- (*) Indicates changes since 6 March 1945 report.
- (1) The destroyer in the dockyard is the DARDO which is seen to be in a partially dismantled state.
 - (2) Photographs show this submarine in a flooded and damaged drydock.
 - (3) the Battleship CAVOUR sustained three bomb hits on her port side during the air attacks on the 17th and 20th of February.
 - (4) Following the air attacks of the 17th and the 20th of February on Trieste the destroyer PIGAFETTA disappeared from the port. Subsequent photos show a shadow under water of a wreck which may possibly be this vessel.
 - (5) The ex-Yugoslav torpedo boat T.3 was sunk in the dockyard at Trieste during the air attack of 20 February. Two new WAR PARTENOPE Class torpedo boats were ready for sea on 19 February but one of them which had not yet become active, sustained damages amidship and caught on fire at the stern during the air raid of 20 February.

(1) Includes the former Yugoslav destroyer BEOGRAD, 1,210 tons, (renamed SEBENICO) which is apparently being recommissioned. This vessel has been laid up in a partially dismantled condition since the Italian Armistice, 8 September 1943. Recent photographs have shown her in the process of refit and with guns re-mounted. The vessel has now moved to an active berth, although her funnels are still seen to be capped.
