INFORMAL EXTEMPORANEOUS REMARKS OF THE PRESIDENT

WAHASHA, MINNESOTA

August 8, 1934

I just want to say that I am glad I am here and I am sorry I cannot stay longer. I have always been tremendously interested in this particular Mississippi Valley work, and I am glad to see that it is getting on so well.

Many thanks.

This is a transcript made by the White House stenographer from his shorthand notes taken at the time the speech was made. Underlining indicates words extemporaneously added to the previously prepared reading copy text. Words in parentheses are words that were omitted when the speech was delivered, though they appear in the previously prepared reading copy text.
