My dear Miss General Manager:

This will acknowledge your very kind letter of August 13th, delivered in person by that great letter-carrier, Miss Grace Tully.

I am glad you appreciate the effort that was used by the writer to secure your transportation from Los Angeles to San Francisco. It was possibly the hardest work that I have put in for years. It required lots of negotiating with railroad officials, meeting with committees, bribing officials, securing approval of the Interstate Commerce Commission and promising favors in your behalf to the Railroad Retirement Board, yet, because of my passion for anonymity and my innate modesty, I merely say it was nothing.

One serious paragraph! I want to say that you have no idea how much Mary and I appreciate this week-end. It was the greatest thrill that either one of us will possibly ever have in our life. From now on, everything will be an anti-climax. Many thanks!

Very truly yours, didn’t write sooner. Thank you again and again for the lovely ship.

Sincerely yours,

Anne M. Bullitt.
Dear Miss LeHand:

Thank you a lot for the lovely ship model. Jimminy, it's grand. How could anybody get a ship that size through that neck though? They could work it inside but it would be awfully hard. I'm awfully sorry that I didn't write sooner. Thank you again and again for the lovely ship.

Sincerely yours,

Anne M. Bullitt

Dear Miss LeHand:

I was delighted to get your note this morning. Please be sure to give me as much advance notice as you can of your coming visit, and tell me what show you'd like to see most.

Cordially,

Bennett A. Cerf
