INFORMAL EXTEMPORANEOUS REMARKS OF THE PRESIDENT
LOUISVILLE, KENTUCKY
June 14, 1936

I am very glad to come here again. I wish I could stay longer. The next time I come, I plan for a regular visit with you.

This is a transcript made by the White House stenographer from his shorthand notes taken at the time the speech was made. Underlining indicates words extemporaneously added to the previously prepared reading copy text. Words in parentheses are words that were omitted when the speech was delivered, though they appear in the previously prepared reading copy text.
