SUNDAY - DEC. 7

Armed Forces called me in the afternoon. I had to hear my phone ringing and answered. Admiral Stark was calling to advise the ships of the attack by Japan - and "we are at war." I called then and asked him to come to the office. Bridle was only the city. I came to the office. Then was there and others had arrived - Iann, shortly came Carmen, Townsend, representatives of the pipe Dint. Miss Amsden, whom I had called before coming home, was there. Emanuel too - and Begg.

MONDAY - DEC. 8
