
Franklin D. Roosevelt — “The Great Communicator”
The Master Speech Files, 1898, 1910-1945

Series 1: Franklin D. Roosevelt’s Political Ascension

File No. 100

1919 August 28

Washington, D.C.

August 28, 1919

[Washington]

FDR Speech File

0100

Washington, D.C.

BOARD UNANIMOUS ON MERGING LINES

Advantages of Uniting Street Car Systems Outlined Before Trade Body.

OTHER ISSUES TAKEN UP

Unanimous endorsement of the proposed merger of the Washington Railway and Electric street rail system was given by the Board of Trade yesterday at a meeting held in the auditorium of Central High School. The resolution supported by the board's public utilities committee, which on which affirmative action was taken was introduced by George H. Jones, manager of the Washington lines presented by the chairman of the committee, E. C. Graham, and was not a vote was recorded.

Advantages of a merger of the two systems as set forth in the resolution were: reduction of overhead expenses; reduction of over-head expenses; real universal transfer of all traffic between the two systems; merger of the two systems would be in the interest of the residents of Washington; and that the two systems should merge.

Opposition was expressed to the notion of a franchise proposed by the Washington City Council.

And the resolutions declared in favor of

Mr. Kutz on Building Zone.

Engineer Commissioner Kutz spoke in favor of the zoning scheme as presented by the District of Columbia zoning commission. The plan was adopted. In a speech before the board's committee on zoning, Mr. Kutz' endorsement of the plan was unanimously adopted.

Mr. Smith, represented by Orlie K. Smith, pledging the support of the police department, moved that payment be made for officers and members of the police force to attend the meeting in action at a future meeting, though the motion was not carried.

Mr. Kutz, in the resolution, stated that he had been asked for the police home defense legislation and had done his best for the benefit of the police personnel.

War Museum is Urged.

Franklin Roosevelt, assistant secretary of the navy, and Brigadier Gen. William S. Knobell, commanding officer of the marines that formed the guard of honor at the annual gun salute of honor at last night's meeting, addressed the members of the board.

The two speakers urged the board to get behind the movement for erection of a war museum in the nation's capital.

Zalma spoke briefly in support of a tax on tobacco products to raise the amount of a day for the annual observance of the anniversary of the adoption of the Constitution of the United States. The resolution was adopted unanimously.

Three hundred wounded soldiers from Walter Reed Hospital will be transported to Washington by rail tomorrow afternoon. Following their arrival and a short rest, the performance the boys will be driven across the city to a luncheon at the Red Cross and the War Camp Community Service will serve a picnic dinner.

The carnival at Mount Rainier continues to draw large crowds. The games are well patronized. A homemade cake competition will be held Saturday evening. Prizes will be awarded for the best cakes. The first place will receive $100. Baby show will be held on Labor Day. All proceeds will go to the Red Cross and to a memorial fund for Prince Georges county.

The Wunderusters' bike for Sunday will be a 10-mile race from the beginning race track to Rock Creek Park and back. The speed will be five miles, taking in Rock Creek Park.

Gen. C. M. Dollman has returned to the U.S. after fourteen months in charge of the American Expeditionary Forces. Gen. Dollman will be sta-

KEEPING UP WITH THE JONESES—Not

ORGANIZATION ACTIVITIES.

TONIGHT

Robley D. Evans Past, No. 1, American Legion Post, 21st and F streets, at New Masonic Temple, 8th and F streets.

Washington Camp, Modern Woodmen of America, will hold its annual dance at the conclusion of the meeting of the Washington Camp, camp hall, in the old Masonic Temple.

Director of the woman's bureau of the police department, will address the women of the Washington Camp, Church of the Covenant, at 7:30 p.m.

Dancing, games, and motion pictures will be provided. The entrance fee is 50 cents. The meeting will begin at 8 o'clock.

Steering committee of the Chamber of Commerce will meet at 8 o'clock.

Nashville, Tenn.—C. Nelson Parrish, 26, son of Dr. C. N. Parrish, who shot into the body of his brother, John Parrish,

WAR MEDALS AWARDED

D. C. MEN UNCLAIMED

Medals for bravery in action during the war awarded to four Washington men may be obtained at the Army Service Center, 12th and F streets. These men, although registered from Washington, apparently have no relatives here to whom they can which they entered the service and locate them and give them their medals have so far proved a failure. The four men are: Private Edward Elliott, 249th and 11 streets, at 7:30 o'clock.

Steering committee of the Chamber of Commerce will meet at 8 o'clock.

FDR's speech before the Washington Board of Trade, Central High School, Washington, D.C., Aug. 28, 1919.

RLJ - 4/17/51

Washington, D.C.

BOARD UNANIMOUS ON MERGING LINES

Advantages of Uniting Street Car Systems Outlined Before Trade Body.

OTHER ISSUES TAKEN UP

Unanimous endorsement of the proposal to merge the Washington and Georgetown Railway and Electric street rail systems was given by the Board of Trade at a meeting held yesterday in the auditorium of Central High School. The resolution prepared by the board was adopted after a long debate on which alternative action was taken at the previous meetings was presented. A motion was made to postpone the vote on the proposal until a later date, but it was voted down. Maj. C. M. Graham, and not a vote was recorded against the proposal.

Advantages of a merger of the two systems as set forth in the resolution were increased service, reduction of fares, value of securities, reduction of general head expenses, real universal transfer system, and the fact that a merger of the two systems would be in the best interest of the residents of Washington, who, that the residents of the city will be better served if all three systems merge. The system of the Washington and Georgetown, the new system of fare proposed by the Washington and Georgetown, and the resolutions declared in favor of the merger.

Mr. Kutz on Building Zone.

Engineer Commissioner Kutz spoke on his plan for a building zone system for the city, and urged the members of the board to support the plan to be expected in the fall, when by Mr. Graham the board's endorsement of the proposal will be unanimously adopted. Mr. Kutz, in order to gain the support of the police department, pledged the support of the police to the members of the board to pay for officers and members of the board to attend the meeting of the board at a future meeting, though the officers and members of the board are favorable to the resolution. Air Smith said he had been promised that the officers have been paid for the police to attend the meeting, and that the police will be paid for the benefit of the police pension fund.

War Museum Is Urged.

Franklin D. Roosevelt, assistant secretary of war, and Col. J. G. Neville, commanding officer of the 1st Division, were guests of honor at the meeting of the board of trade yesterday. Col. Neville urged the board to get behind the movement that the new museum was to house relics of the war. The resolution was adopted unanimously.

CITY NEWS IN BRIEF

Three hundred wounded soldiers from Walter Reed Hospital will be taken to see "Mickey" at Pult's to-morrow evening. The boys will be entertained a day for the annual observance of the 4th of July. The adoption of the Constitution of the United States resolution was adopted unanimously.

The carnival at Mount Rainier continues to draw large crowds, and are well patronized. At homemade contests, the boy who makes the best guess will be awarded the best cake. The 4th of July picnic and a baby show will be held on Labor day, Aug. 31. The money raised will go to a memorial fund for Prince George county veterans.

The Wunderlanders' ride for Sunday will commence from the banding race track at 10 a.m., and will continue around the course for 10 miles, taking in the country around the lake.

Maj. C. M. Dellman has returned to this city after fourteen months in the Philippines. Maj. Dellman is a son of Prince, Maj. Dellman will be stationed here.

KEEPING UP WITH THE JONESES—Not

ORGANIZATION ACTIVITIES.

NIGHT

Rosley D. Eason, Post No. 1 American Legion, meets at New Haven's Washington Camp, Modern Woodmen of America, with great interest in the new organization, the Legion, which camp hall, in the old Mechanics Temple, is open.

Director of the woman's bureau of the police department will address the women of the city at a meeting to be held at the church of the Covenant, at 7:30 p.m.

Dancing, games, and motion pictures at the new Triangle Recreation Center, 249½ Broad Street, will be given.

Steering committee of the Chamber of Commerce will meet at 8 o'clock.

WAR MEDALS AWARDED

D. C. MEN UNCLAIMED

Medals for bravery in action during the war awarded to four Washington men may be obtained at the Army recruiting office, 14th and F streets. These men, although registered from Washington, apparently have never claimed their medals, in which they entered the services and efforts of Army recruiting officers to find them. The records of their medals have so far proved a failure. The four men are: Private Edward H. Miller, 14th Infantry, 1918; Private Josephine, 24th Infantry, 1918; Private John E. Clinton, 24th Infantry, 1918; and Private George Gross, 37th Infantry, 1918. The last two named were with the 37th Infantry.

FDR's speech before the Washington Board of Trade, Central High School, Washington, D.C., Aug. 28, 1919.

RLJ - 4/17/51