Lt. Eddy reported the following information: Rockland, "Henry Gallant" master of dragger "Indigo," from Portland reported to him that at this hour April 35, approx. 14 miles south by east off Monhegan Island he sighted a submarine in the close vicinity of a dragger from Boston. He referred to it as the Italian American dragger. One member of the crew known in Rockland and considered reliable was below deck at the time and when he came topside he saw a definite wake. Gallant claims he saw periscope coming down and deck of the submarine.

On Portland reported that the sighting of the submarine was at 0915 April 36.
