My dear Mr. President:

In accordance with the authorization you gave me last Friday, I sent a telegram to Edwin Wilson informing him of your desire to appoint him Minister to Uruguay.

I have this morning received a telegram from Mr. Wilson of which I enclose a copy for your information because of the message of appreciation which it contains.

Believe me

Faithfully yours,

Enclosure:
No. 464, March 12,
1939 from Paris.

The President,
The White House.
