1. At the request of MEXICO, action was initiated to establish liaison between Headquarters, Third Army, and the Presidential Chief of Staff in MEXICO CITY, in order that these two agencies may by direct negotiation work out details of matters pertaining to mutual defense within their respective jurisdictions.

2. Similar action was taken on our initiative with respect to Headquarters, Fourth Army, and the newly created Mexican Command of the MEXICAN PACIFIC COAST, the commander of which is Major General LAZARO CARDENAS, ex-President. His headquarters is at ENSENADA, LOWER CALIFORNIA.

3. At the request of VENEZUELA, action has been initiated to dispatch Army and Navy officers without delay to CARACAS to confer there with Venezuelan officers on matters pertaining to mutual defense.

4. The relief by Army forces of British troops now in ARUBA and CURACAO, a measure considered of great urgency, awaits notification from the State Department that the consent of the Dutch Government-in-Exile has been obtained. This matter has now been pending for nine days, its urgency increasing daily as the Axis is given time to plan and to execute its plans for the destruction of the inadequately protected petroleum installations on these islands.

5. Initial steps have been taken to prepare for dispatch to TALARA, PERU, a small number of bombing and pursuit airplanes with necessary ground units, for the purpose of providing reasonable protection for the important petroleum installations at that place. The State Department has been so advised and requested to secure without delay the consent of the Peruvian Government.

B. FAR EAST.

1. Major General BRERETON, commanding our Far Eastern Air Force, reports his intention to establish his headquarters at DARWIN.

2. Transport MAUNA LOA arrived SYDNEY, AUSTRALIA, December 24, with cargo of aviation gasoline, .50 caliber machine guns and vehicles.

A. WESTERN HEMISPHERE (GREENLAND & ICELAND included).

1. Decision was made to dispatch to HAWAII, as soon as overseas shipping capabilities will permit, one Infantry Division (Square), two antiaircraft artillery regiments, 10,000 service troops (Quartermaster, Engineer, Signal, Medical and Ordnance).

2. UNITED STATES and BRITISH Chiefs of Staff jointly recommended:
   a. That immediate request be made on AUSTRALIAN, BRITISH and DUTCH authorities to lend maximum assistance to the UNITED STATES commander in AUSTRALIA in the preparation of his air elements for immediate entry into action, and in the establishment and protection of his bases.
   b. That the responsible BRITISH and AUSTRALIAN commanders be directed to make preliminary arrangements for effective combat cooperation between other forces of the Associated Powers, and the UNITED STATES Air Force in the southwest PACIFIC, preliminary plans for the early support of SINGAPORE to be initiated at once.

3. Transports BLISS and GARFIELD with the following aboard arrived HAWAII:

   Troops:
   2d Bn 57th CA, 155 mm gun
   161st Infantry
Cargo:

54 Pursuit Airplanes (P-40)
2 Transports (C-53)
39 105 mm Howitzers
28 155 mm Guns
9 37 mm Guns
24 Caliber .50 antiaircraft machine guns
381,900 Cartridges, Caliber .30
48,000 Cartridges, Caliber .50
2,000 Cartridges, Caliber .45
3,384 Projectiles, 75 mm
9,928 Projectiles, 105 mm
1,980 Projectiles, 37 mm
157 Aircraft Bombs, 300 lbs.
1,860 Aircraft Bombs, 500 lbs.
122 Aircraft Bombs, 1,000 lbs.
54 Aircraft Bombs, 2,000 lbs.

B. FAR EAST.

1. Guns and ammunition recently sent by sea to CANTON ISLAND are being unloaded.

2. Major General BRENNETON, commanding Far East Air Force, with skeleton staff and all heavy bombers, was sent south by General MACARTHUR -- heavy bombers to AUSTRALIAN and NETHERLANDS EAST INDIES bases; Major General BREXTON to organize advance operating bases for protection of lines of communications and supporting defense of PHILIPPINES, to establish liaison with Major General BRETT, and to direct the operation of the Far East Air Force from the bases Major General BRETT is ordered to establish in AUSTRALIA.

3. General MACARTHUR has established the forward echelon of his headquarters on the BATAAN PENINSULA, the rear echelon remaining at FORT MILLS (CORREGIDOR ISLAND).

4. General MACARTHUR reports his forces successfully disengaged from the north line without loss, and that they occupied new delaying positions.

5. General MACARTHUR, by proclamation, declared MANILA an open city.

6. Major General BRETT, or in his absence Senior U. S. officer in AUSTRALIA, was informed that it is now doubtful that previous plans for moving short-ranged aircraft to PHILIPPINES can be executed; that General MACARTHUR is gradually withdrawing to the BATAAN PENINSULA and CORREGIDOR, resulting in the loss of all airfields except a small one on CORREGIDOR; that we must do our utmost to aid him; that our program for creating a strong U. S. Air Force in AUSTRALIA is being intensively continued; that within one month, it is expected to have 80 heavy bombers, 260 pursuit and 52 dive bombers in the AUSTRALIAN Area; that it is hoped his long-ranged equipment may be able to support the PHILIPPINES and also Allied Forces at critical points in the Theatre; that forces sent him would be largely Air, with just enough others to support his air effort and protect his bases; and that he is to contact General MACARTHUR and commanders of BRITISH, DUTCH and AUSTRALIAN forces and report their ideas on best methods of cooperating to defeat the common enemy.

7. 5 C-39 transport airplanes were ordered delivered to Brigadier General MAGNUER'S representatives in BURMA for the CHINESE.

   2. Report from WAKE ISLAND reports enemy on island; several ships, plus transport moving in; two destroyers aground.

B. FAR EAST.

1. Major General BRETT or Senior UNITED STATES Army Officer present in AUSTRALIA, directed to submit to WAR DEPARTMENT rough estimate of types and quantities of units and supplies essential to him in carrying out his Mission. Instructed to procure locally by purchase or hire, such materials and labor as may be practicable. Authorized to make temporary use of those materials and personnel destined for the PHILIPPINES which, because of conditions, he is unable to forward promptly, provided they be dispatched to destination when earliest opportunity arises.
2. General MACARTHUR reported enemy continues to exert heavy pressure in north, making maximum use of air arm in support of infantry and light tanks; scattered enemy bombing yesterday throughout the islands; 9 B-17's coming from DARWIN, bombed 12 enemy transports at DAVAO. Results indeterminate. Awaiting clearing of overcast to strike enemy from the air at LINGAYEN.

3. Transport HALEAKALA arrived safely at CHRISTMAS ISLAND 21 December with some personnel and large amount of arms and ammunition for defense of Island.

4. Lieutenant Colonel BRINK reports that the SINGAPORE conference clearly indicates an immediate need for a combined Allied Staff under one supreme head; that all MACARTHUR's suggestions were adopted; and that designated air and sea communication routes from AUSTRALIA to LUZON are to receive special protection.

1. Preparations in progress for British Staff Conversations here, based on the draft of "Broad Military Decisions" approved by the PRESIDENT yesterday.

2. CHIEF OF STAFF issued instructions to suspend evacuation of dependents of military personnel from PUERTO RICO, pending further study.

B. FAR EAST.

1. General MACARTHUR was advised that all of his reports have been seen by the PRESIDENT; that the PRESIDENT has directed the Navy to give every possible support; that of 110 pursuit planes allotted him, half are now en route and the remainder will be within three days; and that movement of 80 heavy bombers by air began yesterday with departure of first three, and will continue with a small number every day or so thereafter.

2. Major General BRETT was told that his fundamental mission at this time is to relay vital munitions from AUSTRALIA to General MACARTHUR as rapidly as possible, with priority on aircraft and ammunition; that he would cooperate with our naval authorities in the delivery and protection of Army reinforcements and logistical material for Army and Navy forces in the PHILIPPINES; and would also cooperate in the establishment and protection of a base at PORT DARWIN for Joint Army and Navy use, as well as in the defense of northwestern AUSTRALIA. He was directed to inform the WAR DEPARTMENT of developments as they occur.

3. Colonel MERLE-SMITH, our Military Attache in AUSTRALIA, received instructions similar to those sent to Major General BRETT and General MACARTHUR was informed that both Major General BRETT and Colonel MERLE-SMITH had been so instructed.
