The President arrived at 2:30 p.m. word by telegraph from Ambassador Bullitt that Germany has invaded Poland and that seven cities are being burned. The President directed that all Navy ships and many Army commands be notified by radio at once.

In some 3:05 a.m.

[Signature]