PREPARING TO ENFORCE EXPORT REGULATIONS

Executive Board, Under New Act, to Be Composed of Officials of State, War and Navy Departments.

An executive board, composed of officials of the State, War and Navy departments, will form the "export control committee" to be in the lead of the enforcement of the United States during the war, under the provisions of the new act.

The State Department will have charge of the administration of export control, while the War and Navy departments will have charge of the enforcement of the act.

The act is in force and the executive board will be organized soon.
