

GREW'S RANK AND WHEREABOUTS FROM PEARL HARBOR
UNTIL HIS DEATH IN 1965

Dec. 7, 1941*
to June, 1942            Ambassador in Embassy in Tokyo

June 1942 Ret. Aug 1942 to December 1943 - Special Assistant to Secretary of State, Washington, D.C.

He was "in the field" speaking for the first year and a half. HContac Aug. p. 726 [1727]

Dec 1944                    - Director, Office of Far Eastern Affairs, Department of State, Washington, D.C.

Dec. 1944
to ~~August~~ 1945 - Under Secretary of State
Sept.

- Acting Secretary of State at time of Japanese surrender in August 1945

*Proceedings
p. 586*

---

Grew was in Washington almost constantly from time he resigned in 1945, still actively engaged in affairs of the Foreign Service and wielding enormous influence, until his death in 1965.

---

* Grew was appointed Ambassador to Japan in 1931 and served there until his return from Japan on the Gripsholm in June of 1942.

by Pres. Hoover