
Franklin D. Roosevelt — “The Great Communicator”

The Master Speech Files, 1898, 1910-1945

Series 1: Franklin D. Roosevelt’s Political Ascension

File No. 61

1916 November 6

Hyde Park, NY

November 6, 1916

Hyde Park, TN

FDR Speech File

Poughkeepsie Evening Enterprise,
Nov. 6, 1916 (photostat)

Filed Sec. 47 drawer 2 (attic)

RLS
8/6/52

Every Issue of Secretory Lane Here

Secretary of Interior Is Greeted With Tremendous Applause as He Takes Up Questions of War, Eight-Hour Law and Wilson's Legislation at Mass Meeting in Institute—John Sague Receives Ovation.

Despite the rain, three hundred men and women crowded Columbia institute Saturday night to listen to the closing speeches of Franklin S. Lane, Secretary of the Interior, John M. Sague, Attorney of the Interior, and Franklin P. Roosevelt, Assistant Secretary of Navy. The gathering was an enthusiastic one and the name of President Wilson was cheered at every moment. The activities and some degree of success at length and earnest appeals were made to the voters for the reelection of President Wilson. Several speakers and the other candidates on the Democratic ticket.

Proclamations gave the speeches a hearty welcome. Lane before they appeared Columbia institute was packed to the doors and was forced to stand in the rear of the hall. Mr. Roosevelt presided at the meeting and in the address, he said that the gathering that he was glad to get back to Columbia County to attend the meeting. He said that he was glad to see the people and to see the political meeting but a satisfaction meeting within the state.

"Further Proclamations," said Mr. Roosevelt, "I believe the American people are going to see the President Wilson on Tuesday night."

"He said that the present campaign was one of the most important in the history of the nation and that the American people were going to see the President Wilson on Tuesday night."

"Mr. Sague was given an ovation that was one of the most enthusiastic in the history of the nation. He said that he was glad to see the people and to see the political meeting but a satisfaction meeting within the state."

TAKES MOVIES OF VASSAR GIRLS

Prof. Shattuck Takes Picture of Girls on "Rocky" Steps

Some clips were passed around the dining rooms at Vassar Friday night every one to come out after lunch and pose for the "movies" on "Rocky" steps. While the college song leader, Miss Catherine McKee led the singing of some good old college songs, Professor George Burdick, chairman of the department of geology, took moving picture of the scene.

Miss Emma Knapp, 1914, of Poughkeepsie, gave a dinner party to several Vassar classmates and friends Friday evening at her home on Cedar Avenue, Poughkeepsie. Among those present were: Mrs. Helen Nodine, 1916, of Cold River, Mass.; Miss Mary Paul Maher, 1917, of this city; Miss Marion Reed, 1918, of this city; Miss N. W. McLean, 1919, of this city; Miss Anna Marie Turner, 1919, of this city.

The excitement of the seniors at the 1917 hockey games Friday night was not their only excitement when in their last freshman days they won a basket ball game.

The Republican party has lost its characteristic power and now a party of fear, is that the kind of a game the American people want to control their destiny for the next four years. I think not. The American people want a party with faith.

"It was fairly the Senate about the Secretary of America. It was fairly that through the center to play. It was fairly that through the center to play. It was fairly that through the center to play."

MUST SECURE A CERTIFICATE FROM DR. WILSON

A letter has been sent to the principal of each of the public schools of the city by the superintendent.

Dr. Wilson asks that you be re-qualified that no child excluded from school because of contagion may be re-qualified without a certificate from the health officer. A statement from any other physician is not to be accepted.

FOUR MILLION WOMEN TO VOTE

Both Parties Ignorant as to What They Will Do

By United Press.

New York, Nov. 5.—Four million women vote tomorrow.

And both sides say very frankly that it is difficult to say just what they'll do, inasmuch as the women will be more independent than men.

H. MADSEN WEDS BEACON GIRL

Takes Miss Knapp as Bride Saturday

The wedding of Miss Hilda Knapp, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Knapp of Beacon, and Henry A. Madsen, of this city, took place at 4 o'clock on Saturday afternoon at the home of the bride in Beacon.

The bride wore a broadcloth traveling suit with a pearl gray hat and shoes and gloves to match. She carried brides' roses.

A wedding breakfast and reception followed the ceremony. The gift of the bridegroom to the bride was a pearl bracelet.

BENCH WARRANT FOR WORTHINGTON IN ORANGE CO.

It was learned today that a bench warrant for the arrest of Samuel Crawford, alias Arthur Worthington, had been issued from Orange County after an indictment there after jury. The complaint was made by the Rev. P. J. Stanley, of Newburgh from whom Crawford had obtained more than $100.

On the complaint of R. P. Wagon, of Raymond, California, will present evidence to the local grand jury in the hope of obtaining an indictment.

MRS. GALLUP'S MOTHER DEAD

Mrs. Charles H. Gallup, of a Baldwin avenue, has received word of the death of her mother, Mrs. Orlan Jackson, who died suddenly at her home in Cleveland, Ohio.

Mrs. Eggleston was in apparently the best of health and expected to visit her daughter in the city in a couple of weeks. She was well known in this city, having lived here up to a few years ago, when she moved west with her husband. A wide circle of friends here are grieved to learn of her death.

Not a Hughes Man in the Whole Township

One day last week a state highway commissioner had occasion to visit a township over in Ulster County.

He had been invited to dine at the home of the township highway commissioner and upon reaching the principal village in the town, the Albany official told him that he was in a predicament.

He said that he was in a predicament and upon reaching the principal village in the town, the Albany official told him that he was in a predicament.

Control of Senate House at State as President

18,000,000 Citizens Are Members of Lower Seek Election to the

By United Press.

Washington, D. C., Nov. 4.—Tomorrow about 18,000,000 citizens of the United States will select the 20th president of the Republic.

Although there are five national tickets in the field, and one vice-presidential aspirant, it is certain that only two of these tickets will secure very largely in the vote counting.

The 20th president therefore will be either Woodrow Wilson or Charles Evans Hughes—the first a Democrat the second a Republican.

The Unsuccessful Ones.

The unsuccessful ones will be: Socialist for president, Allan I. Benson, of New York, and for vice-president, George R. Kilpatrick, of New Jersey.

Control of Senate House at State as President

18,000,000 Citizens Are Members of Lower Seek Election to the

By United Press.

Washington, D. C., Nov. 4.—Tomorrow about 18,000,000 citizens of the United States will select the 20th president of the Republic.

Although there are five national tickets in the field, and one vice-presidential aspirant, it is certain that only two of these tickets will secure very largely in the vote counting.

The 20th president therefore will be either Woodrow Wilson or Charles Evans Hughes—the first a Democrat the second a Republican.

The Unsuccessful Ones.

The unsuccessful ones will be: Socialist for president, Allan I. Benson, of New York, and for vice-president, George R. Kilpatrick, of New Jersey.

