CONGRESS MAY CALL 400,000 MEN TO NAVY

Assistant Secretary Roosevelt Tells Men Enlisted for Practice Cruises of His Hopes.

RESERVE NOW UNDER 500

Thousands seek the training—Battled the Navy since War Ended—Hold Up to Show Our Needs.

There is reason to believe that the Navy Administration will find that the fact that it will finally pass Congress, will not only be a source of relief, but also a source of pride, in the fact that it will be the first time in the history of the United States that the Navy will have a reserve force of 400,000 men, even if war, would put it at the disposal of the country at least 100,000 men, even if war, would put it at the disposal of the country at least 100,000 men, even if war, would put it at the disposal of the country at least 100,000 men.

Mr. Roosevelt announced that only 400,000 men could be called up in the event of war, and that 250 had already been called up. He said that the Navy had a reserve force of 400,000 men, even if war, would put it at the disposal of the country at least 100,000 men, even if war, would put it at the disposal of the country at least 100,000 men.
