
Franklin D. Roosevelt — “The Great Communicator”
The Master Speech Files, 1898, 1910-1945

Series 1: Franklin D. Roosevelt’s Political Ascension

File No. 81

1918 November 16

Washington, D.C.

November 16, 1918

[Speech, Washington, D.C.]

FDR Speech File

0081

FDR's speech on behalf of the United War
Work Campaign before Navy Department employees, south steps of the State, War and Navy building, Washington, D.C., 11 a.m., Nov. 16, 1918.

RLJ
4/13/51

WAR WORK RALLY SET FOR TONIGHT

Gipsy Smith and R. B. Fosdick, Speakers—Mlle. de
Treville to Sing.

The final big mass meeting of the present united war work campaign, which comes to an end next Monday, will be held at the Liberty Hut tonight. This large tabernacle, which has become famous as a meeting place for patriotic rallies since this country entered the war, is expected to be packed tonight, and to be the scene of a lively demonstration.

Raymond H. Postick, chairman of the commission on training camp activities, named by the War Department as the acting head of all the agencies engaged in relief work among the American soldiers and sailors, will speak. Gipsy Smith, and who has been in France with the Y. M. C. A. for the past year, will be the principal speakers on this memorable occasion. The meeting promises to be a robbing and interesting one. It will start at 8 o'clock and the public is invited.

Mlle. Yvonne de Treville to Sing.

Mlle. Yvonne de Treville, prima donna of the Royal Belgian Opera, will sing, and band music will be furnished by the United States Marine Band. Mlle. de Treville has been one of the most active workers for the patriotic cause, and her part of the program tonight will be the rendering of selections from the famous French opera, "The Daughter of the Regiment." Miss Etta Schmid will accompany her.

A patriotic gathering at the Liberty Hut last evening, led Vice President Marshall, Henry Morganthau, former ambassador to France, and Commander Evangeline Booth of the Salvation Army make strong and earnest appeals for the success of this campaign. Vice President emphasized the fact that the $17,000,000 sought by means of this campaign is needed all the more now that active fighting has ceased and the soldiers are facing a long period of monotony.

Vice President's Appeal

The Vice President made a personal appeal to the citizens of Washington to subscribe the full quota of $100,000 for the campaign, and, as he expressed it, "that this the seat of the great American government will mindful of the welfare of our noble fighting forces."

"Washington did wonderfully well in the Liberty Loan and Red Cross drives," declared Mr. Marshall, "setting an example for the whole nation, and I hope with confidence founded on the capital's past achievements that you will contribute your full share to this great and worthy cause."

The Vice President then told briefly of the many problems that will come with reconstruction, saying the aftermath of the war will demand conditions that will make it more vital to provide for the comfort and right recreation of the sailors and soldiers than in the terrible times of war."

Work Among Soldiers Depicted.

A graphic description of the relief work among the soldiers in France was given by Commander Evangeline Booth of the Salvation Army. Her address was impressive and stirring, and she aroused her many listeners to much enthusiasm.

Commander Booth, tall and athletic, spoke with undimmed eloquence of the value of the work of the many welfare workers who are with the fighting men. She told of the dangers faced and hardships endured by those who supply the men might be made comfortable and happy.

The seven recognized relief organizations were characterized by Commander Booth as the "harmonious product of affiliated religious agencies."

In conclusion, she declared: "Now that the black and bloody shawl of war has been stripped from humanity and replaced by the white veil of peace, God-ordained duty of civilization to help the noble men who still struggle in whirlpool of reaction."

Following this fervent and sincere speech Commander Booth was practically overwhelmed. She was accorded a tremendous ovation in the form of cheering and hand-clapping.

Meetings Scheduled for Today.

A number of meetings in department stores and government departments are scheduled for today. "The Victory Party," under the direction of Miss E. Kefefstein of the Y. W. C. A., met at the Cosmos Theater at 10:45 a.m. At Goldenberg's department store W. H. Lovett, secretary at Camp Humphreys, will speak. A rally was held at the patent leather store at 11 a.m., at which the jazz band from Camp Humphreys played. The Camp Humphreys quartet sang at a meeting at the Interior Department at 10 a.m., in which A. E. Seelmeier was the speaker.

A big mass meeting for all employees of the main office of the Navy Department was held on the south steps of the State, War and Navy buildings at 11 o'clock. Franklin D. Roosevelt, assistant secretary of the Navy, and Gipsy Smith, the noted evangelist, and the Marine Band played. Rear Admiral Lewis presided. It was announced that the musicians of the Marine Band yesterday turned in through their leader, W. H. Lovett, the sum of $100 as their offering to the fund.

ARE YOU WORTH DYING FOR?

The quota of the fund for the United War Work Campaign of Washington is $800,000, or approximately $2 for every man, woman and child in the District of Columbia.

If the readers of The Star will each of them see that for every member of each household at least $2 is subscribed, the fund will be raised, for the larger subscriptions already made, or which will be made, will offset those others who are too poor to help.

This money is to be used to make life happier and safer for the boys who have offered their lives that our lives and liberties might be safeguarded.

How many of the 100,000 Washingtonians who daily buy a Star will answer this appeal? Subscriptions may be sent to 1224 F Street, or will be received at The Star office, or at any bank in the city.

WERE YOU WORTH DYING FOR?

fused by Sergt. Owen J. Mulligan of the Marine Corps, who will be auctioned off. This auction will be conducted for tonight, but Manager Robbins of Keith's secured the services of Lillian Russell as the auctioneer, who will appear here next week, and the auction of the pony was postponed to Monday. Speakers at the theaters of the city tonight will be: Mrs. John W. Polk; Samuel Herrick; Gayety, J. P. O'Toole; National, Henry R. Macfarland; Lyceum, B. F. Con-sual.

Cabinet Men Ask Support of War Work Campaign

Appeals in the interest of the united war work campaign to raise $170,000 for the support of the seven relief organizations engaged in welfare work among the American soldiers have been issued by Secretary Lansing of the Department of State and Secretary Lane of the Department of Interior.

"While these organizations, acting separately, have done and would continue to do splendid work," said Mr. Lansing, "combination will greatly add to their efficiency and usefulness. I am sure that the American people will give to the campaign the same support which they gave in the past to the separate organizations. It is enough to say that it is for our boys across the sea."

Secretary Lane issued this statement:

"Under a united leadership in France our men are making a drive for us, and under a united leadership in America we are making a drive for them. May we be as successful as they have been!"

ARMY FACED DISASTER, IS REASON TEUTONS QUIT

French Statement Made in Reply
to Hindenburg Claim That
Famine Brought Armistice.

PARIS, November 16, 4:35 a.m.—"Field Marshal von Hindenburg, in his message to the German army, said that the threat of famine caused the acceptance of the armistice," says Marcel Hulin of the Echo de Paris.

"Although food difficulties played a part in the defeat of the Germans, the real reason for the German collapse was the fact that the enemy's army was on the brink of disaster."

"The first words the German plenipotentiaries said to Marshal Foch were, in substance:

"Your army is at your mercy, marshal. Our reserves of men and munitions are completely exhausted, making it impossible for us to continue the war."

FRANCE SCOUTS GERMAN CLAIM TO RAILWAY CARS

Allies Are Asking Only Restitution
of Equipment Stolen by Invaders.

NEW YORK, November 16.—In answer to German claims that surrender of 5,000 locomotives and 150,000 railroad cars, as demanded by the allies, would bring famine upon the country, Stephane Lausanne, head of the official bureau of French information, declared here that Marshal Foch has imposed upon the enemy merely a restitutive of rolling stock which its armament of invasion seized in Belgium and northern France early in the war.

"The German authorities pretend," said Mr. Lausanne, "that this equipment is needed to transport food from the farms to the cities. When the American press is filled with these claims it is perhaps well to remind the public that the invaders seized in France 5,000 cars and in Belgium the entire railway rolling stock comprising 3,000 engines and 50,000 cars."

The French publicist asserted that the equipment specified in the armistice terms is not required for the feeding of the civilian populations of Belgium and northern France, "who have been starved and robbed of all they possessed by the German armies of occupation."

SHOOTING CASES MULTIPLY.

BUNGALOW PROPERTY IS SOLD FOR $10,500

Edwin Hahn Buys Recently Completed Dwelling—Other Deals
in Realty.

The bungalow recently completed at 3512 Ordway street by Shannon & Luchs was sold to Edwin Hahn for $10,500. The bungalow, of two stories, contains seven rooms and is of the California type.

Several other sales were completed during the last week by this firm. No. 3615 12th street was sold to Julia L. Simon for $5,800.

Mrs. Cora M. Seville purchased 2923 12th street northeast for $6,000 from William J. Snyder.

No. 1244 Ohio place was sold for $6,000 to F. B. Buckingham for Harry Stanford.

No. 3513 New Hampshire avenue was sold to Minnie H. Holland. It is a two-story-roofed bungalow and was purchased by Mrs. Holland as her home. No. 1415 Monroe street was sold to Frank R. Forrester for $5,250. It is a six-room, two-story, bay-window brick, and will be used as a home by Mr. Forrester. The sale was made for J. Frank Margerison.

No. 1244 R street was sold to Evelyn S. Mercer for $5,000. The sale was made for Mercer S. Coleman.

The detached home, 3542 Albemarle street, Chevy Chase, was sold for Harry W. Clark for $15,000. It was purchased by Mr. Clark from J. Frank Margerison, a detached home of ten rooms and bath.

BUILDING PERMITS.

Building permits have been issued during the past week as follows:

Metal garage, Mrs. Sophia Harring, 2925 Ordway street northwest; $170.

Brick garage, Henry C. Hill, 1829 Florida place, northwest; $300.

Frame addition, War Community Y. M. C. A., southeast corner Pennsylvania avenue and 8th street northwest; $5,000.

Repairs and new roof, Joseph J. Dorsey, Alabama avenue southeast;

Metal garage, Allan E. Walker, 1624 S street northwest; $300.

Frame garage, W. B. & J. M. W. Irvin, 1111 Allison street northwest; $150.

Improvements and alterations, convent Sisters of the Visitation, 1500 New Hampshire avenue; $150.

Improvements, John Donaldson, 2401 M street northwest; $100.

Frame chapel, Columbia Heights Christian Church; $1,000.

Repairs and improvements, T. H. Brown, 2325 Georgia avenue northwest; $100.

Garage, A. Flagg, 1338 R street northwest; $150.

Garage, J. H. Crawford, 2711, 28th street northwest; $125.

Garage, Ida M. Grady, 2926 Newark street northeast; $100.

Garage, M. M. Seybold, 2926 Newark street northwest; $100.

Garage, Ralph J. Rose, rear 3438 14th street northwest; $1,000.

Garage, Standard Oil Company, I and Dorsey streets southeast; $2,000.

House, Louisa G. Ferrie, 720 8th street northwest; $1,000.

Repairs, E. H. Behren, 613 F street northwest; $1,500.

Garage, Sigmund Silverberg, rear 451 Newark place northwest; $100.

Repairs, C. W. Groener, 1109-1111 Pennsylvania avenue northwest; $100.

General Baking Company, rear 131 14th street southeast; $2,500.

Repairs, Clarence Nohr, 592-593 G street northwest; $75.

The state-wide prohibition amendment to Ohio's constitution carried at last week's election by a majority of 54,719 votes.

WAR WORK RALLY SET FOR TONIGHT

Gipsy Smith and R. B. Fosdick, Speakers—Mile. de
Treville to Sing.

The final big mass meeting of the present united war work campaign, which comes to an end next Monday, will be held at the Liberty Hut tonight. This large tabernacle, which has become famous as a meeting place for patriotic rallies since this country entered the war, is expected to be packed tonight, and to be the scene of a lively demonstration.

Haymond H. Faasick, chairman of the commission on training camp activities, named by the War Department as the acting head of all the agencies engaged in relief work among the American soldiers, Gipsy Smith, famous as an evangelist, and who has been in France with the Y. M. C. A. for the past year, will be the principal speakers on this memorable occasion. The meeting promises to be a moving and interesting one. It will start at 8 o'clock and the public is invited.

Mile. Yvonne de Treville to Sing.

Mile. Yvonne de Treville, prima donna of the Royal Belgian Opera, will sing, and band music will be furnished by the United States Marine Band. Mile. de Treville has been one of the most popular speakers for all patriotic causes. The feature of her part of the program tonight will be the rendering of selections from the famous French opera, "The Douglas," and the Regimental, "Miss Etta French will accompany.

An enthusiastic gathering at the Liberty Hut last night heard Vice President Marshall, Henry Morgan, former ambassador to Turkey, and Commander Evangeline Booth of the Salvation Army, speak with earnest appeals for the success of this campaign. Each speaker emphasized the fact that the $176,000,000 being sought by means of this campaign is needed all the more now that active hostilities have ceased and the soldiers are facing a long period of monotony and leisure.

Vice President's Appeal

Vice President Marshall made a personal appeal to the citizens of Washington to subscribe the full quota of $500,000 to the campaign, and, as he expressed it, "show that the seat of the great American government is fully behind the welfare of our noble fighting forces."

"Washington did wonderfully well in all the liberty loan and Red Cross drives," declared Mr. Marshall, "setting a splendid example for the whole nation and I hope with a confidence based on the early partial achievements that you will contribute your full share to this great and worthy cause."

The Vice President then told briefly of the various problems that will come with reconstruction, saying the "Aftermath of the war will develop conditions that will make it more vital to provide for the comfort and right recreation of the sailors and soldiers than in the terrible times of war."

Work Among Soldiers Depicted.

A graphic description of the relief work among the soldiers in France was given by Commander Evangeline Booth of the Salvation Army. Her address was impressive and stirring and the audience her many listeners to much enthusiasm.

Commander Booth, tall and athletic, in uniform, told eloquently of the valor and the devotion of the many welfare workers who are among the fighting men. She told of the dangers faced and hardships endured that even the bravest men might be made uncomfortable and unhappy.

The seven recognized relief organizations were characterized by Commander Booth as the "harmonious partnership of affiliated religious agencies."

In conclusion, she declared: "Now that the black and bloody shawl of war has been stripped from humanity and replaced by the white veil of peace, the God-given duty of civilization to help those who are men who must struggle in whirlpool of reaction."

Following this fervent and sincere appeal, a standing ovation was practically unanimous. She was accorded a tremendous ovation in the form of cheers and hand-clapping.

Meetings Scheduled for Today.

A number of meetings in department stores and government departments are scheduled for today. "The Victory Rally," under the direction of Dr. L. Kestenberg of the Y. W. C. A., met at the Egyptian Theater at 10:30 a.m. At Goldfarb's department store W. B. Love, "the secretary at Camp Humphreys," will speak at 11 a.m. at the patent office at 9:45 a.m. at which the jazz band from Camp Humphreys played. The Camp Humphreys band sang at a meeting at the Interior Department at 10 o'clock, at which A. E. Setmire was the speaker.

A big mass meeting for all employees of the state office of the Navy Department will be held on the south steps of the State, War and Navy building at 11 o'clock. Franklin D. Roosevelt, assistant secretary of the Navy, and Gipsy Smith, the noted evangelist, and the Marine Band played.

It was announced that the main class of the Marine band yesterday turned in through their leader, W. J. Bandman, the sum of $400 as their subscription to the fund.

ARE YOU WORTH DYING FOR?

The quota of the fund for the United War Work Campaign of Washington is $800,000, or approximately $2 for every man, woman and child in the District of Columbia.

If the readers of The Star will each of them see that for every member of each household at least $2 is subscribed, the fund will be raised, for the larger subscriptions already made, or which will be made, will offset those others who are too poor to help.

This money is to be used to make life happier and safer for the boys who have offered their lives that our lives and liberties might be safeguarded.

How many of the 100,000 Washingtonians who daily buy a Star will answer this appeal? Subscriptions may be sent to 1224 F Street, or will be received at The Star office, or at any bank in the city.

WERE YOU WORTH DYING FOR?

fund by Bert Owen J. Mulligan of the Marine Corps will be auctioned off. This auction was originally scheduled for tonight, but Manager Robbins of Keith's secured the services of Lillian Russell as the auctioneer, who will appear here next week, and the auction of the pony was postponed to Monday.

The auctioneer will be Keith's, H. E. Mourer; Poll's, Samuel Herrick; Gayety, J. P. O'Toole; National, Henry B. Macfarland; Lyceum, B. F. Con-sault.

Cabinet Men Ask Support of War Work Campaign

Appeals in the interest of the united war work campaign to raise $175,000,000 for the support of the seven relief organizations engaged in welfare work among the American soldiers have been issued by Secretary Lansing of the Department of State and Secretary Lane of the Department of Interior.

"While these organizations, acting separately, have done and would continue to do splendid work," said Mr. Lansing, "they can do even more to add to their efficiency and usefulness. I am sure that the American people will give to the united effort the same support which they gave in the past to the separate organizations. It is enough to say that it is for our boys across the sea."

Secretary Lane issued this statement:

"Under a united leadership in France our men are making a drive for us, and under a united leadership in America we are making a drive for them. May it be as successful as they have been."

ARMY FACED DISASTER, IS REASON TEUTONS QUIT

French Statement Made in Reply
to Hindenburg Claim That
Famine Brought Armistice.

PARIS, November 16, 4:35 a.m.—Field Marshal von Hindenburg, in his message to the German army, said that the threat of famine caused the acceptance of the armistice, says Marcel Huth of the Echo de Paris.

"Although food difficulties played a part in the defeat of Germany, the determining cause of the German collapse was the fact that the enemy's army was on the brink of disaster."

The first words the German plenipotentiaries were, in substance:

"We are ready to accept an armistice. It is at your mercy, marshal. Our resources of men and munitions are completely exhausted, making it impossible for us to continue the war."

FRANCE SCOUTS GERMAN CLAIM TO RAILWAY CARS

Allies Are Asking Only Restitution
of Equipment Stolen by Invaders.

NEW YORK, November 16.—In answer to German claims that surrender of 5,600 locomotives and 150,000 railroad cars, as demanded by the allies, would bring famine upon the country, Stephane Lausanne, head of the official bureau of French information, declared here that Marshal Foch has imposed upon the enemy merely a restitution of rolling stock which its armies of invasion seized in Belgium and northern France early in the war.

The German authorities "protest," said Mr. Lausanne, "that this equipment is needed to transport food from the farms to the cities. When the American press is filled with these claims it is perhaps well to remind the public that the invaders seized in France 35,000 cars and in Belgium the entire railway rolling stock comprising 1,500,000 tons."

The French publicist asserted that the equipment specified in the armistice terms is necessary to the rationing of the civilian populations of Belgium and northern France, "who have been entirely robbed of all they possessed by the German armies of occupation."

BUNGALOW PROPERTY IS SOLD FOR $10,500

Edwin Hahn Buys Recently Completed Dwelling—Other Deals
in Realty.

The bungalow recently completed at 212 Ordway street by Shannon & Leake was sold to Edwin Hahn for $10,500. The bungalow, of two stories, contains seven rooms and is of the California type.

Several other sales were completed during the last week by this firm. No. 2815 13th street was sold to Julia L. Simon for $5,000.

Mrs. Cora M. Selvill purchased 2923 12th street northeast for $5,000 from William H. Snyder.

No. 1244 Ogle place was sold for $6,000 to R. Buckingham for Harry Foster.

No. 3513 New Hampshire avenue was sold to Minnie H. Holland. It is a seven-room modern dwelling and was purchased by Mrs. Holland as her home.

No. 1116 Moore street was sold to Frank B. Johnson for $5,000. It is a six-room, two-story, bay-window brick, and will be used as a home by Mr. Worcester. The sale was made for J. Frank Bearer.

No. 1324 R street was sold to Yeolin S. Simon for $5,000. The sale was made for Mrs. Coleman.

The detached home, 3542 Albemarle street, Chevy Chase, was sold for Harry Wilson for $11,000. It was purchased by Mrs. Clever Saunders. This is a detached home of ten rooms and bath.

BUILDING PERMITS.

Building permits have been issued during the past week as follows:

Metal garage, Mrs. Sophie Harris, 2225 Ordway street northwest: $170.

Brick garage, Henry C. Hill, 1529 Florida avenue northwest: $300.

Frame addition, War Community Y. M. C. A., southeast corner Pennsylvania Avenue and 11th street northwest: $1,000.

Repairs and new roof, Joseph J. Dorsey, Alabama avenue southeast: $25.

Metal garage, Allan E. Walker, 1674 Garrettsburg road: $500.

Frame garage, W. B. & J. M. W. Irvin, 1111 Allison street northwest: $500.

Improvements and alterations, convent, Sisters of the Visitation, 1500 15th street northwest: $150.

M. street entrance, John C. Rosedale, M street northwest: $100.

Frame chapel, Columbia Heights Christian Church: $7,000.

Repairs and improvements, T. R. Brink, 3532 Georgia avenue northwest: $100.

Garage, A. Flagg, 1535 R street northwest: $150.

Garage, J. H. Crawford, 2711 28th street northwest: $150.

Garage, Ed. M. Gray, 2936 Newark street northwest: $100.

Garage, Margaret W. Hayton, 2939 Newark street northwest: $100.

Garage, Ralph R. Rose, rear 3424 14th street northwest: $7,000.

Garage, Standard Oil Company, I and Erie street southeast: $2,000.

Garage, Louis A. G. Ferrie, 730 8th street southeast: $100.

Garage, Henry H. Lewis, 3125 Livingston street northwest: $600.

Repairs and improvements, Martha Davis, 1614 G street northwest: $250.

Repairs, O. H. Heller, 712 7th street northwest: $1,000.

Repairs, E. R. Behren, 613 N street northwest: $1,250.

Garage, Sigismund Silverberg, rear 451 Newton place northwest: $100.

Garage, W. Grouse, 1109-1111 Pennsylvania place northwest: $500.

Repairs, General Banking Company, rear 151 1st street southwest: $1,150.

Repairs, Clarence Nohr, 592-593 G street northwest: $75.

The state-wide prohibition amendment to Ohio's constitution carried at last week's election by a majority of 36,713 votes.

SHOOTING CASES MULTIPLY.

of the soldier and the sacrifices of the men who are working for the lighting men. She told of the dangers faced and hardships endured by the men, but said they might be made comfortable and happy.

She even recognized relief organizations as "the best friends of Commander Booth as the harmonious personality of affiliated religious agencies."

In conclusion, she declared: "Now that the black and bloody shawl of war has been stripped from humanity and replaced by the white attire of peace, it is the God-given duty of every man to help those noble men who are struggling in whirlpool of reaction."

Following this fervent and sincere appeal, Commander Booth was officially exonerated. She was accorded a tremendous ovation in the form of cheers and hand-clapping.

Meetings Scheduled for Today.

A number of meetings in department stores and government departments were scheduled for today. The Victory Patriotic Center, at 10:30 a.m., Miss E. Kestefield of the Y. W. C. A., at the Cosmopolitan Theater at 10:30 a.m., at the Cosmopolitan department store W. H. Love, will speak. Camp Humphreys, will speak. A rally will be held at patent office at 9:45 a.m., at which time the Camp Humphreys quartet sang at a meeting at the Patent Office Department at 10 o'clock, at which A. E. Settouri was the speaker.

At 10:30 a.m. meeting for all employees of the main post office, the department was held on the south steps of the State War and Navy Building at 11 a.m. Mrs. Franklin Roosevelt, assistant secretary of the Navy; Harry Smith, the noted evangelist, Rev. G. W. Marine, band played. Rear Admiral Condie addressed.

It was announced that the musicians of the Marine Band yesterday turned in their uniforms. Commander W. H. Santemann, the sum of $600 as their subscription to the fund.

Activities Yesterday.

Meetings were held yesterday at the office of the alien property custodian, King's Palace, Lansburgh; the Interstate Fairmount, Fairmount Seminary and the office of the Secretary of Agriculture.

Speakers last night at the meetings in the city were: Belasco, Henry B. F.; Macmillan, Gayety, Joseph P. O'Toole; National Bank; Mrs. John D. Rockefeller; Letter Gordon; Keith's, Commissioner Louis Brownlow, and Poll's. M. Rosenbach, author; Mrs. Anna Johnson, Mrs. Allister, Adj't. Helen Purvian, maker of the first doughnut in France; Maj. Emanuel, author; and Mrs. Helen Holt were speakers for the Salvation Army last night at the theaters down town.

The intensive campaign to acquaint the churchmen with the needs of the Negro and immediate need of oversubscription of the fund before Monday is being planned by the Negro churchmen of Washington churches. Appeals from the public schools and Sunday school classes will be made at all the Sunday school meetings in the various denominations, and a determined effort will be made to get the churches squarely behind the fund. Dr. Charles Henry Butler, chairman of the Negro churchmen, and others, reports an enthusiastic response to all the churches in which he has placed the collection boxes and subscriptions from the cities to come in today in order that they may be tabulated and the amount given for each organization by next Monday.

J. H. Hanna of the victory boys and his committee reported a fine response from the public schools and member of his committee predicts that the victory boys and girls' unit will raise more than $10,000 as its share of the big fund.

Donated Articles to Be Auctioned.

Tonight at Keith's Theater Letitia Pen, a doll brought over by William Pen, a son of daughter in England to a girl in Philadelphia in 1865, will be auctioned off, and the proceeds donated to the fund. The doll has been in the possession of the family of Mahlon Kirk since 1865. It has been in the past sixty years, and has on many occasions been asked for by curio buyers. On one occasion when Kirk was offered $1000 for the doll and sold it Monday night at Keith's a pony and cart valued at $250, donated to the time the war."

FRANCE SCOUTS GERMAN CLAIM TO RAILWAY CARS

Allies Are Asking Only Restitution
of Equipment Stolen by Invaders.

NEW YORK, November 16.—In answer to German claims that surrender of 5,000 locomotives and 18,000 cars of the Allies can be demanded by the Germans in order to bring famine upon the country, Stephane Laxanne, head of the official bureau of French information, declared here that Marshal Foch has imposed upon the enemy merely a restoration of rolling stock which it armes of invasion seized in Belgium and northern France early in the war.

"The German authorities pretend," said Mr. Laxanne, "that this equipment is needed to transport food from the farms to the cities. When the German press is asked whether these claims it is well to remind the public that the invaders seized in France 50,000 cars and in Belgium the entire railway rolling stock comprising 3,000 engines and 60,000 cars."

French authorities insist that the equipment specified in the armistice terms is necessary to the rationing of food in the two countries of Belgium and northern France "who have been starved and robbed of all they possessed by the German armies of occupation."

SHOOTING CASES MULTIPLY.

Nine Persons Indicted for Alleged Use of Dangerous Weapons.

Nine persons were indicted by the grand jury yesterday on charges of assault with dangerous weapons and two of attempted criminal attempts. The grand jurors ignored four charges, one of assault against Anna Johnson; one of adultery against Edith Jackson and Charles Smallwood; a charge of mayhem against Ella Washington, and a joy-riding attempt against Howard Miller. The persons indicted on the charges against them are: Charles Owens, James Thomas, Frank Jackson, James G. Smith, Duke Jackson, Mrs. Braxton, John Middleton, Edward Alexander and Mary Wilson; assault and battery against Oscar D. Toto and Randolph Thomas; assault rape; Marie Huller, robbery, and Ruth Jackson and Ada J. Boswell, adultery.

Mr. GEORGE HUGGINS, 2406, Frame chapel, Columbia Heights Christian Church; $7,000.
Repairs and improvements, T. B. Brinkley, 1553 Georgia avenue northwest; $300.
Garage, Flagg, 1538 R street northeast; $100.
Garage, J. H. Crawford, 2711, 28th street northwest; $100.
Garage, Margaret W. Seybold, 2920 Newark street northwest; $200.
Garage, Ralph C. Lewis, 2423 14th street northwest; $1,300.
Garage, Standard Oil Company, I and Main streets, southeast; $2,000.
Garage, Louis G. Ferro, 720 9th street southeast; $100.
Garage, Henry C. Lewis, 2428 Livingside street northwest; $600.
Repairs and improvements, Bertha Davis, 1414 G street northwest; $100.
Repairs, O. H. Heller, 712 7th street northwest; $1,000.
Repairs, E. E. Behren, 613 F street northwest; $1,500.
Garage, Sigmund Silverberg, rear 461 Newgate place northwest; $100.
Repairs, General Baking Company, 100-111 Pennsylvania avenue northwest; $100.
Repairs, General Baking Company, 100-111 Pennsylvania avenue northwest; $100.
Repairs, General Baking Company, 100-111 Pennsylvania avenue northwest; $100.

The state-wide prohibition amendment to Ohio's constitution carried last week's election by a majority of 2715 votes.

