INFORMAL EXTEMPORANEOUS REMARKS OF THE PRESIDENT
UNION STATION PLAZA, WASHINGTON, D. C.
November 6, 1936

My friends, I am very glad to come back among you, my old neighbors.

I formed a very good habit of coming to Washington when I was five years old and I am glad that that habit will not be broken during the coming four years.

I have seen Washington grow during this half century and I am very proud and happy as an American in this wonderful Capital of ours, for it is not only the most beautiful city in all the world but I think it is one of the grandest cities to live in in all the world.

This is a very wonderful greeting that you have given to me on this wonderful day. I am very thankful to you and hope to see much of you in the next four years.

EXTEMPORANEOUS REMARKS OF THE PRESIDENT

UNION STATION PLAZA Washington Dc

NOVEMBER 6, 1956

My Friends:

I am very glad to come back among you, my old neighbors.

I formed a very good habit of coming to Washington when I was five years old and I am glad that that habit will not be broken during the coming four years.

I have seen Washington grow during this half century and I am very proud and happy as an American in this wonderful Capital of ours, for it is not only the most beautiful city in all the world but I think it is one of the grandest cities to live in ⁱⁿ all the world.

This is a very wonderful greeting that you have given to me on this wonderful day. I am very thankful to you and hope to see such of you in the next four years.
