PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT'S REMARKS AT THE
DEDICATION OF MOANA PARK, HONOLULU

July 27, 1934.

I am very, very glad to take part in the dedication of this park and I know that it will be of great service and a great pleasure to the people of Honolulu for many, many generations to come.

This is a transcript made by the White House stenographer from his shorthand notes taken at the time the speech was made. Underlining indicates words extemporaneously added to the previously prepared reading copy text. Words in parentheses are words that were omitted when the speech was delivered, though they appear in the previously prepared reading copy text.
