MR-IN-197

From: The President
To: The Prime Minister

Your #944.(MR-OUT-404).

I would minimize the general Soviet problem as much as possible because these problems, in one form or another, seem to arise every day and most of them straighten out as in the case of the Bern meeting.

We must be firm, however, and our course thus far is correct.

Note to Map Room: Your MR-OUT-407 has been seen by Secretary Morgenthau.

TO: ADMIRAL LEAHY

MR-OUT-401 and 402 approved.

Rece: 120012Z HWP

NOTE: OUT 401 was draft reply to Prime Minister's 939 re proposed message to German Government, was released from the Map Room as President-Prime #743, 120149Z.

OUT 402 had three parts. Part 1 was draft reply to Marshal Stalin re his explanation of the Bern incident. Was released from the Map Room at 120221Z, as White House #229.

Part 2 suggested quoting message to Stalin to the Prime Minister in answer to his #940. This was done in President-Prime #741, released at 120159Z.

Part 3 was introductory and needs draft reply from State before any further action here.
