easily and quickly be levied. This can be accomplished by the passage of a simple Joint Resolution enacting those provisions of the bill which increase the excise taxes. I should be glad to approve such a measure. This would preserve the principal revenue provisions of the bill without the objectionable features I have criticized.

In another most important respect this bill would disappoint and fail the American taxpayers. Every one of them, including ourselves, is disappointed, confused and bewildered over the practical results of last year’s tax bill. The Ruml Plan was not the product of this Administration. It resulted from a widespread campaign based on the attractive slogan of “Pay-as-you-go”. But, as was said many years ago in the State of New York in regard to that same slogan “You don’t pay and you don’t go”.

The Nation will readily understand that it is not the fault of the Treasury Department that the income taxpayers are flooded with forms to fill out which at times are so complex that even certified public accountants cannot interpret them. No, it is squarely the fault of the Congress of the United States in using language in drafting the law which not even a dictionary or a thesaurus can make clear.

The American taxpayer has been promised so many that tax laws and returns will be drastically simplified. This bill does not make good that promise. It ignores the most obvious step toward simplifying taxes by failing to eliminate the clumsy Victory Tax.
For fear of dropping from the tax rolls those taxpayers who are at the bottom of the income scale, the bill retains the Victory Tax — while at the same time it grants extensive concessions to many special interest groups.

The suggestion of withholding at graduated rates, which would relieve millions of people of the task of filing declarations of estimated income, was not adopted.

I trust, therefore, that the Congress, after all these delays, will act as quickly as possible for simplification of the tax laws which will make possible the simplification of the forms and computations now demanded of the individual taxpayers. These taxpayers, now engaged in an effort to win the greatest war this Nation has ever faced, are not in a mood to study higher mathematics.

-----------------------------------------------------

The responsibility of the Congress of the United States is to supply the Government of the United States as a whole with adequate revenue for war time needs, to provide fiscal support for the stabilization program, to hold firm against the tide of special privileges, and to achieve real simplicity for millions of small income taxpayers.

In the interest of strengthening the home front, in the interest of speeding the day of victory, I urge the earliest possible action.

EXPLANATION OF DIFFERENCE.

The decrease in Purchase Authorizations for United Kingdom is a result of the cancellation of Requisition No. 19614.
February 22, 1944

My dear Mr. President:

As requested in your memorandum for the Secretary of the Treasury, dated February 14, 1944, we shall continue to exert every effort to comply with the terms of the Third Russian Protocol. We will also cooperate with all agencies in meeting the delivery conditions and requirements of the Fourth Russian Protocol for the period from July 1, 1944, to June 30, 1945.

Faithfully yours,

O. H. Bell

Acting Secretary of the Treasury

The President,

The White House.
MEMORANDUM FOR THE SECRETARY OF THE TREASURY.

Russia continues to be a major factor in achieving the defeat of Germany. We must therefore continue to support the U.S.S.R. by providing the maximum amount of supplies which can be delivered to her ports. This is a matter of paramount importance.

The U.S.S.R. has been requested to state requirements for a Fourth Protocol, to cover the period from July 1, 1944 to June 30, 1945. It is desired that, within the limitations of available resources, every effort be made to meet these requirements.

Pending the formulation of the Fourth Protocol, it is my desire that every effort be made to fulfill the provisions of the Third Protocol, which terminates June 30, 1944.
Chungking has been quite lively of late, in fact more so than for a long time, and there are quite a number of developments to report.

1. Internal Political Situation.

There has been a slight relaxation of tension in Kuomintang-Communist Party relations, which improvement is due to a considerable extent to the lively interest shown in them by foreign public opinion in general and by foreign correspondents in Chungking in particular. So exciting was last week’s press conference on the subject that I am enclosing a verbatim stenographic report which I am sure you will enjoy reading. Have also attached addenda on background and on points arising out of the conference. The same subject will be discussed at today’s press conference too, and if news of it reaches me before this letter catches the pouch it will of course be appended. It will be noted that the Central Government while deploiring foreign interest in, is extremely sensitive to foreign opinion on, the subject. One must give credit to the foreign press corps in Chungking for playing a most constructive role in the present situation.

With respect to possible trips by foreigners to Yanan:

(a). The President has sent a message to the Generalissimo through the War Department asking for permission to send military observers to North China and the North China fronts in order to obtain military information on Manchuria, to which the Generalissimo has replied that he is willing to allow American military observers to go anywhere in North China where there are Central Government troops and where Central Government authority extends, adding that there is no need for such observers to go to Yanan as no information on Manchuria can be obtained there.
Even this is a concession, as previously movements of our military people have been strictly limited. In any case, the President's request is regarded by our military people as the first move towards a flat request for permission to send military people to the Border areas.

(b) The War Department is about to ask outright for permission to send people to the Border areas, and the State Department is going to do likewise, so that it will probably take the form of a joint request.

(a) According to latest USAAF confidential estimates, current and planned projects will cost CN$6 billion per month for the next four months for their execution. While no specific information is available for plans after June, it is known that the maintenance of operations at the level it is planned to reach in June will cost CN$3 billion per month afterwards and it is assumed that the Army will not subsequently be content with merely maintaining operations at the level attained in June but rather will be anxious to expand them.

The objections to such heavy expenditures are obvious:

(1) Government note issue (monthly figures for which have been withheld from me since November) is now at least CN$5 billion per month and may well be 6; while estimated Chinese Government expenditures for 1944 are CN$80 billion and estimated revenue CN$35-40 billion, it is more likely that expenditures will approximate CN$100 billion and revenues CN$25 billion, leaving a deficit of CN$75 billion which will inevitably be met by recourse to the printing press. Clearly USAAF expenditures in China which have to be financed by expansion of note issue will if they attain the scale contemplated lead to a doubling of the current monthly expansion of note issue. The dislocation of the Chinese economy resulting from such a huge increase in the note circulation, from the consequent rise in prices, and from the diversion of labor and resources necessary to carry out the projects will be of the gravest kind, to put it mildly. The U. S. Army, and therefore the United States Government, would be assuming a tremendous responsibility if they risked subjecting the Chinese economy to so severe a strain. It is certainly arguable whether the military advantages accruing from so large a volume of expenditures would more than counterbalance the damage to the Chinese economy, the possible collapse of the Chinese war effort resulting therefrom, and the general internal dislocation in China.

(2) From a political point of view, from our experience of Sino-American financial relations it is hardly likely that the Chinese would be content with merely ascribing the moral responsibility for such economic dislocation as would ensue to us. It is much more on the cards that they would say: "You got us into this mess. Now get us out of it." And we should have no pat answer to their claims. The political and financial responsibility for the economic reorganization of China is not one we can lightly assume. It must be remembered that firstly the present Chinese Government is a past master at seeking alibis and looking for someone other than itself to blame and to shoulder the burden which it should carry.
and that secondly the economic situation is already sufficiently critical without the imposition of so heavy an additional strain on it. In fact such large expenditures which in all probability would lead to an inevitable economic denouement would give the Central Government just the cut it is looking for. Kung is already hollering to high heaven about the black market rate, and we don't have to have a vivid imagination to picture the squawks he would raise in the situation which would ensue.

Another point worth making in this context is that such expenditures would have political repercussions within China of an undesirable character.

(3) From a military point of view it is also arguable whether the results would be worth the cost. Many military experts in the China theater are skeptical as to whether the military outcome would be all that is expected. Naturally this is a matter of high military policy and the layman cannot see the problem in its grand global perspective. But many informed people believe that as the war draws closer to Japan, the Japanese will strengthen their inner bases and lines of communication and that as part of this policy they will make a determined effort to capture the whole of Eastern China in which if our Army projects go through we shall have built several most costly air bases. As most observers believe that the Japanese efforts in this direction would be successful, our expenditures on such bases would most probably have been in vain. To digress for a moment, there seems to be a considerable divergence of opinion in the highest quarters as to the appropriate objectives in the China theater. Chennault and his school believe that we should concentrate on continuing and expanding the kind of work the 14th Air Force is performing now. Stilwell believes that while we should maintain some air activity we should concentrate on building up Chinese ground forces in India and Yunnan and Kwangsi for an eventual offensive against Burma which may never materialize, it being no secret that for political reasons the British would much rather prefer a flanking movement against Thailand, Malaya, or the Dutch East Indies, with the conquest of Burma to be made subsequently with predominantly Empire forces. The Generalissimo while also desiring the maintenance of some air activity would prefer to see our efforts concentrated on the strengthening of the Chinese Army—for reasons of his own. Finally the Combined Chiefs of Staff in Washington would, judging from the fact that they are asking for the construction of extra-large bases in China, appear to be contemplating using China for the bombing of Japan proper; in fact I am confidentially informed that it is intended to bomb hydroelectric projects in Japan proper in order to hit Japanese war production. People of the Chennault school are inclined to believe that the results of the Combined Chiefs of Staff policy would be more showy than permanent.

(4) From the point of view of the American taxpayer, expenditures on such a large scale would entail enormous US$ outlays which of course would be justifiable if they appreciably shortened the war and saved lives. While it is probable that we can attain a more reasonable adjustment for our fapt expenditures — it must be remembered that the President has made the commitment that we will pay for all US Army disbursements in China — than the Chinese have yet shown any willingness to accept, the Chinese are extremely hard bargainers, and the more we want to go through with such projects, the harder they will bargain.

The above is given as background material for problems in the discussion of which the Treasury will most certainly be involved. The position as it now stands is as follows. The Army in China has notified Washington of the scale of expenditures demanded by the operations now contemplated; it is awaiting Washington's reaction before taking up the matter with Kung, who however in an informal conversation with Acheson indicated that China would not like to see us spending more than CN$3 billion per month.

The Embassy has informed the State Department of the contemplated magnitude of expenditures and has advised it that the matter should be discussed by State, Treasury and War in consultation with the President before any final decision is reached. Therefore the matter may have already come to your attention before this letter reaches you.

(b) Acheson informs me that Kung in informal conversations is already taking a more reasonable line. No definite progress has yet been made, however. State has cabled the Embassy to reject the ludicrous Chinese offer that our expenditures in China be financed at 30 to 1. Kung has already asked Acheson that part of our outlays in China be financed by the sale of gold and US Govt. bonds in China for the account of both China and the US, and it is not unlikely that he will agree to similar sales of US currency here. Acheson has consulted me on the matter, and while he agrees that part of our payments to the Chinese Government should take the form of US Government bonds and gold shipped into China, he is not sure that such sales as the Chinese Government makes should be on joint account. While it is an open question, for myself I incline towards the view that there is more to be gained by having the sales on joint account for the following reasons:

1. If the sales in China of US bonds, gold, etc., are on joint account, we can reasonably ask that an American—presumably the Treasury Representative—should be on the Committee determining selling policy. His presence on the committee would ensure both greater efficiency and less "monkey business." That greater efficiency is an important consideration is attested to by the ultra-conservative policy the Chinese Government is at present adopting with respect to gold sales. In the face of an extremely sharp rise in black market rates (see below) and a substantial general rise in prices since Chinese New Year, the Chinese Government is still putting only small amounts of gold on the market though the price of gold has approximately doubled since the beginning of the Year.

2. We would get a much better rate for our US$ by participating in sales of gold etc. on joint account than if we depended solely on an arrangement to get fapi we need from the Chinese Government at a rate which will necessarily undervalue the US$.
Last Tuesday the 15th Dr. Kung asked me to accompany him to Chengtu to inspect the construction of airports there. We left the same afternoon and found Acheson already there. Next morning we flew over two airfields where 50,000 men were at work (each) and stopped off at an airfield where 90,000 men were at work. As you can imagine, it was quite a spectacle. The immediate problem facing Kung and Acheson is the provision of sufficient fapi to enable work on the projects to continue. Kung agreed to rush CN¥$2 a billion there immediately — on U.S. Army planes — and to have another CN¥$2 a billion sent there in the near future. Chengtu provides a laboratory specimen of the impact of heavy military expenditures on a regional economy in China. Chengtu as you know is the center of one of the richest agricultural and most densely populated areas in China. Yet our Chengtu projects have already resulted in:

1. The dispossession of farmers from land needed for the airfields.

   Owing to the nature of the existing set-up many of the farmers have received no compensation whatsoever for the loss of their source of livelihood. The Chinese Government has undertaken to bear the cost of the land and has paid the landlords 50% of the land value, but as the majority of displaced farmers are tenants — the percentage of tenants to cultivators being higher in Szechuan than anywhere else in China — it didn't help the majority of the farmers any. In one place there was a riot and the local magistrate responsible for enforcing the farmers dispossession was killed.
2. The conscription of 250,000 laborers withdrawn from agricultural labor and paid for below the prevailing rates of wages. Eventually it is expected that 300,000 laborers will be at work. The conscription of so large a labor force may interfere with the harvesting of winter crops — Chengtu has 3 crops a year — and more serious will interfere with the spring sowing if the projects are not completed by May 1, a deadline which though desirable both from a military and an economic point of view may well be exceeded.

3. One month's work on the projects has already resulted in a substantial increase in prices in the Chengtu area. While we only spent one day in Chengtu and did not therefore have time to/more than a most cursory of surveys and while the data immediately available are none too reliable, it would appear that the price of rice — in the richest rice-bowl in China, mind you — has gone up from 50 to 100%, and other prices are going up accordingly. The price of construction materials has trebled; the American military officer in charge of construction work complained that as a result of the delays in our getting the necessary fai from the Chinese Government we would have to pay a CNY1 billion for construction material more than we would have otherwise had to, owing to the cornering of the market for such material. There is much hoarding of rice and other commodities, and we shall in any case have to pay through the nose.
The magnitude of the evil repercussions of our heavy expenditures is of course partly due to the inefficiency of the Chinese Government and of the existing set-up. On the other hand, it must be remembered as an extenuating circumstance that its political control has never been really effective in this particular area of Szechuan and that it must tread lightly in dealing with the Szechuan landlords and militarists, given its methods of operation and its political base. In fact Chang Chun, the Governor of Szechuan, is already unpopular in Chengtu because he symbolizes the Central Government. I should not be surprised if the Szechuan militarists are lukewarm at the prospect of the encroachments of the power of the Central Government on their preserves resulting from the construction of such large airports in their bailiwick and if they consequently manufacture "incidents" at the expense of American soldiers. Incidentally our military plans envisage the presence of 10,000 American soldiers in Chengtu by April 15, which of itself entails a sizeable economic burden on the area for grounds on which there is no need to expatiate. I hope to have the opportunity to visit Chengtu at greater leisure and to report more fully than my one day's trip allows me to. Dr. Kung may go to Kunming next week and I may have the chance to go along; if possible I shall also try to stop off in Kweilin. Chengtu, Kunming, and Kweilin are the chief centers of U.S. Army activity, and it would be worthwhile getting a first-hand impression of problems in which the Treasury has an immediate interest.
3. The Black Market

The black market rate for US$ currency which was 88 on February 3 in Chungking leapt to 130 on February 7, 170 on February 11, at which level it remained until the beginning of this week. Today it is over 200; in Kunming where prior to this month the rate was 10-20 points higher than in Chungking the rate began to lag behind the Chungking rate when the first flurry occurred, the rate is now again more than 20 points higher than in Chungking. Some of the bidding up has undoubtedly been speculative but the trend is unmistakably upwards. The sharp turn can be attributed partly to the market's making an adjustment toward the real value of the US$ particularly after the rise in general prices after Chinese New Year, partly to the rumor that the Government was going to change the official exchange rate to 100 to 1 as a result of American pressure and was about to take action to close the black market, and partly as a result of the influx of balances on account of Shanghai. With respect to the latter, as a result of the Japanese taking over of all available supplies of cotton in Shanghai, there have been heavy shipments of dyestuffs from occupied to Free China, payment for which has taken place in Free China, with a consequent intensification of the demand for US$ currency in Free China.

Kung is now extremely worried about the black market and wants at least to bring existing rates down (rupees have risen commensurately with US$).
Accordingly he has approached Acheson about the possibility of importing US$20 million of US currency in the immediate future for the Chinese Government in order to hit the black market. As the matter will come before the Treasury in any case, I may as well give my reactions here.
The black market rates undoubtedly have some effect on prices (and vice versa) though Kung tends to exaggerate them. Nevertheless, given the psychology of the moneyed classes here and the gravity of the economic situation, not to mention the Chinese tendency to blame as many things as possible on our Army expenditures and the incursions of our Government personnel into the black market, it is only natural that the Chinese merchants will give some weight to the black market and that we should show our willingness to cooperate in Chinese Government attempts to control it. Therefore I recommend that we should accede to Kung's request to the extent of sending US$10 million in currency out and agreeing to send another US$10 million in currency out should the first US$10 million prove insufficient to bring the market under some degree of control. My first tentative opinion is that US$10 million will be sufficient, as the black market has probably not absorbed more than US$5 million in the last two years though it must be admitted that the rate of absorption is increasing. Of course Kung's request weakens his bargaining position with respect to the current negotiations for an arrangement for U. S. Army expenditures.

You must be wondering why I have not sent a "weekly economic" cable for so long a time. The reason is simple. Whether by accident or design, the officials who usually give me the note circulation data have not come through; I shall wait another couple of days and if they still hold out shall send my cable anyhow. Similarly, have not yet answered your cable on the note reserve situation because to date have not received sufficiently comprehensive information for a reply; I hope to get out a cable on the matter before the end of the week and to enclose detailed data in my next letter to you.

As for the political implications of the loan, which I hope has become a dead issue though I fear the Generalissimo will raise it again at a convenient opportunity, right now its sole effect would be to strengthen the Kuomintang. I do not know whether I have already told you that Kung informed me that it was unlikely that he would go to America in the near future, adding that while there would be a point in his going to negotiate a loan, there are no other outstanding Sino-American financial questions which would justify his leaving China at this juncture.

With regard to the air bases, the Secretary's telegram undoubtedly helped a lot. Work on the Chengtu projects is going ahead at full steam (an inappropriate metaphor) but nothing has yet been done on the East China projects which were approved by the Generalissimo some time ago and on which the Combined Chiefs of Staff are equally keen (for the differences of opinion in military circles on how best to utilize the China Theater see my letter to Dr. White). The scale of contemplated Army expenditures is much greater than any of us had realized; again I refer you to my accompanying letter for a detailed discussion of the subject.

Have been too busy in the last few weeks - what with the financial negotiations on Army expenditures - to get down to the promised report on the currency situation in Occupied China, but shall turn to it at the first free opportunity. I, of course realize that the newer Government agencies in particular are especially petty when it comes to the release of information. But there is no reason why the State Department should not make available its reports on economic conditions in the occupied areas. (Incidentally if the Generalissimo allows us to send people into North China, as he has promised, we should be able to learn much more about financial conditions in North China and Manchuria.) By the way you ought to have no difficulty in obtaining the O.W.I. mimeographed publication of its monitoring of Japanese commercial radios which often contain some information on financial and currency conditions in Occupied China, Indo-China, Burma, etc. I must say that the Embassy here has cooperated with me 100% even though it is partly due to my personal relations with the Ambassador and George Atcheson. They have called me into every discussion of our Army financial negotiations with the Chinese and have shown me all the relevant cables and material. Naturally this cooperation is two-way, but it makes much more sense than do the trivial jurisdictional disputes which the newer Government agencies apparently go in for.

Am enclosing two articles from the Ta Kung Pao on the sale of gold. The first contains a most stupid proposal with respect to savings certificates which gave Kung the opportunity to send for the Chinese press on the same day and to make a strong blast against the Ta Kung Pao. (You know that the Ta Kung Pao is the organ of the Political Science Group and is particularly anti-Kung.) He denounced it not only for its proposal re savings certificates but also for its proposal to allow us to sell gold, saying that the latter is exactly what we want. Incidentally in an informal conversation with Acheson he to some extent reversed this position by suggesting that gold be sold on our joint account. The Ta Kung Pao did not want to give Kung face by making an editorial retraction, and it therefore asked an economist who has joined the Political Science Group to write a letter correcting its previous article. Last Saturday Kung had an interview with the foreign press corps in which he made the astonishing statement that fapi would appreciate to 10 U. S. cents after the war.
Information reaches me from a reliable source that the Generalissimo has given orders for an offensive against Ichang in March or April. If the offensive is successful it would give a great boost to Chinese morale and would also have beneficial economic repercussions as Ichang is a key transportation center through which all goods coming from Hunan used to pass. Its possession by the Japanese makes necessary lengthy and expensive detours. However, Ichang is easily defensible, being a natural strong point to which the easiest access is through the Yangtze Gorges. Now for the latest news and rumors. Wei-Tao-ning is it appears going back to America after all. China Defense Supplies which has previously been run by T. V. is, it is rumored, going to be taken over by Central Trust with a resultant further concentration of power in the hands of the Kung group. K. P. Chen, by the way, is on much better terms with Kung that he was last year. This is merely a straw in the wind indicating the victory of the Kung group. The Generalissimo fired the Vice-Minister of Information for writing articles in the Tao Kung Pao instead of in the Kuomintang daily.

There is appended a detailed report of the press conference held by the Minister of Information and Vice-Minister of Foreign Affairs on February 16. The conference which shed a great deal of light on the internal situation in China has already contributed to a slight relaxation of the tension which characterizes Kuomintang-Communist Party relations. One local wit has remarked that the foreign press conference fulfills the role of the Chinese Parliament as it is the only place where Cabinet Ministers can be interpolated and interrogated. Because of its highly dramatic character, the conference is reported in the form of a one-act play; for background information Liang, the Minister of Information, who is a member of Dr. Sun-Yat's group, is an incorrigible and unscrupulous prevaricator, while Dr. K. C. Wu, the Vice-Minister of Foreign Affairs, is a smooth nonentity who largely owes his position to the fact that he has a beautiful wife who is a close friend of Madame Chiang.

Dramatis Personae.

Liang, Minister of Information.
Dr. K. C. Wu, Vice-Minister of Foreign Affairs.
Dr. F. H. Chang, Counsellor of the Executive Yuan.
Brooks Atkinson, New York Times Correspondent, referred to as B.A.
Theodore H. White, Time and Life Correspondent, referred to as T.W.
Gelder, News-Chronicle Correspondent, referred to as G.
Guenther Stein, Christian Science Monitor, Daily Telegraph and Manchester Guardian Correspondent, referred to as G.S.
Israel Epstein, Sydney Morning Herald Correspondent referred to as I. E.
Various other foreign correspondents.

Scene: Conference room of Ministry of Information, Chungking.

Time: The afternoon of February 16, 1944.

The conference opens with Mr. Liang, Dr. Chang, and Dr. Wu seated at the head of a long table with the various foreign correspondents sitting around the table.

T.W. "The Central News (the official Chinese Government news agency) recently issued a statement on American politics saying that despite all talks of unity there was great disagreement between the two American parties. It is good that such a thing should be published in China, but American correspondents would like to publish similar articles about China. This is why I am now going to ask if the Minister can tell us if the blockade of the Communist area is still continuing."

Liang: "What do you mean by blockade? And what is your source of information regarding the blockade, and where does it come from?"

T. W.: "I have been in Sian four or five times since 1939. There I was told it was impossible to go from Sian to Yenan, impossible to send medical supplies, and that military supplies were not being sent. People do not go to Yenan. This is the blockade that I refer to and which I should like to know more about."

Liang: "I know that men like Chou En-lai and his people go to Yenan without any restrictions being placed on their movements. Transportation of the 18th Route Army goes back and forth without hindrance. So the word "blockade" does not seem to bear out the situation."

B. A.: "Does the spokesman deny that there is any blockade of the Northwestern area?"

Liang: "I cannot understand the situation when you refer to "blockade" because to my knowledge representatives of the National Military Council go back and forth, and there is constant communication in that respect."

S.: "How many transports of medical supplies have been allowed to go through since 1940?"

Liang: "I cannot give the information because the question must be referred to the National Military Council."

S.S.: "Does the Minister know of medical supplies from abroad specifically sent for this area which were detained and confiscated?"

Liang: "I have heard about this but have not got the full information with which to answer the question."

A foreign correspondent: "Can we be given this information at a later date?"

T. W.: "According to articles published in America, since 1939 the Communist Army has received no supplies from the Government. Can the Minister tell us whether military supplies have gone to the 18th Group Army?"

Liang: "In order to get details I suggest that you might interview General Ho Ying-Chin (The Minister of War)."

B. A.: "If the Minister objects to the use of the word "blockade", is there any other word we can use to describe the situation? For it is common knowledge that people cannot pass freely to Yenan as to other parts of China."
In connection with this problem of the relationship between the Kuomintang, the Government, and the Communist Party, I shall say a few words "off the record". In this connection I am looking forward to the opportunity to invite the foreign friends to a specially arranged meeting when the question will be discussed more thoroughly. In the eyes of the Chinese people the relations between the Communists and the Government are regarded as something concerning our internal situation — our internal affairs. The present policy of the Government is to seek a solution by the political method. So in connection with the relations between the Communists and the Government it is not the intention of the Government to make an issue for publicity abroad. In the past there were two occasions ... "

T.W.: "May we have an "on the record" statement?"

Liang: "In order to avoid the situation being misunderstood, I have said a few words, and as a matter of fact shall not dwell on the subject unless you request it for discussion. The differences which might exist between the Kuomintang and the Communist Party could be ironed out, because such differences are regarded as matters of domestic concern and the Chinese people do not think that such differences which could be ironed out should be treated as material for propaganda abroad. The Chinese attitude towards the situation is like this: the whole thing may be likened to a family dispute in which some members of the family differ from the views of other members of the family. Such disputes will eventually be settled; so I think it is not necessary for these things to be publicized. Fundamentally there is a psychological difference between Westerners and Easterners in looking at the situation. I say that in Chinese thought it is important to remember that the man in power says little and acts more".

T.W.: "Is the blockade in Chinese thought a sample of action?"

Liang: "To have a good government it is necessary to do more and talk less. We do not emphasize propaganda. In the West you think you should publicize new regulations made by your government. This is an example of difference in psychology.

T.W.: "We are constantly pressed by people in America who wish to know what is going on. We wish to know the answers to our questions for publication in America, just as Chinese correspondents send out dispatches about us."

Liang: "The situation is a little bit different. I think our correspondents would be very glad to obey your Government's orders if they asked them not to ask such questions. The Chinese Government forbids answering such questions. If there is no blockade ..."

Wu. "There is no blockade in North China." (Laughter)
"If both members of a family have guns in their hands and the guns go off, isn’t that a serious situation?"

Liang: "How do you know the guns will go off? It is the policy of the Government not to let the guns go off. There is no possibility of the guns going off."

3.: "But the Chungking Government has guns to prevent me from going up to the Northwest."

Liang: "We have soldiers here too. We do not fear that any of our soldiers here will let their guns go off. There are troops everywhere for police purposes."

T.W.: "This is a family dispute. I have heard a Minister of the Government say that the Communists are a group of gangsters, warlords, etc. This does not sound like a family quarrel."

Liang: "These words (above) were not said for publication. I do not think that the matter should be given emphasis and that the situation be aggravated by putting too much stress on the affair. In the eyes of the Chinese people and the Government the less emphasis we place on the affair the better for everybody."

T.W.: "This is not a question of over-emphasis but of under-emphasis. Not a single correspondent has been allowed to send out a full dispatch on the situation for over a year."

Liang: "In the first place we are fighting this war for a common purpose. It is for the final victory that China should be unified. It is our declared policy to be unified and to solve the difficulty by political means. There is therefore no reason to have foreign countries make out this matter as if it could not be solved in a political way. It is the sincere, earnest desire of the Chinese Government to solve it in a political way, and therefore we do not want to talk about it. It is no good to make a lot of noise about it. As a war correspondent of a friendly ally you should not do it."

B.A.: "What is the status of the 18th Group Army? Is it an integral part of the nationalist army on the same basis as other armies?"

Liang: "It was originally regarded as a part of the regular army but due to cases of insubordination a new situation has arisen and supplies have not been sent to them."

B.A.: "For how long?"

Liang: "But it is the wish of the Chinese Government that the 18th Group Army may become once more a part of the Chinese forces, the Chinese Army, as was the case when the war first broke out, and at a previous conference the Minister mentioned that the Communist Party indicated a desire to send a few members to Chungking and in compliance with their wish a message of welcome was sent to them intimating that the Government is prepared to seek a solution by political means."
"What basis is there at the present moment for negotiation, including the fact that the Minister says that a new situation has arisen and no supplies have been sent?"

Liang: "When I assumed office I made the remark that the report that an armed conflict would occur was without foundation and that the matter could be borne out by fact and that in six months time you would see that what I said was true. It is now nearly six months since that statement was made. An armed conflict has not occurred, bearing out what I said. The situation became aggravated when the report was circulated that the radio station of the 18th Group Army had been closed down, and I made a statement that there would be no possibility of conflict and that the measure was applied to all stations.

C.: "I hope we shall not be accused of rumor. When I asked if the station was closed I was told that it was not closed. The station to which I was referring was closed and is closed - I know for a fact. I expect a direct answer to my questions. If what the spokesman has said is an implied criticism, I think the statement should be withdrawn."

Liang: "So far as I know, the day you make the inquiry the radio station was not closed (This is an unmitigated lie, see Addenda), although the order had already been issued to close all the radio stations of the different military groups and was later carried into effect. There was no preparation. Later it was closed."

C.: "I was told that the Government did not wish unproved news to go out of China, I was invited to go and see the station in operation. I accepted the invitation, but I was never taken to see the station."

Liang: "Later it was closed. What would have been the use of taking you to the station one day when it was working when the next day it was to be closed?"

C.: (heatedly) "If we are to be accused of interpreting suggestions here as rumor, I do not propose to ask any more questions."

Liang: "Did anybody say that you, that Mr. Gelder, was spreading rumors?"

C.W.: "The Japanese radio continually says that they are fighting with the New Fourth Army, but in Chungking we are told that the New Fourth no longer exists. Which is true?"

C: "If you want to read Japanese news, go ahead."

Liang: "There are elements in China who are playing up the situation ... in order to serve their own ends. Recently a message carried by Reynolds News quoted Madame Sun Yat-sen's statement in connection with her appeal to labor in England and America saying that the reactionary elements in Chungking are trying to tighten the blockade against the Communist area.
and that China was on the brink of conflict. Here is a report, apparently a twisted report. I called on Madame Sun and she denied it, producing the original telegram which reads:

"On 32nd anniversary founding Chinese Republic we must remember that progress toward democracy is like learning to swim. One learns not by talking about it but by getting into the water. War against Japanese military fascism provides another measure (?). Those serve best who devote all their energies to fight against aggression. American friends can help Chinese democracy by actively supporting all elements actually engaged in fighting Japan — Soong Ching-ling (Madame Sun)."

There is nothing like "reactionary elements" in her telegram and nothing like a demand for lifting the blockade, etc., and yet such reports appeared and were carried by Reynolds News. As a matter of fact her wish is that there should be cooperation among parties in China in the best interests of fighting aggression. (For the correct details of this episode which Liang has distorted see Addenda). I do believe that you want to report the truth — either reporting the truth or visualizing the situation before it comes about like a prophet or a man of prudence and wisdom but refusing to be instrumental for something which does not exist. Once more, I reiterate that I would like to have the opportunity to put the matter before you in future, and if you will excuse the spokesman this matter will be regarded as concluded."

Chang: "The Minister of Information proposes to conclude for the time being the discussion. This question of the Communists will be discussed later and he further proposes in the very near future to invite you to a special conference in which he will give you a long talk of two or three hours, and there you will have ample opportunity to thrash out everything.

In connection with the cables which you will be sending, the Minister would state clearly that in his opinion if whatever is sent does not work to the detriment of the interests of the Government, the Government is doing its best to settle the affair by political means, the Minister would not see the necessity for censorship; but if it works against that important purpose, the Minister is afraid that a measure of censorship will have to be enforced."

I.E.: "With regard to the statement that the 18th Group Army was regarded as an army of the National Government until a situation arose which necessitated the stopping of supplies, how long have the supplies been stopped? Second, with regard to the cable sent by Madame Sun Yat-sen in which she says "American friends can help Chinese democracy by supporting all elements actually engaged in fighting Japan", can we not take this as an implied criticism that the two armies are not equally supported?"
"I will answer later as to when payment of troops was suspended. The situation was this, the Communists were collecting taxes on their own responsibility. The moment that was known to the Government payment was suspended.

In the original telegram the phrase "American friends" is mentioned and has nothing to do with the Chinese Government. Within the last two weeks there has been no special reason to lay special emphasis on the Communist problem. Within the last two weeks one Army Corps has been withdrawn from the area. (Previously three armies had been added.) From the Chinese Government point of view we think the situation is not tense at all. In fact it is very quiet."

"There has been a very great lessening of tension in the last two weeks, and no correspondents here have fear of civil war before the Japanese are defeated. But for months and years we have been blockaded. We have not been allowed to mention the situation. Now the pressure on us is intense, and we in turn are turning the pressure on you. We do not want to make any trouble in China. We would like to paint accurate pictures. We refuse to send out partial accounts."

"It is to nobody's interest to dwell on this. Differences can be ironed out. Why should we make a mountain out of a molehill?"

"You are trying to make a molehill out of a mountain."

"An Army Corps has been withdrawn. But why play up this fact? Why not wire back that the situation is less tense?"

"China has constantly demanded increased aid from America and England. That will cost many lives, and British people are entitled to know whether China is all out to defeat Japan. If the Chinese Central Government has thousands of troops blockading other Chinese troops, how can they be all out against Japan?"

"In Szechuan we have a lot of troops. In every war you have both to fight at the front and to police in the rear. You are much better organized and do not need this. It is to the benefit of everyone that peace and order be maintained."

"It is not fair to assume that correspondents are critical of this situation just for the sake of being critical. We have asked and are entitled to ask again that we shall be allowed to go to the Communist area."

"I have never been in a country where correspondents have such an affection for the country they are in as here, but our affection for this country cannot prevent us from telling the truth to our people."

"I want to ask if we shall be allowed to go to the Communist area."

"If the Government is going to make a statement about the situation, I should like to ask the Communists to prepare a statement to cable also."

Regraded Unclassified
Liang: "The Communists have been making all kinds of statements. I should like to find out if the Central Training Corps (probably Course, given in Central Training Institute to Government officials, Kuomintang functionaries, and all Chinese who are going abroad) has been regarded as a concentration camp.

Wu: "No, I have not heard that."

Liang: "Can we ask Yenan for a statement on the situation?"

Wu: "Not from a separate government in wartime."

Liang: "Will you allow me to send a cable to Yenan asking for a statement? If and when I get a reply, will you allow us to publish it?"

Wu: "It is not our system to allow local governments to make separate statements. Sir Oswald Mosley was forbidden access in your country."

G.S.: "Are you suggesting that the Communists in North Shensi stand in the same relation to the Central Government as Mosley to the British Government?"

Wu: "Oh no. Do not quote me. I am just talking."

Liang: "There should be free speech unless it endangers the war. Mosley said the German system was the best and was doing his best to undermine the Government."

Wu: "I do not wish to say that the Communists are trying to undermine us. If we go that far, how can we solve this question?"

G.S.: "Is it worth my while to spend money on such a cable?"

Liang: "You must send it by the military telegraph station."

G.S.: "So there is a blockade."

A foreign correspondent: "Are correspondents permitted to go to Yenan and North Shensi?"

Liang: "So far as my opinion is concerned I hope that all of you may go, but this has to be approved by the military authorities."

R.A.: "Here is a letter signed by some of the correspondents to the Generalissimo, asking for permission to go to Yenan."

Wu: "So this was all pre-arranged." (Laughter) Conference adjourns.
1. With respect to the Communist radio station in Chungking, it was closed on January 15. The news got out and journalists started asking questions. Gelder towards the end of January asked specifically if the Communist station was closed. He was told that it was not and that he could go see for himself. When he took up the offer he was turned down. On February 4 the Government issued an order, making it retroactive to January 15, closing down all non-Central Government radio stations in Chungking. The ground that was given was military secrecy, it being claimed that the Japanese had broken one of the codes. It was pointed out by the journalists that from the point of view of military secrecy it was much better to let the 8 radio stations of the various provincial governments and area armies continue to function than to have all messages sent on the National Military Council radio which the Government spokesmen admitted used only one code.

2. With respect to Madame Sun, it appears that Liang did call on her to ask if she was responsible for the statement in Reynolds News, which she denied. But she has written both to the foreign press and to Liang that he distorted her formal denial to include a denial on her part of the existence of a blockade, a denial she had never made. On the contrary as the trustee of foreign relief organizations which had been trying to send medical supplies to the Border areas she had been fighting the blockade for 4 years. (Incidentally General Ho Ying-Chin and Wu Tei-chen called on her to rebuke her for her message to England and America. Moreover she has received an invitation from some American relief organization to visit the United States, but she was told by the powers that be that she could not leave China.)

3. After the press conference of February 16, the Counsellor of the British Embassy here sent for Gelder and rebuked him for asking questions which were embarrassing to the official Chinese spokesman. Gelder who is a pretty independent and ultra-professional journalist told his Counsellor to go to hell. This attitude on the part of the British Embassy is in marked contrast to the attitude of our Embassy, which views the interest the journalists are taking in Chinese internal affairs with at least tacit sympathy.

4. Our military attache here, who is not particularly well-informed on internal problems, rather foolishly boasted that he had encouraged the journalists to raise the whole issue. As a matter of fact his boast is inaccurate, as the journalists were quite capable of doing it off their own bat without any outside encouragement. Be that as it may, the boast reached the Generalissimo's ears; accordingly he sent for our leading military representative and pointed out that the military attache was not only the representative of the American Army but also a representative of the United States Government and that he had therefore no business to meddle in such matters.
5. The foreign correspondents' petition to visit Yenan has been presented to the Generalissimo, but no action has yet been taken on it. (On possible visits to Yenan see body of my letter.)

6. Hollington Tong, the Vice-Minister of Information in charge of supervising foreign correspondents frankly told one foreign correspondent that the reason why the Government has not let them visit Yenan is that all correspondents who have been up there have come back with favorable reports. Incidentally at a meeting of high Government officials last Monday General Ho Ying-chin complained that Hollington Tong had failed in inculcating the right approach among foreign correspondents and that the Government had lost out to the Communists in this respect.

7. It is reported that partly as a result of last Wednesday's press conference two truck loads of medical supplies are to be allowed to go through the blockade, but this report has not yet been confirmed.

Postlude.

On Thursday the 17th, six foreign correspondents interviewed General Tung, who has represented the Communists here since Chou En-lai's departure. Tung stated that the Communist policy was to support the Central Government as long as it led the War of Resistance against Japan and insofar as it honestly aimed at the realization of the Three People's Principles; he claimed that in the Border Areas they had already realized the First Principle of Nationality and the second Principle of Democracy but that they were still far from attaining the third Principle of the People's Livelihood. The Communists certainly did not desire a civil war. As for the blockade he said the journalists could go up to the Northwest to see for themselves and advised them to note the number of blockhouses if they did make the trip, adding that you could always move soldiers around but that you could not move blockhouses. He also indicated that the Communists would welcome the journalists going to Yenan. The journalists concerned prepared stories of this interview, all of which have gone to the Generalissimo for censorship.

N.B. All of the above is strictly confidential. The press conference was "off the record" and should therefore be treated as strictly confidential also.

February 22, 1944

1. On January 22, 1944, President Roosevelt created a War Refugee Board, consisting of the Secretary of State, the Secretary of the Treasury, and the Secretary of War, to take all possible action immediately to forestall the plan of the Nazis to exterminate the Jews and other persecuted minorities of Europe.

   Every possible opportunity should be utilised to bring home to the peoples in German controlled Europe the significance of this concrete step and to keep these peoples constantly informed of the activities of this Government and other members of the United Nations designed to save the Jews and other persecuted minorities from death. Our objective is to convince these peoples that we mean business in this matter and are determined to do all in our power to thwart the Nazi program.

2. Extermination of the Jews. It is essential that we make clear to the leaders and particularly the people in Germany and Germany’s satellites that this Government and other members of the United Nations are outraged over the policy being followed by the Nazis with respect to the Jews. The Nazis are singling out these people for murder solely because they are Jews. We must make certain that we also single out our condemnation of this nefarious crime.

   We should constantly make known to the people in German-controlled Europe the gory details of this program of extermination of the Jews in Europe. We must make it clear that the guilty will be punished and that persons who stock the human cattle trains of France, Belgium, Holland, etc., are equally guilty with the executioners in Poland. This warning should be constantly repeated, and the people in Germany and in the satellite countries should be called upon to demonstrate by their actions that they have no part in this crime. They should be asked to do what they can to save these people. They should also be asked to keep track of the evidence which can be used to convict those who are guilty and to acquit those who are blameless.

   At the same time that we thus make clear our determination to punish the guilty, we must also make clear our determination to do all we can to aid the escape of the Jews and other victims of Nazi persecution. We should make clear that we are prepared to find havens of refuge for these people should they escape. We should call upon the neutral countries of Europe to cooperate in letting these people across their borders.
UNITED NATIONS DECLARATION

The attention of the Belgium, Czechoslovak, Greek, Luxembourg, Netherlands, Norwegian, Polish, Soviet, United Kingdom, United States and Yugoslav Governments and also of the French National Committee has been drawn to numerous reports from Europe that the German authorities not content with denying to persons of Jewish race in all the territories over which their barbarous rule has been extended, the most elementary human rights, are now carrying into effect Hitler's oft-repeated intention to exterminate the Jewish people in Europe.

From all the occupied countries Jews are being transported in conditions of appalling horror and brutality to Eastern Europe. In Poland, which has been made the principal Nazi slaughterhouse, the ghettos established by the German invader are being systematically emptied of all Jews except a few highly skilled workers required for war industries. None of those taken away are ever heard of again. The able-bodied are slowly worked to death in labor camps. The infirm are left to die of exposure and starvation or are deliberately massacred in mass executions. The number of victims of these bloody cruelties is reckoned in many hundreds of thousands of entirely innocent men, women and children.

The above-mentioned governments and the French National Committee condemn in the strongest possible terms this beastial policy of cold-blooded extermination. They declare that such events can only strengthen the resolve of all freedom-loving peoples to overthrow the barbarous Hitlerite tyranny. They reaffirm their solemn resolution to insure that those responsible for these crimes shall not escape retribution, and to press on with the necessary practical measures to this end.

Referring further to notification sent to Lisbon referring to the Department's telegram of January 25, no. 626, the following has been received from the American Legation at Lisbon, and you are requested to please transmit this message to the Directorate of IOC:

We are of the opinion, after consultation with representatives of the British Embassy, the Joint Distribution Committee, HICEM, the Friends and the Unitarians, that for the present no useful purpose would be served by the opening of a branch office of the Intergovernmental Committee on Refugees or of the appointment of a Portuguese national as representative of IOC.

At present the number of stateless refugees in Portugal is slightly more than 500 which figure is expected to be reduced shortly to about 400 and such problems as are currently arising are being handled satisfactorily by existing organizations.

The relief
The relief organization's representatives who met today with the British and ourselves are in agreement with the foregoing and have stated that their ends will be served if they can count on the direct support of the American and British Missions in approaching the Foreign Office when the occasion seems to require such. Our representative stated that our instructions would make it possible for us to do this and the closest cooperation was offered by us.

It is requested that you advise the Director that the Department is in agreement with the views which he expressed, transmitted in your cable of December 30, 1943, No. 9066, and to state further that when the Fedhala Camp was first agreed upon it was the understanding of the United States and British Governments that the camp was to be a temporary one and that the responsibility of finding a more permanent place for the refugees accepted at Fedhala would fall to the Intergovernmental Committee.

At that time it was envisaged that either the permanent migration of the refugees might be organized or that they might be removed for the duration of the war to a more permanent place and thereafter to return to their countries of origin in Europe.

These plans remain in effect, and it is anticipated that, in order that the foregoing objectives can be achieved as soon as possible, close working relations may be established between the Fedhala administration and the London and/or Algiers office of the Intergovernmental Committee. Since the consent of the French Committee of National Liberation was based on the temporary stay of the refugees at Fedhala Camp, this is especially desirable.

The following message is number 6 for Lehman from Beckelman.

Referring further to my number 4 and due to the fact that there is no reply from North Africa to Embassy's question concerning security procedures for Fedhala applicants I believe that my return there along with the French representative would be preferable. I am therefore going to Casablanca on February 23 and will proceed to Algiers upon the arrival of the French representative in Casablanca from Lisbon. The French representative is of the opinion that by the last week of March the refugees may sail from Spain providing no undue delay is encountered in deciding questions of admissibility to be taken up in Algiers and in the screening of individual applications there. Twenty-five dollars per head f.o.b. shipside is my estimate of the maximum average cost of moving refugees to the port of embarkation from their present locations in Spain.

The foregoing has been repeated to Fryer in Algiers.

NO. 122

Subject: Refugee situation in North Africa

The Honorable

The Secretary of State,

Washington,

Sir:

I have the honor to refer to the Department's circular airgram of January 26, 1944, regarding creation of a War Refugee Board. There is enclosed a memorandum of February 19, 1944, prepared by Captain Paul H. Warburg, U.S., attached to this Mission, summarizing the refugee situation in North Africa and which it is hoped covers in a general way the points raised in the Department's airgram under reference.

Upon receipt of the airgram in question, I called on the Commissioner for foreign affairs and explained to him the special interest of the American Government in the refugee problem and particularly for action in the immediate rescue of Jews in Africa. A copy of the aide-memoire which I left on that occasion is also enclosed.

Mr. Nassigli stated that the French Committee was only too glad to associate itself with any work of this high humanitarian character and would cooperate to the extent that this might be possible. At the same time he pointed out that one of the chief preoccupations of the Committee was in fact the problem of refugees from France and the general displacement of French nationals. He added that as I knew this problem would be a dominant one in French post-war re-adjustments and he made reference particularly to the difficulty of absorbing the return of French prisoners, detainees and workers from Axis countries. Finally, he said that while France wished to cooperate wholeheartedly in the problem of international refugees, the French Committee was naturally constrained with its limited means and facilities available to give first attention to French nationals of any race, creed or color.

In ...
In the course of a subsequent interview which I had with Mr. Massigli, we discussed the problem of Jewish refugees now in Metropolitan France and with his concurrence the representative of the Jewish Joint Distribution Committee has been referred to the Commissariat for Refugees and Prisoners to examine the possibility of using facilities of the French underground, in so far as they may be available, to bring out a number of these Jewish refugees from Metropolitan France.

Respectfully yours,

Welden Chapin
Counselor of Embassy, in Charge

FOR PEILE FROM HITSLINN.

At our Ambassador's suggestion, I conferred today with Soviet Ambassador Vinogradov here. He agreed at first opportunity to speak with the Bulgarian Minister urging that the Bulgarian bottleneck for the evacuation of Jewish refugees be opened up. He was not very hopeful on this situation since he stated that Soviet efforts to secure concessions from the present Bulgarian Government to date had been futile. I told him of our intention to exert pressure on the satellite countries and asked him to take parallel action.

On the matter of supporting our request of the Turks for permission to use a ship for evacuating refugees, he was also pessimistic, stating that the Soviets had had no success with the Turks in any request. On both of the above matters he remarked that he could not act formally except through Moscow. He suggested that you, acting for Rec'd Feb. 28 - 4 P.M.

Secretary of State,
Washington.

A-96, February 22, 12 noon.

Reference Department's circular airgram of January 26, 1944, concerning War Refugee Board and action for rescue and relief of Jews of Europe and other victims of enemy persecution.

Reference also Embassy's despatch no. 3926 of February 17, 1944, reporting inter alia delivery to Uruguayan Minister of Foreign Affairs of memorandum setting forth policy expressed in President's Executive Order of January 22.

Embassy received yesterday in reply a memorandum dated February 17 in which the Foreign Office states:

In reply the Ministry is pleased to state that its Government is disposed in principle to cooperate in the noble work referred to in the Embassy's memorandum; but it would be grateful if the Embassy would furnish it the plan or program which the Government of the United States of America will surely have drawn up regarding the matter, in order to enable the Uruguayan Government to make the definitive decision which in its opinion may be pertinent.
Montevideo/A-96, Feb. 22, 1944

This confirms the Minister's verbal statement (reported in my despatch no. 3926) to the effect that, before considering the form which Uruguayan cooperation might take, he would be interested in receiving suggestions from us and information as to the measures we ourselves contemplate.

In the penultimate paragraph of my despatch no. 3926 I suggested that in my opinion the first step with a view to obtaining Uruguayan cooperation should be to indicate to the Uruguayan Government at least in a general way what the War Refugee Board would like to see it do.

MEMORANDUM

TO: Secretary Morgenthau
FROM: Mr. Paul

SUBJECT: Yield from the Tax Bill

February 23, 1944

Apart from the excise taxes and postal increases, the revenue yield of the tax bill would have been little more than a billion dollars. The greater portion of this yield, however - something around six hundred and fifty million dollars - comes from two simplification provisions, the elimination of the earned income credit and the denial of deductions for Federal excise taxes. These two provisions would have to be a part of any bill designed to simplify the tax laws since they are essential to tax simplification. If simplification of the income tax is deemed by the Congress to be a necessary step this year, these two provisions would, therefore, have to be made applicable to the year 1944. Consequently, the six hundred and fifty million dollars involved should not be considered as revenue lost as a result of the veto, since it would be obtained as part of the simplification program.

The Honorable
The Secretary of the Treasury

My dear Mr. Secretary:

There is attached for your information a copy of Mr. Donald M. Nelson's regular monthly report to the President on production performance against materials and equipment commitments of the Third Russian Protocol.

Sincerely yours,

[Signature]

W. L. Batt
My dear Mr. President:

Attached hereto is a tabulation showing progress made during January, and during the seven months ending January 31, 1944, towards fulfillment of Third Protocol materials and equipment production programs for the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics.

Significant among developments during the past month was the completion of arrangements to expand further production schedules for several important raw materials. In the case of aluminum, 33,600 short tons were added to the 31,320 short tons previously planned for the last half of the Protocol period. This means that total Third Protocol aluminum shipments will come to 111,000 short tons from the U.S., or 129,000 short tons from the U.S. and Canada combined. This compares with a commitment to supply 35,760 short tons from the U.S. and 18,000 short tons from Canada, or 53,760 short tons from the two countries together.

The carbon steel program was increased by 110,000 short tons, all to be produced in the second quarter, 1944. This increase seemed justified because of the marked improvement which had occurred in the steel stocks situation. By the end of December, steel stocks had dropped to approximately 267,000 short tons. Of this amount, some 100,000 were being prepared for overseas shipment, and only about 150,000 short tons remained as a reserve for later movement to port. In view of the size of recent liftings of steel products, and in view of the importance of steel as bottom cargo in the preparation of balanced shipments, it appeared that this reserve, when taken together with planned production during the remainder of the Protocol period, was not sufficient to insure an adequate flow of steel to meet potential shipping availabilities.

The nickel schedule for the balance of the Protocol period was increased by 1,125 short tons. This, together with a recent decision to furnish 1,120 short tons from Indian stocks, brought the total Third Protocol nickel program to 7,720 short tons (more than twice that of the Second Protocol period) as against an original offer of 5,400 short tons. Among other increases authorized were 14,000 short tons additional of "other chemicals" (i.e. a wide variety of miscellaneous chemicals), an additional $5,000,000 of "other materials", 134 short tons of nichrome, and 38.5 short tons of cobalt.
A second development of importance was the completion of arrangements for processing an important block of requisitions for industrial equipment to be delivered after June 30, 1944.

It will be recalled that included in the Third Protocol was a provision that the U.S. would consider accepting during the Third Protocol period $300,000,000 of industrial equipment for delivery after June 30, 1944. The reason for the inclusion of this provision was to insure that there would be a continuity in the flow of industrial equipment required for the U.S.S.R. without at the same time making necessary disruption in U.S. production schedules. Third Protocol industrial equipment offers were so planned and formulated that practically all orders which were carried over into the Third Protocol period or which were to be accepted as regular Third Protocol orders would be completed by June 30th. This meant, of course, that unless new orders for industrial equipment were placed well before July 1, 1944, there would necessarily be an extended period during which no industrial equipment would be coming off the lines for the U.S.S.R.

During the months following the completion of the Third Protocol, Soviet representatives submitted a very great number of requisitions and programs for approval under this "advance order" provision. (The total exceeded $300,000,000.) Of these, two projects (a refinery program and a new power program), totalling $75,000,000 in value, were accepted. Others, however, were held up because (a) the requests were not in balance, there being many important types of equipment which the U.S.S.R. obviously would need during the Fourth Protocol period but which were not included; and (b) a number of the items were of such nature as to lead the Foreign Economic Administration to question whether they were lend-leaseable under a strict interpretation of the Lend-Lease Act.

In view of the long production cycle required for industrial equipment, the hold-up in the clearance of advance requisitions threatened to disrupt the whole plan to insure that there would be no interruption in the flow of equipment to the U.S.S.R. The FEA and the WFB decided, therefore, that it would be necessary to blueprint, on the basis of extensive information which was at hand, the likely over-all Fourth Protocol industrial equipment program, and to estimate, by particular categories of equipment, the number of advance requisitions which would be necessary to insure that the over-all program could be carried out without undue difficulty.

Because of uncertainty as to policy in regard to long-run equipment, this blueprint was limited to maintenance and replacement equipment as distinct from plant rehabilitation and project type equipment. In thus limiting the program, there was no intention of precluding ultimate acceptance of project type equipment. The only consideration was to divorce maintenance and replacement equipment from project type equipment so that production could be initiated in the case of the former without subjecting it to further delays pending resolution of policy problems incident to the latter.

Through extensive studies carried out by the WPB and the FEA, it was found that at least $105,000,000 of advance orders would be necessary if the object of insuring a continuity in the flow of maintenance and replacement equipment was to be achieved. This $105,000,000 would be in addition to the $75,000,000 of advance orders (refinery and power equipment) which had already been approved, and in addition to such Third Protocol orders as would inadvertently be carried over.

After completion of WPB and FEA studies, the Protocol Committee reviewed the proposals which had been formulated and gave them its approval. Soviet representatives were then requested to formulate necessary programs. These programs have begun to come in, and it is expected that full procurement arrangements will be completed within the next few weeks.

Meanwhile, it is felt that if long run plant rehabilitation and project type equipment (e.g. steel mills, large power stations, chemical plants, etc.) are to be approved, this approval should be granted as soon as possible. The lead factor required in the case of most of this equipment is such (twelve to sixteen months) that an appreciable further delay would probably make impossible completion of programs by June 30, 1945, i.e., by the end of the Fourth Protocol period.

Respectfully yours,

/s/

Donald M. Nelson

The White House
Washington, D. C.

The Third Protocol provides that up to 200 R.T. of special non-ferrous wires may be ordered. Until the present, however, only 100 R.T. have been requisitioned. The Third Protocol production schedule is, therefore, limited to this amount. Deliveries to date include 18 R.T. of tungsten alloy wires; 2.8 R.T. of constantan wires; 3.1 R.T. of tantalum wires; 28.2 R.T. of niobium and chromium wires; 25.9 R.T. of molybdenum wires; 4.7 R.T. of annealed manganin wires; 17.3 R.T. of niobium wires; and 3.6 R.T. of round manganin wire.

The production program shown is for the first half of the Third Protocol period; the rate of actual deliveries to the Protocol schedule has, therefore, been adjusted to take this into account. The October shipment completed the full original Protocol offer. The U.S. has recently requested the increase of the Protocol offering by 78 R.T. The U.S. has agreed to supply one-half of this along with the 80.5 R.T. included in its Protocol schedule. The U.S. will supply the remainder, with shipments beginning in February or March.

The Third Protocol cadmium offering was originally included in the Canadian schedule. Because of adverse developments in the Canadian situation, however, the U.S. has agreed to the transfer of the commitment for the second half of the Protocol period to its schedule.

Because of the stocks situation, Third Protocol offers to supply up to 700 S.T. of ferrosilicon and 1,064 S.T. of ferrochrome per month are considered imperative.

Ferromolybdenum, ferrovanadium and ferrotungsten have been scheduled in the quantities shown as substitutes for an equivalent tonnage of ferrosilicon and/or ferrochrome. This scheduling took place in the case of ferromolybdenum and ferrovanadium in November, and in the case of ferrotungsten in December. The ratio of actual deliveries to the Protocol schedule has, therefore, been adjusted to take this late scheduling into account.

To meet an urgent Soviet requirement for additional Ethyl Alcohol, the U.S. has agreed to supply 30,000 S.T. during the first quarter, 1954 in addition to the 107,500 S.T. originally promised in the Protocol. The U.S. still has under consideration a request to furnish a further 30,000 S.T. in the second quarter, 1954.

To meet Soviet requirements for a wide variety of miscellaneous chemicals, an increase in the Third Protocol "Other Chemicals" category by 14,000 S.T. has been authorized. The U.S.A.R. has submitted a list of items which it wishes to procure under the new authorization and the production situation in regard to these is currently under study. Pending actual requisitioning and scheduling of items included, the additional 14,000 S.T. authorized is not shown in the Third Protocol production program.

Old orders for marine and submarine cable have been largely completed, whereas deliveries of new orders have not yet begun because of lead times.

Comments

- Old orders for power and related cables have been largely completed, whereas deliveries of new orders have not yet begun because of lead times.
- To date, no regulations have been submitted by Soviet representatives.
- Because of delays in the submission of regulations, production of condenser paper was not begun until January.
- Except in the case of machine tools, forging press, and burners, equipment, torches, and related equipment, a substantial portion of Third Protocol offers is taken up with new orders. Because of lead times, shipments of new orders have not yet begun in volume. Total deliveries in these categories are, therefore, necessarily temporarily behind Technical Protocol requirements. It should be noted that in the case of certain categories, Third Protocol offers have been modified through substitutions, etc., in order to meet changing needs of the U.S.S.R. (In example, the transfer of approximately $600,000 of credit from the Electric Furnace category to the Rolling Mill category). Pacing the completion of these modifications, no effort is being made to reflect these through changing the Third Protocol production schedules originally set up.

General Marshall met secretly with members of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, presumably on the question of setting up Palestine as an independent Jewish state.

Committee members declined to discuss the matter after a two-hour closed session with Marshall, but the legislation before them during the meeting was a resolution proposing to place the Senate on record in favoring Palestine for the Jews.

UNITARIAN SERVICE COMMITTEE
25 Beacon Street, Boston 8, Mass.

February 23, 1944

Mr. John W. Pehle
War Refugee Board
Treasury Department
Washington, D. C.

Dear Mr. Pehle:

At your request, I am submitting the following proposal for a broadcasting program in aid of refugees in Europe.

The proposal - The Unitarian Service Committee proposes to arrange with the World-Wide Broadcasting Foundation, 630 Fifth Avenue, New York 20, N.Y., for regular broadcasting programs through the Boston transmitting stations of W.R.U.L., the expense of the program to be carried by the Unitarian Service Committee through funds raised for this special purpose.

W.R.U.L. - The World-Wide Broadcasting Foundation is a non-profit organization supported by voluntary contributions dedicated to a broad service for humanity. It has no political or partisan purposes but is whole-heartedly committed to the cause of the allies. It was founded in 1935 with the cooperation of Harvard, Boston University, M.I.T., Mt. Holyoke, etc. In 1936 it broadcast the full program of the Harvard Tercentenary Celebration. In 1937, '38 and '39 the World Radio University began to take shape. Its record of cooperation during the war period is beyond praise. Its broadcast saved approximately nine-hundred Norwegian vessels to the Allied cause. It helped to swing Yugoslavia to our side. As I can testify from first-hand information, its programs to Europe became over there the most trustworthy source for accurate news of war developments. Under the program of O.W.I., the entire facilities of the Foundation were taken over by the government, although serious doubt has been felt as to the wisdom of this step in view of the extraordinary influence of W.R.U.L. in foreign lands exerted by programs already thoroughly established. Mr. Walter Lemmon, the president and founder of the world-wide broadcasting foundation, is heartily in sympathy with the above proposal and ready to cooperate to the full under the conditions which follow.

The General purpose - The purpose of these broadcasts would be to appeal to the people of Axis and occupied countries to help the oppressed minorities. It would be a broad humanitarian appeal but with a very definite note of warning in it. Our program of broadcasting abroad has made in the past certain inept emphases which have tended to defeat the very purpose they have in mind. Nothing, for instance, could be more maladroit than the broadcast message "Show your anti-Fascist feelings now; tomorrow it will be too late". In Nazi countries to manifest anti-Nazi sympathies at the present moment is to

cc - Miss Chauncey (for the Secretary), Mr. Paul, Mr. White, Mr. Gaston, Mr. Pehle, Mr. Luxford, Mr. E. W. Bernstein, Mr. Friedman, Mr. Lesser, Miss Hodel, Mr. Stewart, Mr. Pollack, and Miss Laughlin.
commit suicide; and if tomorrow it is to be too late, then naturally, everyone comes to believe that his only hope lies with an Axis victory. Our major emphasis should rather be, "Help the victims of Nazi aggression, and you will have someone to plead for you after the victory is won. If you are able to help these poor unfortunate with shelter or clothing or food, or other assistance, they will remember it, and so will we. Perhaps the only way for you to show your sympathy for the cause of democracy, which is already winning the war, is to help these victims of Nazism. If you help them, your assistance will not be forgotten."

The Plan - All broadcast programs would of course be subject to government censorship, but it is essential to the success of this plan that the messages should originate with the Unitarian Service Committee and the World Wide Broadcasting Foundation and should be quite independent of the O.W.I. We would suggest that the O.W.I. release two of the transmitters for three hours a day. The programs would be beamed so as to cover all of Northern Europe and all of Southern Europe and would of course be in all the necessary languages. The programs would be so timed as to reach all part of Europe just before and just after midnight, which is the safest time and best time for a clandestine listening abroad. The Unitarian Service Committee is in a position to secure through underground channels specific information about conditions in various parts of Europe so that a broadcast could be very direct and challenging. Officers in the German army and in the satellite armies, governors of districts, from the highest rank to the lowest rank, can be addressed by name. Reports of their activities can be sent to them so that they know that they are being watched and their acts recorded. Many of them will be eager to atone for past cruelties, if they know that their names are on the list of those on whom the wrath of the victorious allies will some day be visited. No specific promises can of course be given; but we can make it clear to many an official in the Axis and occupied countries that it will be well for them to have on their records a few deeds of kindness. We believe that such a program as this in a dozen different languages and everywhere directed to named individuals or to specific situations will have a most powerful influence in protecting and saving these persecuted people.

Sponsorship - It seems to us of great importance that this program should not be under Jewish sponsorship, directly or indirectly. It seems to us also of great importance that this should not be under government sponsorship. It should be the common people of America speaking to the people of Europe, not a part of the alleged Jewish plot to dominate the world nor a part of suspected government propagandas.

The cost - Such a program as this would probably cost about $10,000.00 for a six months period. The Unitarian Service Committee thinks that it can raise the money for this program without difficulty.

Very truly yours,

Dear Sir:

This is in reply to your memorandum of February 23, attaching a copy of the cable received from Hirschmann, representative of the War Refugee Board in Turkey.

In said cable it is indicated that if the United States can offer to the Turkish Government a guaranty to replace the vessel referred to therein, if the same is lost, it is believed that the Turkish Government might permit the use of the ship for the purposes indicated.

The War Shipping Administration may, as a lend-lease transaction, with the approval of the Foreign Economic Administration, replace this vessel if the same is lost, with a vessel as similar and from as nearby waters as may be available. The War Shipping Administration will replace the vessel under those circumstances and you are authorized to commit this Administration to such a replacement plan. It is understood that before the vessel is actually replaced, the consent of the Foreign Economic Administration will be obtained and the War Shipping Administration will be reimbursed for the reasonable value of any vessel delivered as a replacement.

MEMORANDUM FOR ADMIRAL LAND

Attached is a cable received from Hirschman, representative of the War Refugee Board in Turkey who was appointed pursuant to the President's Executive Order of January 22 declaring that it is the policy of this Government to take all measures within its power consistent with the successful prosecution of the war to rescue the victims of enemy oppression who are in imminent danger of death.

You will note that Hirschman indicates that it is possible to rescue 800 to 1,000 refugees, mainly children, from Transnistria who are in danger of starvation and death if the charter of the S.S. VANTAN owned by Kalkawan Riza, Turkish shipowner, can be obtained at once. It appears that the Turkish Government refuses to permit the owner to enter into the charter because of the danger of the loss of the ship. The International Red Cross has promised to secure safe conduct of this ship from all the belligerent powers concerned. Hirschman indicates that if we could offer to the Turkish Government a guarantee to replace the ship if lost, there are good reasons to believe that the Turkish Government might permit the use of the ship for the purpose indicated.

282, February 18, 11 a.m.

FOR JOHN PEHLE DIRECTOR OF WAR REFUGEE BOARD

FROM HIRSCHMANN,

I am gradually getting a picture of some of the possibilities and of the enormous difficulties facing our work. Although the Turks express themselves as sympathetic thus far they have been helpful only to a limited extent. They may be due to some of the circumstances recited below. In dealing with the Turks I shall rely entirely on Ambassador Steinhardt who enjoys their full confidence.

Bulgaria through which almost all refugees from Europe and the Balkans must pass in transit to Turkey or beyond has for quite some time past been withholding transit visas for those coming from other from other parts of Europe and the Balkans and withholds exit visas from Jews residing in Bulgaria.

In the past fortnight only one Jewish family succeeded in leaving Bulgaria and reaching Istanbul.

While I hoped that we would not have to avail ourselves immediately of the special authority to deal with the enemy I feel that you in Washington and we here will be compelled to use this means.

The satellite countries namely Hungary, Rumania and Bulgaria are most anxious to whitewash themselves in the eyes of the Allies. We must exploit this anxiety at once. We must bring every pressure brought to bear through neutral agencies or any other means at your disposal, as well as by direct contact with the representative of the above mentioned satellites.
They must be given to understand in no uncertain terms that unless they take immediate steps which will facilitate our work the Allies will look upon them as real enemies who are fully collaborating with the Nazis in their work of extermination and that this will be held against them when the war is over 3- 282, February 18, 11 a.m. from Ankara

is over. It should be made clear to them that no apologies or extenuations will be accepted. I expect to telegraph you more fully about the Bulgarian bottle in a few days.

I think it would be helpful if you would call on the Turkish Ambassador in Washington to request of him that he cable his government the determination of the United States Government to carry out its rescue program with all energy and resources and that immediate aid on the part of the Turkish Government will be highly evaluated.

I am informed that in view of the Bulgarian impasse the Jewish agency officially dealing with transportation of Jewish refugees from the Balkans has extreme difficulties with land route bottlenecked in Bulgaria. They obtained promise of provisional charter for SS Vatan 3700 tons owned by Kalkawan Riza Turkish shipowner who is willing to take her with Turkish to Constanza to bring out to Istanbul 800 to 1000 refugees, mainly children from Transnistria whom Rumanians are at present willing to release, but who may at any moment be in danger of starvation.
of starvation and death. International Red Cross promises to procure safe conduct for this ship from all belligerent powers concerned. The Turkish Government fully controls all private shipping and is faced with extreme transport difficulties of its own. It refuses to permit owner to enter into Charter Agreement because of danger of loss of ship even when under safe conduct as has occurred.

To overcome anxiety as to possible loss of ship, we strongly urge immediate offer of guarantee by the United States to the Turkish Government to replace ship. Will you cable us authority to offer this specific guarantee of ship replacement immediately from nearest waters which please designate in your reply in order to reopen negotiations on this question of Turkish ship. Have reasons to believe that this guarantee would offer basis for reopening question. As an alternative there are Swedish ships carrying food from Canada to Greece under the auspices of Swedish Red Cross. The exact number is unknown here. Complete information on this is available only at Stockholm which I suggest you procure
-S- 282, February 18, 11 a.m. from Ankara

you procure at once. These empty Swedish ships could possibly proceed from Greece to Constanza and transport some refugees. Turkish officials suggest this alternative plan. We prefer first plan as it would save time in a situation which can disintegrate quickly. Also once this ship is allowed the first voyage and accomplishes voyage successfully we can work to continue these trips to save additional refugees.

Please also explore at once the possible use of other neutral ships from Portugal or Spain.

The point is that we must under all circumstances get a ship at once.

Please advise.

My dear Mr. Secretary:

The Joint Chiefs of Staff and our military commanders in the field have expressed their serious concern over comment in the press and on the radio by prominent persons in this country with respect to projected military operations. This concern is shared by me.

From a study of such material, it is apparent that there is serious danger of compromising the security of projected military operations which conceivably could result in unnecessary loss of lives and jeopardy to the operations themselves. The Office of Censorship is taking such action as lies within its power to prevent disclosures of classified information in the press and on the radio.

Will you please see that your particular department and its various bureaus and divisions issue instructions to their personnel to refrain from any speculation or discussion, either privately or for publication, regarding secret weapons or equipment, current and future military operations or plans and the movements of troops and ships, prior to announcement by the proper military or naval or higher authority; and, in cases of high level international conferences, prior to authorization being secured from the Executive Office of the President.

I am sending an identical letter to the responsible head of each Department and Agency of the Federal Government which may be concerned in this matter.

Very sincerely yours,

Note for Parkinson file:

Mr. D. W. Bell called me after talking with Secretary Morgenthau on telephone. Secretary said to be sure that nothing is made public on the Parkinson letter. Told Mr. Bell that Mr. Paul had not taken any steps with Biddle toward publicity in view of Mrs. McHugh's caution that the Secretary had not seen the reply from Parkinson in which Parkinson said he would "forget" it, and that I was holding it.

Mr. Bell said he would not have approved if he had known the Secretary had wanted to take action toward publishing it.

Dear Mr. Secretary:

Replying to yours of the third,
I am quite sure that you can have no doubt of my cooperation in support both of the war and of your efforts to finance it. What I said to you was perfectly plain that my enthusiasm, which I value highly, depends upon the reasonableness of the circumstances surrounding me.

Your letter does not sound like you but you signed it and I'll forget it.

I am enclosing a copy of my letter to the Attorney General closing my correspondence with him as far as I am concerned.

With best wishes.

Very truly yours,

The Honorable Francis Biddle,
Attorney General,
Washington, D. C.

Dear Mr. Attorney General:

Despite the fact that I would enjoy continuing our discussion of the general principles involved, I have come to the conclusion that no good purpose will be served by prolonging our correspondence with respect to the matters referred to in your recent letter. The cases are now in the hands of the Courts which will in due time grind out decisions that will determine the justification for your procedure.

Forgive me when I remind you that before the Committees of Congress when you faced possible technical action by the Congress, you urged that its members be "sporting" about the matter then under discussion. If, as I think likely, you meant by that "be reasonable under all the circumstances", I think you were but asking of them what I was suggesting as the guide to your procedure in these cases.

I value my enthusiasm more than my time and I have made my point that it is hard for me to be enthusiastic unless the atmosphere is reasonable. And I'll let it go at that.

Otherwise with best wishes.

Faithfully yours,

President

Dear Francis:

For your information, I am enclosing herewith copy of a letter which I have written to Mr. Thomas I. Parkinson.

Honorable Francis Biddle,
The Attorney General.
Dear Mr. Parkinson:

I note your interest in our plans to finance the Nation's war requirements soundly. We are in accord as to the advisability of selling as many bonds as possible to individuals and their savings institutions rather than to commercial banks. And I sincerely believe in the principle you voice -- that the importance of unity and application to the principal job in hand cannot be overemphasized in these trying times. What troubles me is the way you apply this principle, and particularly the price you seem to think will have to be paid for unity.

Your letter plainly implies that unity and cooperation are to be purchased by the Government's condoning violations of law on the part of some of our leading citizens and corporations. In a war for the survival of the institutions and civilization in which these citizens and corporations take a principal part, I will not believe that this is so. If it were true, I believe that the overwhelming majority of our people would think the price unnecessarily high. We should be yielding on the home front to the very Fascist techniques we are seeking to destroy on the military front.

You say that you cannot believe that members of this administration, including me, can be parties to the Attorney General's action in procuring an indictment of the Chase National Bank for an alleged violation of the Trading with the Enemy Act. I understand that the Attorney General has recently advised you of the facts. The Division of Foreign Funds Control and the Bureau of Customs of the Treasury Department made the original investigation in the Chase-Anton Sult case. As a result of this investigation, the Treasury Department referred the matter to the Attorney General for appropriate action. The question of guilt under the indictment, as you know, is for the courts to decide.
You suggest that the Bank has been indicted for a technicality. I can hardly agree that a mere technicality is involved. The Bank has been charged with willful failure to block the accounts of Anton Smit and Company, Inc., when the laws of the United States required blocking and when transfers of funds in the account were legal only if made pursuant to a Treasury license. The charge is that the Chase Bank's failure to observe these requirements resulted in the use of the account to finance shipments of industrial diamonds to Japan and Axis Europe -- diamonds now being used in building Axis war planes. Under these circumstances the charge can hardly be construed as a mere technicality; it goes to the very heart of national defense.

You indicate that the Attorney General's action is calculated to disturb the unity of our people at a time when the President has called for "unity and patriotism rather than the pursuit of common, selfish and political interests." And then you declare that those responsible for the administration of the Federal Government can not expect enthusiastic cooperation from men such as you in the accomplishment of the great tasks confronting our country if you are to be diverted from those tasks by the action of individual members of the administration such as those of the Attorney General in commencing this prosecution. And you add that "enthusiasm under such circumstances is just impossible."

I am frank to say that I should have expected a different attitude on your part. If you mean what your letter so clearly implies -- that the valuable cooperation and enthusiasm in our common effort of persons in your prominent position depends upon a passive attitude on the part of the Government toward questionable conduct by banks and others charged with duties under the Trading with the Enemy Act -- I can only say that long experience with American bankers and financial institutions leads me to the opposite conclusion. I believe they are in whole-hearted accord with the war effort, and that they will approve and cooperate with the enforcement of the wartime measures adopted to see the Nation safely through this grave emergency.
Nor should I have expected you, or any other loyal American, to question that all banks should obey the national defense laws of the United States. I do not believe that active enforcement of our laws makes for lack of unity. It seems to me that the unity of our people would be basically disturbed if the Government failed to take the action required by law against any bank, large or small, no matter what its record of cooperation with the Government in other matters.

Very truly yours,

Dear Henry:

Enclosed is a copy of a letter which I have just written to Thomas I. Parkinson, President of the Equitable Life Assurance Society, in reply to a letter from him with which he transmitted a copy of one he wrote to you under date of January 13, 1944, bearing upon the indictment of the Chase National Bank.

With kindest regards.

Thomas I. Parkinson, Esq.
The Equitable Life Assurance Society of the United States
393 Seventh Avenue
New York 1, N. Y.

Dear Mr. Parkinson:

I have read the copy of your letter of January 13, 1944, addressed to the Secretary of the Treasury, which you sent me.

Apparently it is your theory that enforcement of the laws against financial institutions - although not against others, since presumably you do not expect all of law enforcement to cease - is "unnecessary", particularly now. Needless to say I do not subscribe to that point of view. If I permitted my judgment to be influenced by the considerations which you advance, I would be disregarding established principles of law enforcement. Cognizant of the vital role which the enforcement of the Foreign Funds Control program plays in the internal and military security of our country, we have in the past, and we intend in the future, to enforce strictly the criminal sanctions which insure compliance with its provisions.

The object of the Sherman Act is to protect the public against the very type of monopolistic tactics in which the fire insurance companies are engaged, which includes not only the fixing of rates by private combinations but boycotts aimed at the suppression of the business of non-cooperative competitors. The purpose of the National Labor Relations Act is to prevent employers from denying to their employees the right freely to choose representatives for purposes of collective bargaining; no reason has been suggested why the employees of life insurance companies should not be afforded the same protection in this respect as other workers. Such proceedings to enforce against insurance companies the laws applicable to business generally, in times both of war and peace, certainly will not directly impair the prosecution of the war; permitting the insurance companies to violate the antitrust and labor relations acts can scarcely be said to be in the aid of the war effort.

On the contrary the people of this country will have the right to that confidence in the integrity of their government which is essential to the furtherance of the war only if they know that the laws applicable to everyone, whatever his station, are enforced with equal diligence.

As for the case involving the Chase National Bank, you say you were shocked when Mr. Aldrich advised you of the return of an indictment against the Bank for violation of the Trading with the Enemy Act. I am sure that the announcement would have been less startling had you been fully advised by officials of the Bank, who were in a position to know, that the indictment was the result of a careful investigation initiated by the Treasury Department in the fall of 1942. Officials of the Bank who were examined by Treasury investigators in November of 1942 were fully apprised of the nature of the inquiry and of the Bank's possible implication in violations of the Foreign Funds Control regulations.

The results of the Treasury investigation were referred to us by the Secretary with appropriate recommendations in January, 1943. Despite the thoroughness of the Treasury Department investigation and the apparent soundness of the conclusions set forth in its Criminal Reference Report, I directed attorneys of this Department to review carefully both the findings of fact and of law before presenting the case to a federal grand jury. Accordingly, all available employees and officials of the Bank, both those who were responsible for the allegedly illegal transactions and others who were familiar with the Bank's system of control, were interviewed and all pertinent documentary evidence was carefully reviewed.

The evidence developed as a result of the investigation established probable cause to believe that the Chase National Bank had at the direction of Leonard J. A. Smit, a foreign national, made payments in which he has an interest. The payments were made with knowledge that Smit's accounts with the Guaranty Trust Company and the National City Bank had been blocked by order of officials of these institutions. Furthermore, the Chase National Bank, with knowledge of the fact that Smit had been refused export licenses to ship diamonds to Switzerland and to other neutral countries in Europe, made available to Smit the facilities of its Panama Branch and established there, at his direction and on his behalf, large credits which transmitted through the Chase National Bank of New York from Japan, Switzerland, Sweden and other countries. The Bank charged Smit a special "security fee" on this account apparently, according to the explanation of its officials, because it regarded the money in the account as "hot money".

You must be aware that making payments without a license at the direction of a foreign national or making payments in which a foreign national has an interest without a license is a violation of Section 5 (b) of the Trading with the Enemy Act. You should also know that transferring credits out of the United States in which a foreign national has an interest or at the direction of a foreign national is likewise a violation of the Trading with the Enemy Act. Officials of the Bank who knew of and authorized these transactions were aware of the fact that if consummated without a license, the transactions were violations of the Trading with the Enemy Act. Notwithstanding this, they made banking facilities available in Panama and permitted payments and transfers of credit to be made at Smit's direction and on his behalf during the period from May 20, 1940, until December 10, 1941. The sums thus made available totaled over a half a million dollars.

I have noticed in this connection that your letter does not assume to justify the action of the Bank, nor to deny that there has been a violation of the law. Your complaint is against the untimeliness of our prosecution of what you call a technicality.

Your comment on the "academic" nature of the insurance cases refers, I suppose, to the fact that insurance companies have generally been regarded as immune from federal regulatory statutes because of the language of certain Supreme Court decisions sustaining the validity of state regulation of the insurance business. Obviously the problems raised are not at all academic from the practical point of view of the members of the public protected by Antitrust and Labor Relations Acts; nor are they academic to the insurance companies, as both the nature of their opposition and your letter itself vividly attest. You do not suggest that a conscientious law enforcement officer, looking at the facts of the nation-wide insurance industry, could not conclude that the business was both interstate and commerce, and thereby subject to federal laws regulating interstate commerce. That, of course, was the position taken by the insurance companies themselves from 1866 to 1913, when they finally gave up the fight because they thought it futile and not because they thought they were wrong. Nor do you suggest that, when recent Supreme Court decisions definitely indicate that the scope of the federal commerce power extends to the insurance business—it is noteworthy that neither of the opposing counsel in the cases just argued were willing to argue to the contrary—I should regard myself as bound by the unsupportable statements and opinions rendered a generation or more ago.

I do not suppose that in normal times you would regard enforcement of the law in circumstances like these two as "the pursuit of narrow, selfish and political interests." Your grievance with respect to both cases comes down to the proposition that I should not enforce the law at this time because persons of the same economic class as those prosecuted will no longer cooperate in winning the war. The mere statement of such a position is sufficiently shocking to be its own answer.

Yours very truly,

Attorney General
January 13, 1944

Mr. Henry W. Morgenthau, Jr.,
Secretary of the Treasury
Washington, D. C.

Dear Mr. Secretary:

I am, as you know, much interested in your plans to finance your war requirements soundly and applaud your efforts to sell as many as possible of our necessary bond issues to the people and their savings institutions.

Realizing, as we all do, the importance of unity and application of the principal job in hand, you may, I think, realize the shock that some of us felt yesterday when the Chairman of the Board of the Chase Bank announced to his board of Directors that the Department of Justice, under the leadership of Attorney General Biddle, had obtained, and I use the word obtained advisedly, an indictment of the Bank for an alleged violation of the Trading-With-The-Enemy Act. In normal times it would be ridiculous to indict a bank for such a technicality. At the present time such action is bound, on the one hand, to disturb the unity of our people generally, and on the other to impair the enthusiasm of officers of financial institutions for cooperation with the Government and particularly the Treasury in the accomplishment of its difficult tasks. You cannot inspire men's enthusiasm by impugning their motives. I cannot believe that you and other important members of this Administration can be parties to such procedure on the part of the Attorney General.

This action, however much technically within the Attorney General's power, indicates, particularly when added to his unnecessary and academic insistence in carrying to the Supreme Court of the United States at this particular moment in the country's history the question whether insurance is interstate commerce, that the Attorney General feels free not to heed the call which the President made so eloquently and patriotically a few days ago for unity and patriotism rather than the pursuit of narrow, selfish and political interests.

You who are responsible for the administration of the Federal Government cannot expect enthusiastic cooperation from me and men like me in the accomplishment of the great tasks confronting our country, if we are to be diverted from those tasks by the activities of individual members of the Administration such as one of the Attorney General which I have just mentioned. Enthusiasm under such circumstances is just impossible. If the Administration of the Federal Government cannot be in unity, how can the rest of us unite effectively?

I am sending a copy of this letter to Mr. Biddle.

Faithfully yours,

President
MEMORANDUM FOR THE SECRETARY

February 25, 1944

Mail Report

Mail for the past week was poured from the same mould as the previous week. Neither in numbers nor in subject was there any notable change. While tax mail continued to be light, the usual questions and suggestions and also the usual protests were presented. A few completed copies of Form 1040A were submitted directly to this office and there were a number of requests for postponement of the filing date. The outcry against the complexity of the tax law and the tax forms again was very strong. There were fewer commendations than there were last week.

The bond mail contained a dozen promotional ideas for the Fifth Drive. There were an equal number of suggestions for annuity bonds and others for special types that would give priority in postwar purchasing. The number of bonds submitted here for redemption was 75, almost double the figure of last week. Puerto Rico was again well represented among the postmarks. Complaints about delays definitely fell off with only 17 from War Department personnel.

Much of the other mail concerned lost or out of date checks. A few news clippings about tax matters and examples of government waste were forwarded, usually anonymously, but violently abusive communications were almost entirely absent from the weeks receipts.

J. H. Warndorf, President, The Citizens Savings Bank & Trust Co., Hamilton, Ohio. An effort has been made by the Allied Clubs of Hamilton, Ohio, consisting of organizations of colored people of this city to purchase a jeep for presentation to the Armed Forces of the U. S. Regrettably they did not succeed in receiving sufficient funds for that purpose. Nevertheless, the organizations in their solicitations procured the sum of $174.50, which they have directed me to present to you with their compliments. This money can be applied to the purchase of any weapon which this amount will cover. ** *

M. D'Inzillo, President, International Workers Order, Inc., Italian-American Section, N.Y.C. Our organization, a fraternal benefit society of over 10,000 members of Italian origin, is very happy at the news that facilities have been made available for the transmission of living expense funds to Sicily. We greet also your statement that such facilities will be extended to other parts of Italy controlled by our forces as soon as conditions permit. We urge that everything possible be done to speed such extension as Americans of Italian origin generally are very much concerned about aiding their kinfolk who are suffering so tragically. We are sure that all measures taken to bring relief and succor to Italians in liberated areas will give them new hope and encouragement, make of them more effective allies and at the same time help stimulate even further the enthusiastic participation of Americans of Italian origin generally, in our democratic war. ** **

S. Florence Schwartz, Recording Secretary, Ostrolenker Benevolent Society, Los Angeles, Calif. At a regular meeting of the Ostrolenker Benevolent Society, it was decided to return to the U. S. Treasury the check for $6.25 which is the semi-annual interest on our War Bond. We feel that since we cannot contribute money directly to the Treasury, we do not, at this time, wish to accept any interest. Hoping for a speedy, victorious end to this war.

Miss G. Reynolds, Chicago, Ill.   When this War is over, please do all you can about continuing permanently a series of small denomination bonds. Even if the rate can't be as high as for War Bonds, some of us would be so thankful if we could see our pitiful month-to-month savings in some "untouchable", something safe that would mature - as we buy them - from month-to-month through the years, just as we buy them. ** **
Unfavorable Comments on Bonds

Dr. J. C. Tymony, Chicago, Ill. We have been informed by several individuals whose names we wish to withhold at this time, that the Postmaster, and associates, in the Fed. Post Office at Yazoo City, Mississippi, are indulging in a practice of charging the War Bond purchasers of $18.75 War Bonds, a penalty of $5.00 for cashing the bonds before they mature. This is a gross injustice to these poorly informed people. These officials tell them the Govt. requires this fee. We feel, in view of the fact that there are more than 50,000 negroes serving in the Armed Forces from Mississippi, these whites who remain on the homefront should be investigated and prosecuted by our Fed. Govt., and the families of these negro soldiers should be protected.

Goldie E. Conner, Denver, Colo. I would greatly appreciate some information in regard to bonds. I attempted to get this information from the bank here in Denver, but the good man I talked to very reluctantly gave me information that doesn't seem reasonable. However, I had to accept it since he is one of the bank officials and wears an expression that would lead one to believe that he had suddenly coughed up his spleen and was hurrying away to spit it out. The company I work for withholds a designated amount from each pay check. I gave instructions that my bonds were to name my father as beneficiary, but instead, the cashier insists that they be made out as my father the co-owner. In view of a condition in our family, this is an unwise practice, but in spite of repeated requests the bonds still come through with Dad as co-owner. I went to the bank today and attempted to have "co-owner" changed to "beneficiary" but was informed that the only way I could have this done was to cash the bonds I now have and buy new ones with the money, the maturity date of which would be figured from the date the last ones were purchased. Of course, I don't want to sacrifice that interest as some of these bonds were purchased in 1942. Isn't it possible to have this change made without cashing the bonds I now have? * * * If I don't have the change made and my father should pass away, wouldn't it be possible for the administrator of his estate, in case he should come into possession of my bonds, to endorse them and cash them and include the money in Dad's estate? Just one of those family skeletons: Some people got into our family by mistake via the altar who have taken me to one thorough financial cleaning, and my desire is that under no circumstances shall they get even one cent more from me. Dad's eyesight is poor and it would be an easy matter for these people to get his signature on any paper, and they are not above doing it. * * *

Senator Alexander Wiley (Wisconsin) transmits the following letter he has received from Allan T. Pray, of the law firm, Sanborn, Lamoreux and Pray, Ashland, Wisconsin. I enclose a copy of a letter written by me today as Chairman of the Ashland County War Finance Committee, and enclose a copy of the proposed certificate. Down in the lower part of our county where we were contacting some thrifty German folks, they raised the point the Govt. was wasting all kinds of money, and that they were not interested in subscribing for bonds until the waste was eliminated. I do not mean they were pro-German because they are decidedly otherwise. Isn't there going to be an end some time of this misguided and unlimited recognition? About two weeks ago OPA gave out pins of recognition and are now, I understand, to issue certificates to the number of several hundred in Ashland County. A meeting of those entitled to OPA recognition was called at Washburn the other night, and I am told that several score of people from more or less remote parts of the county attended and received their honorable mention. No attention evidently was given to the fact that they got to that meeting on gasoline and rubber and in some instances, the drive was a good many miles. I am for the distinguished service cross and all of the things that come for real accomplishment, but I am not willing to think that we are going to buy cooperation in the next Drive with kindergarten slips apparently signed by the Secretary of the Treasury who probably never heard of the thing. * * *
Capt. J. T. Lightsey, Capt. T.C., New York Port of Embarkation, Brooklyn, N.Y. I again write you concerning deductions made from my pay account for the period of July 1942 to March 1943 for War Bonds, which I have never received. My attorney-in-fact, Ruth H. Lightsey, wrote you concerning this matter in July 1943 and was rewarded for her effort by a "stinking" form letter in which you stated that these accounts would be examined and I notified in due course. Just what do you consider "due course"? If the war effort were delayed eight months, this country would long since have gone under another rule. It is inconceivable to me that after one year and eight months at least one of these bonds could not have been issued. Actually, having been a Civil Employee of the U. S. Govt. prior to my Army service, I know just what is wrong. Some clerk is sitting around, chewing on the end of a pencil and deciding that this account is too old and too complicated to bother with. Therefore, from day to day it gets tossed from the active basket to the suspense basket while I sit and wait. I am tired of waiting. I made this allotment in good faith, and am still continuing it, but I do feel that it is past time that some action were taken to send me the bonds due for the period mentioned above. At least, if you are not going to take some action in this matter, you might so inform me in order that I may write the matter off as a sad experience with the Treasury Dept.

Frank Tashlein, N.Y.C. (Formerly servant for late Wm. H. Woodin). I am an American, born and bred. My mother didn't come over on the Mayflower, she or her folks were here to welcome it, so I can truly say I am an American. We have bought in 1943 $425.00 worth of War Bonds. On February 15, 1944, I bought a $500.00 War Bond in Post Office at 83rd Street, between Col-Amsterdam Ave., N.Y.C. The clerk tells me I may have trouble cashing them in, due to the different way my wife spells our name. In 1943 we bought as co-owners $425.00 worth of bonds. They are registered Harriet Tashlein.
or Frank Tashlein; the difference is, my wife leaves out the i in Tashlein -- it sounds like a Hun's name, she says. Now what difference does it make, or must I in ten years hence forfeit all right to the money paid for said bonds -- due to an i. I want to buy more bonds, as I once told you in a letter I would spend money laid aside for my funeral, but I will await your answer. * * *

Senator Robert A. Taft forwards the following letter he has received from W. H. Dunfee, Columbus, Ohio. Worked at the Patterson Air Base, at Dayton, in 1942, and they took out $20.00 per month for bonds, starting August 15, 1942, and continuing to and including December 15, 1942, which amounts to $90.00. I have not received that first bond as yet. We took it up with authorities, and they took the matter up with Morgenthau. His answer was that he might give us our bonds after the war is over, and maybe never. This is the first time in history when we could not trust our Govt., and we wonder if the bonds we now have are any good or not. I have taken this matter up with Mr. Vorayos. He told me he had taken this matter up before, but he would go to bat again for us; hoping you will do the same. The reason I say US is because there are hundreds of thousands of us that have paid for bonds we never got. Hoping to receive my bonds dated 1942 -- when they were paid for.

Frank J. Goldstein, Brooklyn, N.Y. There is a vicious rumor traveling around among the 'common folk' concerning the redemption of War Savings Bonds directly after the war. Many people will cash their bonds in directly after the war ends, as a means to obtain cash for business or other financial undertakings, and due to the fact that there will be such a huge demand for cash redemption, the government will be unable to adequately furnish the cash. This is causing many to desist from buying all the bonds they are able to; * * * To be perfectly frank with you, I have wondered about that situation also, even tho I am still...

buying bonds with all my available cash. A statement from you as our Secretary of the Treasury, would do much to kill that feeling.

Harry H. Engler, Winthrop, Mass. Enclosed you will please find a copy of a letter I have written to Mr. Fred W. Schumacher, Director, Civilian Personnel, at the Office of the Commanding Officer, New Castle Army Air Base, 343rd, Sub-Depot, Wilmington, Delaware. The enclosed letter Mr. Treasurer is self-explanatory and as you are in charge of the selling department of the U. S. War Bonds, I ask if you won't please use your kind influence to have this matter adjusted. We are trying to do our part even though in a small way, but we want to get what we are paying for. I am sincerely sorry that I have to trouble you with this matter, as I don't know to whom I can write outside of yourself as you are in charge of the War Bond Dept. (Enclosed letter says in part) Last October 19, 1943, I had written you regarding a $25.00 war bond that my son Richard A. Engler had paid for and was never sent to him. This letter referred back to a letter sent you on August 28th 1943, also calling your attention to this matter; I have not even been accorded the courtesy of a reply. I am sending a copy of this letter to the Treasurer of the U. S. in Washington and in all probabilities he may help me with this matter. This bond is coming to him and he should get it.

Adelaide Hyde, Mechanicsburg, Ohio. Two weeks ago I notified the Treasury Department that the interest on four (4) one hundred dollar ($100) bonds had not reached me, but I have received no word concerning this. The check may have been sent and lost in the mails but I do not see how anyone except me could cash it since there are such strict requirements for identification. Can not a duplicate check be sent me? That is what a private corporation would do under such circumstances, and I should think the government could do the same. My income is very limited and I need the money.

Chase Van Baalen, Gainesville, Fla. My mother has just sent me the following enclosure. I fully realize that it is necessary to take a certain amount from the wages of anyone who works; even if the period of employment is only for a week or two.  The sum is so small that I think it would be a waste of time to try and have it returned. I fully understand the burden that your Department has during these times and also the lack of cooperation that you get from some of the under-educated classes of the American public. I would like to know what will be done with the considerable sum that you will collect from people like me.  I sincerely hope that it will be put to some good use and not allowed to filter into the pockets of some "politician". Your Dept. has done a good job of broadcasting the need of everyone being prompt in filing his return. I think that every American should be grateful to you. ***

John P. Farson, M.D., Columbus, Ohio. In view of the reports coming from Miami, via recent issues of the Scripps-Howard newspapers and the current issue of Life, I believe the country would welcome a Presidential veto of the very inadequate tax bill recently passed by Congress and insist on the passage of an adequate measure at once.

Harry C. Moffett, Xenia, Ohio. Just listened to the razzing on the Income Tax over the radio and believe the Treasury Dept. is entitled to hear some encouragement for doing a swell job. The income tax form is a masterpiece for accurate reporting of the individual’s obligation and privilege of citizenship. The instructions are very lucid and comprehensive. Anything short of this would have been disastrous. Praise and commendation are your just due, rather than wise cracks.
Lawrence J. Helmick, Park Ridge, Illinois. For several weeks I have been listening to radio programs that were intended to be comical and have been reading cartoons regarding the income tax form #1040 and the instructions attached thereto. I object to the injustice that is being done to whoever was responsible for designing the form and writing the instructions. I am no accountant and have only an average education, but I had no trouble with the form and I believe the instructions are most clear. The person who worked out the form and the instructions from the complicated tax law, in my opinion, did a beautiful job and deserves a pat on the back.

Martin DeVries, JUDGE OF MUNICIPAL COURT, Long Beach, California. What in hell is the matter with you Washington experts in giving the American people an income tax form that is neither sensible nor intelligible? It was tough sledding when you made so many loafers under the W.P.A. The hill got mighty slippery and hard when the O.P.A. came in with its bunch of racketeers and chiselers and cheats. But when your outfit hog-ties the American taxpayers to put them in a crazy house figuring out income taxes in this year of '44, then it looks like it's high time for somebody to speak. That's why I'm sending you my little Valentine now (letter dated Feb. 14.) and I hope that you and your gang will bring us back on a reservation that is liveable.

Fred P. Peel, Detroit, Mich. I am addressing this letter to you, not because I believe you to blame, but because you are in a position to know who is to blame for the 1943 Income Tax Form. I believe, also, that you are the man who will direct the reforms that surely must be in progress. I have personally filled out my tax form every year since the Income Tax was first enacted. There have been times when I had to dig for the "right dope" on an item, now and then. But I never recall spending more than one evening on the job.  But when I received my tax form and really got down to give it a workout, I was stumped. I was bewildered. I was mad. I was shocked to think that our good old, simple U.S.A. had delivered so important a job to such alphabetical perverts, as the instigators of this crime must have been.  So, if you want to go down in history as a great humanitarian, just appoint a committee of country bankers and common people and let them draw up a form that can be used by common salaried people, minus all the trimmings needed by the uncommon people.

Paraphrase of Personal Message from the President to Mr. Churchill

I should like your assistance in seeking a solution to a troublesome matter with serious political aspects that concern both of us. There have been recent discussions between representatives of the United States and Lord Halifax, Mr. Ben Smith, and Sir David Waley concerning the cessation of deliveries under lend-lease of certain items which have proven to be embarrassing and no longer required. My understanding is that your representatives promptly agreed to purchase certain goods whose costs in 1943 amounted to more than $1 million. It is expected that final agreement on the entire list of items will be reached shortly. This subject is far from simple and negotiations appear to have made satisfactory progress.

Regardless of these discussions concerning lend-lease, I have been thinking of the feasibility of your arranging your fiscal matters in such a manner as to result in a reduction of the British gold and dollar holdings in the United States to a figure in the vicinity of $1 billion.

What are your views as to what should be done and what do you think can be undertaken?
Dear Dr. White:

In continuation of my letter of January 19, here are the figures of our gold and dollar holdings in million dollars as at December 31, 1943.

(a) Includes payments for account of British Ministry of Supply Mission, British Supply Board, Ministry of Supply Timber Control, and Ministry of Shipping.

(b) Estimated figures based on transfers from the New York Agency of the Bank of Montreal, which apparently represent the proceeds of official British sales of American securities, including those effected through direct negotiation. In addition to the official selling, substantial liquidation of securities for private British account occurred, particularly during the early months of the war, although the receipt of the proceeds at this Bank cannot be identified with any accuracy. According to data supplied by the British Treasury and released by Secretary Morgenthau, total official and private British liquidation of our securities through December, 1940 amounted to $354 million.

(c) Includes about $85 million received during October, 1939 from the accounts of British authorized banks with New York banks, presumably reflecting the requisitioning of private dollar balances. Other large transfers from such accounts since October, 1939 apparently represent current acquisitions of proceeds of exports from the sterling area and other accruing dollar receipts. See (k) below.

(d) Reflects net change in all dollar holdings payable on demand or maturing in one year.

(e) For breakdown by types of debits and credits see tabulations prior to March 10, 1943.

(f) Adjusted to eliminate the effect of $20 million paid out on June 26, 1940 and returned the following day.

DIRECTOR OF WAR REFUGEE BOARD DESCRIBES TO REPRESENTATIVE OF JEWISH MORNING JOURNAL HOW RESCUE WORK IS BEING ORGANIZED

by N. Frank, Washington Correspondent of Jewish Morning Journal

Mr. Frank relates the friendly manner in which Mr. Pehle received him and his detailed answers to questions posed. He writes:

With reference to the work and aim of the War Refugee Board, Mr. Pehle declared that it will keep within the framework of the executive order as outlined by President Roosevelt when he established the Board on the 22nd of January of this year. He then produced a copy of the order and underlined the following:

"It is the policy of this government to take all measures within its power to rescue the victims of enemy oppression who are in imminent danger of death and otherwise to afford such victims all possible relief and assistance conistent with the successful prosecution of the war."

When asked to elaborate on this paragraph, Mr. Pehle remarked:

The War Refugee Board will not be a directly operative organization that is, it will not rescue directly the victims of Nazi-occupied Europe. It will, however, help facilitate relief and rescue work of various private as well as international organizations and bodies. By private agencies, Mr. Pehle said, he means those that are not governmental agencies. The J.D.C. is a private organization although it is wholly subsidized by funds collected from the public. The Board will help such organizations in various ways for instance: to aid transmit funds for direct aid to the victims, to obtain for them the necessary government permits to continue with and extend their activities, so that there should be no obstacles on the part of the government itself, to facilitate the movement of persons in occupied countries so that they should have no difficulty in getting out of those countries and in general do everything possible so that the work of the organizations will be conducted smoothly and swiftly.

In order to carry this out in the best and quickest possible manner, the Board will not limit itself to the small staff in Washington, but will also have special representatives in the most important neutral countries, especially in Spain, Turkey, countries through which a large number of victims is expected to be rescued.

However, this is not all. The War Refugee Board is very much interested in the underground movements of the European countries through which it hopes to achieve certain results. At this point Mr. Pehle spoke guardedly asking me to mention it only in a general way. I therefore wish to emphasize the following: Efforts will be made undoubtedly to get in touch with the underground movements, in one way or another, drawing them into the work. How, who, and what cannot be disclosed at this time for obvious reasons. The Board will make use of every possible contact American organizations have with the underground movements. Here Mr. Pehle mentioned as an example the Jewish Labor Committee which does have such contact. The Jewish Labor Committee has already offered its full cooperation in this field and the Board will utilize it when the opportunity presents itself. In general, the work with the underground movements will be conducted quietly and secretly.

Mr. Pehle wants it to be emphasized that the Board will not merely utilize the activities and facilities of this or that organization but those of Jewish and non-Jewish as well. The fact is that the Board has already sent out invitations to 90 organizations Jewish and non-Jewish doing relief work of such a nature, inquiring whether they are willing and ready to cooperate with the War Refugee Board. This work will not be limited, therefore, to particular bodies. It is understood, however, that those organizations possessing greater experience and financial means as well as better contact with the victims themselves and the underground movements will receive a greater degree of cooperation from the Refugee Board and their facilities and contacts will be utilized more often.

In reply to my question about the relationship and the division of work between the Refugee Board and other government agencies such as the UNRRA, the Intergovernmental Committee and others, Mr. Pehle answered that he sees no difficulties or specific obstacles. UNRRA, he emphasized, was created to do direct relief and reconstruction work in areas freed from the enemy while the Refugee Board was created with the sole purpose of helping to rescue people from occupied territory. Should the Board see any specific way in which UNRRA can be helpful, it will definitely turn to it for help and should the Board be able to aid UNRRA with certain information, it certainly will not refuse to do so. In general, it has not been clearly worked out where these two agencies part ways in their work but according to Mr. Pehle, he expects the fullest cooperation. He did not wish to dwell on the Intergovernmental Committee but from the few words he dropped and from what he intimated I got the impression that our government is disappointed with the results of this international committee up till now. The truth of the matter is that we would not have had a War Refugee Board had this committee functioned properly bringing about proper results.

As to financing the work of the Board Mr. Pehle explained that this question has not been clearly defined as yet. Considerable sums of money have been offered by private organizations which will be utilized wherever possible and advisable. However, some are of the opinion that the Board should turn to Congress with a request for a special appropriation for its work. It is not definite whether the Board will want to do it, for several reasons: First of all there is the danger that bringing this problem to Congress a political question might be involved and the entire matter may become a political issue; secondly, obstacles might be made which might impede the rescue work and thirdly, many organizations, such as the J.D.C. and others, are against it because they do not want to drag in political issues and because they feel that without government funds they will have a freer hand. At any rate, the problem has not been solved as yet and as Mr. Pehle expressed himself, it is a "hot question."

We further asked him: What is the Board planning to do with the rescued Jews. Will it help them, for instance, reach Erets Israel so that they can establish themselves there? Mr. Pehle's reply was that the Board is only interested in finding a temporary haven of refuge for the rescued Jews, what will happen to them later is beyond the framework of its activity. If there should be a possibility, for instance, to get Jews to Erets Israel through Turkey, it will be done, but to consider Erets Israel as the sole haven of refuge is out of the question. In most cases the rescued people will be taken to special camps built in places adjacent to Europe. One camp, he mentioned, is already in existence in North Africa, not far from Casablanca. Other places in South Africa such as Angola, for instance, or in Latin American countries, Mr. Pehle declared, were not even considered because they are too far from Europe.

In answer to the question whether other countries will participate in the work of the War Refugee Board, Mr. Pehle replied that so far the work was undertaken by America only. If other countries should want to join in this work, he sees no reason why it should be impossible; at present, however, the attitude of other countries is not clear. When I took leave of Mr. Pehle he asked me to convey through the Jewish Morning Journal the following message to American Jewry:

"The American government knows and understands the sentiments of American Jews in the great misfortune that befell European Jewry. We therefore wish to make it clear that the War Refugee Board is very earnest and sincere about carrying out the task entrusted to it. The Board will overlook no opportunities to carry out the policy as stated and implied in the President's order. The Board needs everyone's aid and cooperation in this difficult task."

The rest of the article is devoted to a biographical sketch of Mr. Pehle.

21st February, 1944

Dear Mr. Bucknell:

Will you kindly refer to your letter of February 12, 1944, informing me that, on the approval of the War Refugee Board, the United States Treasury had issued appropriate licences to the Joint Distribution Committee to carry out the programme referred to in my letter No. 171/98, of December 7, 1943. I now enclose a copy of a letter dated 16th February, 1944, (with a copy of its enclosure), received from Monsieur Haccius of the London Delegation of the International Red Cross, and a copy of my reply thereto.

I am sending Mr. Randall at the Foreign Office a copy of the correspondence.

Yours sincerely,

H. W. Emerson.

Enc. 3.
21st February, 1944

Dear Monsieur Hacicus,

In reply to your letter of the 16th February, 1944, with which you enclosed a copy of the note dated 5th February, 1944, from the International Red Cross at Geneva, I wrote to say that we have heard from the United States Embassy in London that the United States Treasury, with the approval of the War Refugee Board, has issued appropriate licences to the Joint Distribution Committee, the effect of which is that the Joint Distribution Committee will make available to the International Red Cross the sum of one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000) for the purpose of carrying out the scheme of assistance to certain groups of Jews in Europe, which has been the subject of discussion between the International Red Cross and the Intergovernmental Committee. We are informed that the licences will cover the purchase of food and other supplies in Roumania and Hungary. I have no doubt that the Joint Distribution Committee will get into early touch with the International Red Cross, if it has not already done so. The relations between the two will be direct and not through the Intergovernmental Committee. It will not, therefore, be necessary for the International Red Cross to render accounts to the Intergovernmental Committee as was provisionally proposed, but I hope that the International Red Cross will keep us informed of the progress of the scheme.

Under this arrangement the difficulty mentioned in the enclosure to your letter, regarding the transfer of money across the blockade, would apparently no longer exist, but I am sending a copy of the correspondence and of this letter to the Foreign Office and to the United States Embassy in London, in case any further action is necessary.

Yours sincerely,

(Signed) H.W. Emerson.

Dear Sir Herbert,

I have just received from Geneva a note which is complementary to the letter addressed to you by the Committee of the 9th December, 1943; this outlines the conditions governing the transfer of funds by the Committee through the blockade. I enclose copy of this note (No. 3980) for your information.

I should be obliged if you would let me know when you obtain any result in your dealings with the M.E.W. regarding the purchase of foodstuffs in Hungary.

My headquarters also wish me to inform you that they are willing to supply you with any further information you may require, and which may not be contained in their letter of the 9th December, 1943.

Yours sincerely,

(Signed) R. A. Haccius

Enclosed copy letter No. 3980.
Subject: Relief to the Jews in Europe.

Referring to our note no. 3971 (JES/HL) of December 13, 1943, we deem it advisable to send you the following information:

Under date of November 29 and November 30, 1943, the American and British Governments informed us, through their legations in Bern, that they did not wish the International Red Cross Committee to effect the transfer of funds through the Blockade, the Protecting Powers having the sole right to such transfers. Exception to this principle might be made if, in the absence of a Protecting Power, the International Red Cross Committee were required by a Government to make such a transfer.

Now, you know that our work of assistance to Jews in Europe will most likely require the transfer of rather considerable sums of money. You also know that Jewish interests in Axis countries are not represented by a Protecting Power and that the International Red Cross Committee...
Committee appears to be, for the time being, the only intermediary capable of giving them effective aid.

We hope, and we wish to make this clear, that our letter of December 9, 1943 to the Director of the Inter-governmental Committee on Refugees will not be considered as an infraction of the Blockade Regulations recently called to our attention by the British and American governments.

In fact—and our letter was perhaps not explicit enough on this point,—when we offered to carry out a scheme of assistance if an initial sum of Frs. 300,000 were put at our disposal, we evidently considered this offer as subject to the formal authorization of the Blockade authorities previous to such a transfer of funds.

We would therefore be grateful to you for transmitting this information to the Inter-governmental Committee, expressing the desire that this Committee itself approach the Blockade authorities as regards to the granting of facilities necessary to the relief project which we are ready to undertake.

US URGENT

1564, Twenty-fifth

CONFIDENTIAL FOR LIMITED DISTRIBUTION

Randall, Foreign Office counselor, has personally approached Bucknell to discuss problems raised by an anticipated debate in House Commons Wednesday, March first on inter-governmental committee on refugees and to ask for any suggestions which Department and War Refugee Board may have.

Debate is in connection with estimates and will give ample time for adverse critics to air views. Richard Law will probably make part of reply for Government. From statements by interested organizations Foreign Office expects there will be effort to show a rift between United States and British Governments on refugee policy and believes that one question will be whether American Government has approved a plan for large scale (ten million dollars) dollars) relief of Jews in enemy occupied areas which has been blocked by British. Foreign Office has in mind replying that such is not the case, that British and American Government's have machinery for acting together in refugee matters including membership on the part of both in the inter-governmental committee, that relief and assistance must of necessity be comprised of such action as are consistent with successful prosecution of the war as was stated by the President in establishing War Refugee Board, that several joint agencies including economic policy agencies of course given consideration to relief proposals in connection with problems of successful prosecution of war, and that consideration of several proposals is currently pending.

Foreign Office would like to have an understanding with Department that British Government, if challenged as anticipated, might reply along foregoing lines with Depart-

CONFIDENTIAL FOR LIMITED DISTRIBUTION FOR THE WAR REFUGEE BOARD.

Dr. Nahum Goldmann has recently discussed with me and with Casaday, Coville and Hoehler certain problems connected with the efforts to bring relief and rescue to the Jews of Nazi-occupied Europe, and the following questions are submitted at his request. He would like to receive answers from Washington while he is still in this country as the answers will affect his activities here. Dr. Goldmann plans to leave for Washington at the end of the first week in March.

1. Goldmann states that the American and British Governments are ready to put $8 million to 10 million dollars at the disposal of the International Red Cross for sending food, clothing and medical supplies to the Jews.
to the Jews of Nazi-occupied Europe. He is assured by the International Red Cross representatives, however, that it will be impossible to utilize anything like this amount of money if purchases must be confined to the neutral European countries. This is said to be due to shortages of goods and to existing priorities in the countries concerned. One of the International Red Cross representatives referred to is Alfred E. Zollinger who recently passed through London and is now in Washington. Goldmann urges that Zollinger be consulted there for confirmation of the described position in the neutral countries of Europe.

In view of the circumstances as stated the International Red Cross according to Goldmann asks specifically whether the War Refugee Board is in a position to take one or both of the following two courses of action: (a) seek to obtain from the appropriate American and British authorities permission to spend "a major part" of the 8 to 10 million dollars in Rumania and Hungary where conditions for the effective use of the funds are said to be more favorable; (b) seek to obtain authorization to purchase supplies in the United in the United States or other American countries and, what is most important, to obtain British navicerts for the safe passage of the goods to European ports.

In regard to proposal (b) the International Red Cross is stated to be prepared to give assurance that, in the event navicerts are granted, no extra demand will be made upon shipping facilities. The International Red Cross is willing to assume full responsibility for transportation.

It is stated that for various reasons the International Red Cross does not feel in a position to approach the British Government directly on the above two proposals and they ask therefore whether the desired results might be effected through the intercession of the War Refugee Board.

2. Goldmann states that at the beginning of December the U. S. Treasury issued a license to the World Jewish Congress in New York for $25,000 to be transferred to its representative in Geneva and to be used for Jewish rescue work in occupied European countries with the provision that regular reports about the use of the use of this money be given to the American Legation in Berne Switzerland. It is understood by Goldmann that this license was later increased to $100,000. Goldmann believes that the Joint Distribution Committee then applied for a license for $3,000,000 for similar purposes and that this license was granted.

Various Jewish organizations in Great Britain as well as a committee of members of Parliament headed by Eleanor Rathbone are said to be eager to approach the British Government requesting similar licenses and using the precedent established in Washington. Goldmann has asked these groups to refrain from approaching the British Government pending clarification of the specific points listed below. He is anxious on the one hand not to risk a flat refusal by the British if such risk could be minimized by using the American licenses as an argument of if possible by a direct appeal to the British by the U. S. Government or War Refugee Board. On the other hand he is anxious to avoid causing any embarrassment to the U. S. Government. He asks therefore:

(a) whether the British Government has been officially informed of the issuance of the U.S. Treasury
5. #1541, February 24, from London

U. S. Treasury licenses referred to; (b) whether either the U. S. Government or the War Refugee Board would consider appealing directly to the British Government to issue similar licenses; (c) whether in any event there is any objection to an appeal to the British Government by Jewish or other organizations here utilizing the precedent of the U. S. Treasury licenses as an argument.

In view of Dr. Goldmann’s planned early departure I am sure he would appreciate early consideration of the above enquiries.

Reference Department's circular airgram of January 26, 1944, 7 p.m., relating to establishment of War Refugee Board.

A preliminary survey of the situation as it exists today with regard to the points raised on page 2 of the Department's airgram shows the following:

(1) The Australian Government is not interested in taking any initiative looking toward admittance of refugees, or in rescuing or assisting them. The Government's Interdepartmental Committee on Migration is concerned primarily with post-war migration problems (see my airgram A-38 of December 6, 1943, 1 p.m.), and it has not as yet reached a stage where it is even nearly ready to present its recommendations to Cabinet.

(2) The Australian Government belongs to the Intergovernmental Committee set up as a result of the Evian Conference of 1938, and has indicated to its representatives overseas that it wishes to have membership on the UNRRA Pacific Regional Sub-committee on displaced persons.

(3) The Australian Government has approved in principle of payment of its share of expenses for the Intergovernmental Committee established as a result of the Evian Conference, but is unwilling to commit itself to payment of a share of expenses for the relief and maintenance of refugees until it has some idea of what is involved.

(4) (a) The Australian Government has just announced that it will admit 150 Jewish children from Switzerland. This 150 is in addition to a similar number for whom permission was granted over a year ago but who have not been able to get to Australia. These children are to be the full responsibility of the Australian Jewish Welfare Association which, with its allied associates in Great Britain, has made the arrangements. The children have been or are to be admitted to Switzerland from France, on the undertaking of the Australian Government to grant them entry when transportation can be found.

(b) Over a year ago the Commonwealth Government agreed to admit a small group of Poles from Russia on the understanding, apparently unwritten, that Poland would repatriate these persons after the war, paying all expenses. The arrangement for these persons is said to have been made by the Polish Consul General in Sydney. The Poles are supposed to have reached Iran, but nothing further is known of the matter.

(5) The Department of Post-War Reconstruction is perturbed by the attitude of the Interior Department towards admission of refugees and assistance to refugees during the war. Post-War Reconstruction fears that lack of an active interest in this question now, combined with a feeling, as expressed in letters from refugees now resident in Australia, that they wish to leave Australia as soon as they can after the war (a feeling apparently reflected in censorship excepts), will discourage the desired movement of migrants to Australia after the war.

(6) With regard to the lettered questions on page 2 of the Department's airgram, I have concluded concluded that, except as indicated in (5) above, Australia's interest in the relief of refugees is limited to potential immigrants for the post-war period (if these immigrants prove to be of the type desired by the Government) and that, while not deliberately turning back refugees at the border, the Government does not encourage them. Small groups will be admitted only if some non-Australian Government agency will accept full responsibility for them.

Shortage of transportation is advanced, with some justification, as a reason for regarding admission of more than an occasional individual refugee into Australia during the war as a purely theoretical question.

(7) Australia's interest in wishing to be on various international committees dealing with refugee problems is partly a matter of prestige and partly a fear of appearing to be disinterested in the humanitarian side of the question.

The member of my staff who discussed the above matters with the representatives on the Australian Interdepartmental Committee on Migration of the Departments of External Affairs, the Interior, the Treasury and Post-War Reconstruction found everywhere a tendency to pass the buck. There is apparently no directing body. Representation abroad is in the hands of External Affairs, admittance to Australia in the hands of the Interior, and financial commitments in the hands of the Treasury, which evinces its usual desire to keep its hand on all sides of the problem.

Discussion with the Australian Government Departments would be facilitated if the Legation could be given more detailed information with regard to:

(1)
(1) the connection between the Evian Committee and the regional sub-committees on displaced persons of the UNRRA, and the War Refugee Board; and

(2) the actual type of work which it is contemplated will be undertaken by the War Refugee Board.

Further information on the subject matter of this airgram will be submitted shortly when more extensive inquiries have been completed.

SUBJECT: Anti-Semitism in Eire.

The Honorable
The Secretary of State
Washington

Sir:

I have the honor to refer to the Department's circular airgram of January 26, 1944, 7 p.m. and to the Legation's airgram No. A-7 of February 10, 4 p.m. regarding the rescue and relief of war refugees. There is quoted below a news item appearing in the February 22nd edition of The Irish Times:

"SHOP FRONTS DAUBED"

During the week-end a number of shop fronts in the Grafton Street area were daubed with yellow paint in two-foot squares. On some of the shops words were also painted. Soon after the shops concerned opened for business yesterday morning the yellow paint had been washed off."

The incident thus reported is the first anti-Semitic demonstration which has come to public notice in Lire in some time. The words which were painted on the stores consisted of slogans such as "Down with the Jews" and the word "Jews" in large letters of yellow paint, but the Censor did not permit the Dublin newspapers to print that the demonstration had been directed against the Jews. It is commonly believed in Dublin that a major portion of the property in the Grafton Street area, which is the shopping center of Dublin, is owned by persons of Jewish race.

Although there are, as a matter of fact, only approximately 3,300 Jews in Dublin out of a population of a half million, many Irish are passionately opposed to them and express their anti-Semitic feelings openly. The Catholic Church, which is a great power in the community, has done little to preach tolerance to its members and indeed The Standard, a popular Catholic weekly, regularly prints letters denouncing the Jews and their alleged leadership in certain occupations. It has lately been learned that an attempt is being made to revive The Christian Protective Association whose activities were directed against Jewish-owned enterprises and which died out a few years ago. The Dublin press has also given recent notice to attempts being made to legislate against the changing of names for commercial uses. German radio propaganda directed to Lire has urged Catholic Irish listeners to beware of the Jews.

While it does not appear that anti-Semitic demonstrations will take place in a violent form in the near future in Dublin, it should be recognized that anti-Semitism is widely prevalent among all classes of Irish and that the stresses and strains felt here as the result of war-time restrictions and unemployment may bring it out into the open at any time. This possibility should be considered in connection with any project for sending Jewish refugees to this country.

Respectfully yours,

For the Minister:

Aaron S. Brown

Concerning: Activities of the International Red Cross Committee in favor of Jews in Rumania.

My dear Director:

Pursuant to our general summary of December 9, 1943, regarding the situation of the Jews in Germany, Eastern Europe, and the Balkans, we take the liberty of giving you below information on the activities of the International Red Cross Committee in favor of the Jews in Rumania, leaving aside, however, the question of relief to the deportees of Transnistria, a question regarding which a note has been handed to Mr. Kullmann on the occasion of his trip to Geneva.

1. Mission of the Delegate of the International Red Cross Committee in Transnistria.

In the course of a journey lasting from the 10th to the 21st of December 1943, a delegate of the International Committee was able to visit the principal centers where the Jews deported from Rumania to Transnistria are gathered. This mission will form the subject of a report which will be sent to you anon.

2. Repatriation of Jews deported to Transnistria.

With the front nearing Transnistria, the deportees show disquiet and seem to fear that military operations in that territory would become the occasion for new measures against them. It is appropriate, therefore, to speed up their repatriation to Rumania as much as possible. A first result has been obtained in this respect by the repatriation to Rumania, in the last days of 1943, of 5,944 Jews, natives of Dorohoi, and 165 natives of other regions of the kingdom.

We try now to obtain the return to Rumania or to facilitate emigration to Palestine of other categories of deportees.

For several months the Rumanian authorities have let it be known that they are disposed to permit the return to Rumania of deported Jews belonging to one of the following categories:

Those who received military decorations
Public official
Pensioners of the state
Widows of those who received military decorations from 1916 to 1919
Those wounded in the War of 1916 to 1919
Since this decision has not yet been carried out to date, the question has been again brought to the attention of the competent authorities by our delegate.

We have also intervened in favor of the Jews of Transnistria who are the beneficiaries of immigration permits of the Palestinian Government, asking that they be authorized to enter Rumania and to reside there until the time when they will be able to leave for Palestine.

A similar intervention has been made in favor of 177 Polish Jews deported from Bessarabia and Bucovina or escaped from the General Government, who are among those deported to Transnistria. A particularly urgent appeal has come to us from the Jews of Tulcin (Transnistria) numbering about 700. We have asked the Rumanian authorities to bring them as well as all the Jews residing in localities east of the railroad line Zherinko-Odessa, to Odessa. This request seems to have been favorably accepted and is now being studied by the authorities.

Incidentally, there are among the deportees of Transnistria 4,500
Jewish orphans, most of them in the districts of Mogilev and Baltta, and a small number in the districts of Jugastra, Tulcin, Rabnitza, and Golta, I.e. in the north and center of Transnistria.

On the 23rd of December, 1943, the Rumanian authorities gave their agreement in principle to the transportation of 4,500 orphans accompanied by 500 adults out of Transnistria.

After discussing various plans with the competent authorities, it has been decided to assemble the children in Northern Moldavia where they will be able to wait in safety until they can emigrate either by land or by boat.

On January 24, 1944, our delegation informed us that the delegates of the Jewish institutions in Rumania have been called to the Ministry of the Interior and that a plan for repatriation has been established. A mission has gone to Transnistria in order to prepare the assembling of the orphans and their transfer to Moldavia, a transfer to which the Rumanian Red Cross will lend its assistance.

As soon as this mission will have returned from Transnistria, the date of the assembling of immigrants in Constanta could be fixed, depending on the time when the orphans will arrive in Moldavia (an undertaking for which certain transportation difficulties will have to be solved) and on the date on which they will be able to get their exit permit.
When the repatriation of different categories of deportees enumerated above from Transnistria will have been carried out, there will still remain in that region the Jews deported from Bessarabia and Bucovina, i.e., about 42,000 persons.

However, competent authority has given us the assurance that if the military situation will necessitate the evacuation of the civilian population of Transnistria, this operation will be carried out without distinction of race or religion.

3. Position of Jews in Bucovina

The Jews in Bucovina were compelled to wear the "Star of David", which fact exposed them to attacks. We succeeded in getting the Rumanian authorities to suppress this measure beginning January 26, 1944.

On the other hand, the Jews of that territory feared that they would not be able to receive permission to go to the Old Kingdom in case of the evacuation of the civilian population of Bucovina and are afraid of mistreatments in case the Rumanian administration disappears.

The administration of Bucovina has already given to 5,000 Jews, i.e., about 1/3 of the total number, permission to leave that province. We have asked the Rumanian authorities to give these 5,000 people permission to enter and reside in the Old Kingdom where Jewish families and Jewish organizations could give them hospitality.

Similar permissions have been asked in favor of Jews from Bucovina in possession of immigration permits to Palestine and for 200 or 300 Jews of Polish nationality who are in Bucovina.

We try to get the assurance that all Jews will be treated on the basis of equality with other Rumanian subjects in case of total or partial evacuation of the civilian population of Bucovina.

Finally, our delegation has intervened to ask that 73 Jews who came from Germani to Bucarest for medical treatment should not be compelled to return to Bucovina. According to the latest information on this subject, this request, although conceded in principle, has not yet received a definitive solution.

4. Emigration of Jews from Rumania by Land.

Since this emigration would have to go by way of Bulgarian and Turkish territory, the consent of these two countries has been solicited.
The Turkish Government has declared that it would permit the transit of 150 people per week, the transport comprising 10 percent adults, the rest children.

The Bulgarian Government has approved this arrangement, but since it desired to limit the number of adults to one or two, a new request has been addressed to it in view of obtaining its permission that each transport comprise 10 percent adults.

It remains to establish the lists of emigrants and to obtain Rumanian, Bulgarian, and Turkish visas. The Rumanian Red Cross will ask the German military authorities to permit the passage of the Danube.

Finally the Turkish authorities have been asked to permit the passage of more than 150 persons per week, it being understood that the surplus would use the maritime route.

5. Emigration of Rumanian Jews by Boat.

The Bulgarian boat, "Bellacitta" will be ready to effect the transfer of 150 emigrants per week.

It is anticipated that the passage will be from Mangalia to Istanbul. No reply has been received yet to the request for safe conduct addressed to Russian and German authorities.

The Committee will serve as intermediary to notify the sailings of the "Bellacitta" to the belligerents without, however, assuming any responsibility.

In addition two Bulgarian ships sailing under the Bulgarian flag, the "Milka" and the "Maritza", are at the disposal of Jewish institutions. However, it appears that they will not be able to be employed if the Turkish Government does not permit the passage of more than 150 emigrants per week, since the "Bellacitta" would suffice for this service.

We shall not fail to keep you informed of the results of the different current interventions.

For the International Committee of the Red Cross, accept, sir, etc.

TO STEINHARDT AND HIRSCHMAN FROM THE WAR REFUGE BOARD.

It is reported here in the papers that a high government official in Turkey told the Associated Press on February 13 that Turkey was willing to cooperate with the Palestine Commission and Allied diplomats in assisting Jewish refugees to leave the Balkans. We would appreciate immediate confirmation of this report. Please give us full information at once on the present position of the Turkish Government on this matter.

The War Refugee Board is desirous of making public the cooperative attitude of neutral countries on this matter, and unless you perceive some objection, we would like to be in a position to publicize at once the attitude of Turkey.

It is extremely important that we be kept currently informed of all developments in Turkey relating to the activities of the Board. We have received numerous inquiries from private agencies concerning the above mentioned press report and have been awaiting advice from you as to its accuracy.

We recognize fully the importance and urgency of the shipping problem and are doing what we can here to solve it.

We have discussed with the Swedish Minister here the possibility of using Swedish vessels to evacuate refugees from Black Sea ports. The Swedish Minister is cabling his Government immediately requesting that consideration be given to this matter.

With respect to the guarantee which this Government has now given to replace the S.S. Vatan if lost, we would like immediate advice from you as to the possibilities of obtaining other Turkish vessels if similar guarantees were given to replace those vessels.

Dear Admiral Land:

We have seen a copy of your letter of February 23, 1944, to Mr. John W. Pehle, Acting Executive Director of the War Refugee Board and a cable dated February 18, 1944, from Mr. Hirschmann, representative of the War Refugee Board in Turkey to Mr. Pehle, concerning the chartering of the S. S. Vatan, a Turkish vessel, for use in rescuing refugees.

According to Mr. Hirschmann, it is believed that the Turkish Government will permit the S. S. Vatan to be chartered for the purpose of transporting refugees providing that the United States can offer to the Turkish Government a guaranty that this vessel will be replaced if it is lost while under charter. We understand that the War Shipping Administration has authorized Mr. Pehle, subject to approval by the Foreign Economic Administration, to commit it to replace this vessel, in the event of its loss, with a vessel as similar and from as nearby waters as may be available. We understand further that you wish assurance both that lend-lease authorization for such a replacement will be forthcoming and that lend-lease funds will be made available to the War Shipping Administration for reimbursement for the reasonable value of any vessel delivered as replacement.

The Foreign Economic Administration concurs in the desirability of effectuating the charter of the S. S. Vatan for the purpose mentioned and is prepared to give assurance both that upon the request of the Turkish Government, this vessel may be replaced under lend-lease authority, and that in such a case you will be reimbursed for the reasonable value of any vessel which you may deliver as a replacement. All questions between ourselves and the Turkish Government, however, as to the terms of replacement are reserved.

FOR STEINHARDT AND HIRSCHMANN FROM THE WAR REFUGEE BOARD.

Refer your 282, February 18, and your 299, February 19.

The United States Government through the War Shipping Administration and the Foreign Economic Administration guarantees to replace the vessel referred to in your 282 if the same is lost. Although we cannot furnish you with an exact description at this time of any specific vessel which will be used as a replacement, the Turkish Government may be assured that this vessel will be as good as better than the S.S. VATAN and that it will be obtained from as nearby waters as possible.

It is assumed that the S.S. VATAN will be insured against loss thus enabling the proceeds of the insurance to be used in connection with the replacement. For your information, the War Refugee Board can, if necessary, arrange for the insurance of the S.S. VATAN.

The Foreign Economic Administration has advised us that their representative in Ankara, Michel Cardosa, can be of assistance to you in effecting necessary arrangements with the Turkish Government.

For your information and the information of Cardosa, we have been advised that if the S.S. VATAN is actually replaced, the replacement will be done under lend lease authority and could be done in one of two ways. Either the replacing vessel could be turned over as a normal lend lease transaction or could be sold to the Turkish Government for cash.

It is expected that you will take this opportunity to emphasize to the Turkish Government the significance of the concrete offers which this Government has already made to them in connection with the program of the War Refugees Board. In addition to the present guaranty to replace the S.S. VATAN if lost in connection with the carrying out of this program, we have previously offered to arrange for financing the support and maintenance of refugees coming into Turkey. We hope that the Turkish Government will accordingly make the S.S. VATAN immediately available for this mission of mercy.

For your information and guidance the following is the text of a letter sent to the Secretary of State on September 9, 1943 by the British Embassy in Washington. A copy of this letter has recently been transmitted to me by the Embassy.

"I write to let you know that His Majesty's Government recently decided that in future all Jews, whether adults or children, who may succeed in escaping to Turkey from enemy-controlled territory since the closing of the Bulgarian-Turkish frontier in May last, will be eligible (after a preliminary security check in Turkey) for onward transport to Palestine, where they will be placed in camps, go through a further security check and if found satisfactory will be gradually released as legal immigrants into Palestine against the current half-yearly immigration quotas. By 'onward transport' is meant such transport by sea or rail as may be arranged by His Majesty's Government in cooperation with the appropriate diplomatic mission.

"This policy will also apply to Jews who manage to escape to other neutral countries, but where they have escaped to countries in which they are safe they will normally remain there. Thus the Jews at present in Mauritius, Cyprus and Spain would remain there (unless, as is hoped, arrangements can be made in the case of Spain to remove them for the duration of hostilities to Allied territory in North Africa) and only in very special cases and for very special reasons would authority be given for any onward transport to Palestine.

"The numbers to be admitted under these new proposals will not entail any increase in the total number of immigrants permissible for the period ending the 31st March, 1944.

"I have been asked to emphasize the confidential nature of this letter, as secrecy is essential in the interests of the refugees themselves and His Majesty's Government intend to make no public announcement of the policy described above. They are, however, informing the Jewish Agency for Palestine in confidence of what is proposed.

"I am writing a similar letter to Mr. Myron Taylor."
In view of the policy indicated in the letter it is assumed that the Turkish government now has sufficient assurance that refugees entering Turkey will have an ultimate destination open to them and therefore will be willing to lend full cooperation to measures designed to increase the flow of refugees through Turkey. If, however, such is not the case you should advise the Board at once.

ANKARA,

For the Ambassador and Hirschmann

Department's 68, January 25, concerning War Refugee Board and 120 of February 12, 8 p.m., concerning appointment Special Attache Hirschmann.

Special attention should be given to the following matter.

The War Refugee Board has resolved that one of the projects which should be pushed with greatest speed is an effort to facilitate the evacuation of as many refugees as possible from occupied areas to Turkey.

The Board feels that the most feasible way of accomplishing this extremely urgent task is to obtain from the Turkish Government effective measures to encourage the entry of more refugees. Concretely that government should be requested (a) To relax border and other controls and take such other action as will facilitate the entry of the largest possible number of refugees from Bulgaria, Rumania, and other areas adjacent to the Black Sea, and (b) To make an announcement in as nearly an official manner as possible indicating what is being done, and above all, that that entry of refugees into the country is permitted.

The Department desires to support the above program of the Board and you are requested at the earliest possible moment to approach the Turkish Government with a view to obtaining their agreement to the plan and immediate action on their part. In addition to making clear this Government's determination to do everything within its power to rescue refugees and its hope for full cooperation from the Turkish Government you may, if you deem it advisable, indicate that (a) The War Refugee Board is prepared to take all possible measures, financial and otherwise, to aid the evacuation of refugees to Turkey; (b) The Board is prepared to render full assistance in the maintenance of refugees in Turkey; and (c) If the Turkish Government takes necessary steps to facilitate the entry of a substantial number of refugees the Board will make all efforts to move refugees from Turkey to other places if such action becomes desirable. You may wish to discuss specifically the possibility of setting up camps in Turkey in which refugees entering the country could live. The Board would, if necessary, make arrangements for financing the establishment and maintenance of these camps and the support.
support of the refugees in them. This plan may facilitate the removal, on a compulsory basis if necessary, of refugees from Turkey to other places if such action becomes desirable in order to permit the entry of more refugees into Turkey from occupied areas.

In connection with the foregoing, you are, of course, aware of the fact that the refugees remaining in Transnistria are in imminent danger of extermination by the retreating German armies, and that the evacuation of these refugees is a problem of the greatest urgency.
Accordingly, you should do everything possible to aid in the development and execution of measures to effect the evacuation of these people to Turkey. Various private organizations are deeply interested in this problem and are anxious to assist in financing and otherwise carrying out the project. Representatives of at least some of such organizations in Turkey have been requested to get in touch at once with Mr. Hirschmann for the purpose of formulating a plan of action. You have previously indicated that the basic difficulty of evacuation is one of transportation. The private organizations interested in this project are making all efforts to secure ships and you
you should give them every assistance. In addition, you should advise us promptly of any measures which can be taken by the United States Government to see that necessary shipping, neutral or otherwise, is available. Above all, you should attempt to secure the full cooperation of the Turkish Government in this matter.

Efforts should, of course, also be made as soon as possible to increase the flow of refugees from Rumania to Turkey.

The Department appreciates that your own activities regarding this matter may be somewhat restricted by the terms of the Department's 103, February 7, 7 p.m., and that it may be necessary for you to arrange for Hirschmann to take the principal initiatives. You should use your best judgment in this regard. You will realize, however, that these negotiations are on an entirely different level than those relative to Turkey's role in the war; and that this Government is simply addressing a humanitarian appeal to the Turkish Government, as to other governments, rather than a request that they take certain action favorable to us at some sacrifice to them.

Please report to the Department the progress that is being
-5-, #146, February 25, 7 p.m., to Ankara.

being made in this matter, indicating the practical measures that will be necessary to put the plan in operation, obstacles encountered, and such action as you think the Government of the United States should take to facilitate the operation.

MEMORANDUM FOR THE MINISTER OF SWEDEN TO THE UNITED STATES.

As you know, the War Refugees Board, consisting of the Secretary of State, the Secretary of the Treasury and the Secretary of War, has recently been established by the President of the United States to take immediate action to rescue the Jewish people of Europe and other victims of enemy oppression who are in imminent danger of death.

The Board is fully aware of the splendid humanitarian efforts which the Swedish Government has been making to help save the lives of these persecuted peoples. The Board takes this opportunity to ask you to convey to your Government the Board’s appreciation for Sweden’s treatment of the war refugee problem.

The Board is convinced that one of the greatest opportunities for saving many lives exists in the areas adjacent to Turkey and the Black Sea. It is known that in Transnistria, Rumania and Bulgaria there are substantial numbers of refugees in imminent danger of death. It also appears that arrangements can be made with the Turkish Government to receive refugees from these areas. There are strong indications that the Rumanian Government at least will permit a substantial number of these refugees to leave Rumania. It is indispensable that means of transportation be found at once. Arrangements are being made for a small Turkish vessel to proceed to the Rumanian port of Constanta and evacuate approximately one thousand children to Turkey. Other boats are urgently needed to affect the evacuation of refugees from this area to Turkey.
Knowing the sympathetic attitude of your Government toward this whole matter, the Board desires to request the urgent assistance of your Government in helping to solve this immediate transportation problem. The Board understands that a number of Swedish ships under the auspices of the Swedish Red Cross are being used to carry food from Canada and Argentina to Crete. It has been suggested by the Board's representative in Turkey, after consultation with the Turkish Government, that these empty Swedish ships might proceed from Greece to Constanta and other Black Sea ports for the purpose of transporting refugees to Turkey.

The Board is prepared to arrange for the financing of the use of any Swedish vessels which can be made available for this purpose and would appreciate a prompt consideration of this matter by your Government.

Reference is made herewith to our telegram of February 12, No. 265, and the previous.

The financial adviser to Army HQ, Edward Acheson, has recently been obtaining data for overall estimate on financial requirements of our Army in China and the Embassy, for the first time, has now been given some indication of the magnitude of projects approved and contemplated. We have heretofore known only that Chinese currency requirements would be 500 million monthly for the next few months, or that the United States Government expects to spend for the next few months about 25 million United States dollars monthly in this area.

Now on basis of estimates obtained by Acheson from Army Engineer Staff, SOS, the monthly Chinese currency requirements for the 4 months from March 1 will be about six billion Chinese dollars or a total of about twenty-four billion for the period.

This situation and its political and economic impact on China was discussed at length at a meeting at the Embassy on February 21, including General Hearn, Adler of Treasury, Dr. Acheson, Counselor of Embassy, and myself, and it was agreed that the overall picture and the serious question and problems arising therefrom should be made known to the War Department by the Army. I have requested that a copy of two Army messages sent to War Department February 23 be furnished to the State Department.

The estimated Chinese budget is approximately eighty billion Chinese dollars for the current year and, although revenues are estimated at 35 – 40 billion, it is our opinion that they are not likely to total much more than 20 billion. Already about five billion in new notes is being issued by the Chinese Government monthly. China will have to provide more than double the present new monthly note issue in order to provide Chinese currency for our projects and without regard to rate at which such currency can be obtained for United States dollar.

We have no estimate concerning the ultimate cost of our planned operations in the China theater. Although there was assumed to be considerable tapering off in expenditures after projects which were included in the 24 billion dollars estimate were completed, it can be expected that the consequent expansion and stepping up of our military effort in China will require further huge sums especially since the rate of inflation will be greatly speeded up.

The following include the specific and pressing questions which are now arising:

(1) With a minimum possible reserve of 10 billion in notes in China (about two months' supply) and, provided we can come to some arrangement with China for the purchase at a reasonable rate of Chinese currency and Chinese Government is willing for us to continue expenditures of such magnitude, can notes be printed and transported to China to cover the expenditures?
(2) At the rate of 20 to 1, we would be spending monthly 300 million United States dollars. At 100 to 1 (if we could persuade China to provide currency at such a rate), we would be spending monthly 60 million United States dollars, a far greater sum than the 25 million a month mentioned in the message of the President to Generalissimo contained in Department’s telegram of January 20, No. 108, and of January 24, No. 126. Are we prepared to make such expenditures, with every prospect that under probable plans for expansion and the stepping up of our military in this theater, the costs thereof will be inevitably at an accelerated rate? The prediction may be hazarded that the China theater will ultimately become the most expensive theater of the war in terms of monetary cost.

(3) In four months, the note issue for Chinese Government and our Army expenditures would equal half the total budget of the Chinese Government for the year. Prices at the normal rate of inflation, approximately 10 percent a month, had been expected to about treble during the year. They will increase proportionately with such currency inflation. About 300,000 laborers are now employed in the Chengtu area alone, most of them taken from farms which will shortly require harvesting and planting. What effect upon China’s already tottering economy (and upon internal political situation) will be brought about by the huge expenditures planned, the doubling of the rate of note issue, the dislocation of farm labor in an agricultural country which has been able to survive threatening collapses because of its crops, and the inevitable spiraling of prices? This question should be examined in the light of conditions and circumstances peculiar to China and the Chinese. It must be studied against the background of an economy which has been badly mauled by six years of war; the lack of adequate means of transportation and distribution of food and supplies; of the almost complete lack of governmental control over prices, materials and wages; of the background of the inflationary spiral caused by China’s war time commercial isolation from the rest of the world; of the venal character of contractors, merchants, and many officials whose cooperation is essential to construction and supply. It is apprehended by us that this problem may well resolve itself into a vital question whether China’s strained and shaky economy can withstand the new burden which we are placing upon it, and whether we would have to assume responsibility of rehabilitating it if China’s economy should collapse, and whether meanwhile our forces would be able to carry on here their planned operations. Already the American adviser to the Ministry of Finance has mentioned to me the serious dislocation of Chinese economy resulting from the Chengtu operations. Dr. Kung previously mentioned (Secretary of the Treasury?) in conversation of February 3 (Embassy’s telegram of January 28, No. 120, etc.) and

In previous messages, we have pointed out that the question of pressing the Chinese Government to cooperate with us by finding some equitable and reasonable arrangement for the payment of our military expenses involved questions of high military policy (whether it is essential to the war effort to carry out our military plans in China regardless of cost or similar considerations) and of political policy (whether we are prepared to force China to cooperate by offering the alternative of retreatment in our diplomatic, military, and other assistance to China, such support of the position China is endeavoring to assume as one of the Big Four nations, non-military Lend-Lease aid and hoped-for financial and other aid in postwar reconstruction, and the equipment of Chinese troops). These questions came for decision in connection with the new questions of our preparedness to undertake the colossal costs and to risk the consequences upon China and the possible military, economic and political repercussions which we would bear.
It is my suggestion that these problems will require the most serious consideration and early decision of the United States Government; with reference to the President, and with examination by the State, Treasury, and War.

I doubt whether the Chinese themselves realize the extent of the overall picture of what is contemplated in China by our Army notwithstanding that most of the projects involved, according to our information, have had the approval of the Generalissimo. Pending reference by Army HQ for the consideration and instruction of the War Department, no action has been yet taken to present the overall picture to Dr. Kung.
