Statement regarding the President made by Bishop Lloyd to the Rev. Weigle.

"I am interested in that son of hers. You know, Weigle, he's not covered with the plastic clay of the ordinary man. He's a Profit, bringing to this Nation the very vital things inherent to its very life.

My hope and my prayers are that he will not be too much affected by the critics, and if he can keep his wonderful strength and sense of humor that is all that he needs. The only danger is that those fools - excuse me, those foolish people - like the Townsendites etc., may cut into the vote. But I haven't the least doubt in my mind that he will be re-elected and with a great pressing majority."
My dear Cousin Franklin:

Aunt Sally asked me to send you the enclosed copy of a statement made by Bishop Lord about you. Aunt Sally was so very pleased with it herself. She thought you would be interested to see it.

Very sincerely,

There was a man in our town,
And he was wondrous wise,
He jumped into the Nine Old Men,
And they scratched out both his eyes!
And when he saw his eyes were out,
He took another tack,
He waited for November third,
And now they scratch his back!

Thoughts from recent campaign speeches:

"Cross my heart and hope to die"
I'll bring you manna from on high,
Relief and pensions, work to do,
For each New Dealer, tried and true.
The "royalists" have"met their master"
And the "money changers" face disaster,
"Forgotten man" here is your chance,
The key to the White House is in my pants,
Just grab yourself a knife and carve
A piece of pie- "no one shall starve"
Don't ask for pork - you make me nervous,
We'll dish it out under Civil Service!

MEMORANDUM FOR

COMMISSIONER HELVERING

There has been so much change in the income tax form since the form used for the calendar year 1932 -- or to be more accurate, prior to March 4, 1933 -- that I think my tax return should be made up in accordance with the old schedules. You will remember that under the Constitution the tax rate on my salary cannot be increased during the term for which I was elected. I think, therefore, that the easiest way is for you to show me just where and how the items should be listed and the tax computed.
The approximate number of memento letters which we have sent out is 2,500.

THE TWO GREAT RADIO VOICES OF 1937

Rich man, poor man, beggarman, thief!
Who's in line for the Nation's Chief?
The guessing's good, and the odds are sporty.
Who'll be Prexy in 1940?
F. D. R. is a third-term risk.
Betting on Lewis is bold and brisk.
Around Manhattan the hopes are Dewey.
But a million radio fans cry, "Hooey.
To Favorite Son and to White House Resident.
It's Charlie McCarthy for our next President!"
