HENRY HORNER
GOVERNOR

December
First 1936

My dear Mr. President:

It was good of you to send me your thoughtful congratulatory letter of November twenty-first.

I, too, am happy over your election. The tremendous vote you received in this State and throughout the Nation was a matter of extreme gratification to me as it must have been to you. That you will have a happy and successful four years is my fondest hope.

With my very best wishes to you, believe me

Faithfully yours,

A handwritten signature in cursive script, appearing to read "Henry Horner".

His Excellency
Franklin D. Roosevelt,
White House,
Washington, D. C.
