My dear Miss I. Brand -

I should be delighted if you should come when in New York - you are a charming person who radiates sunshine. There are so many people I can get...

Poor little Rabbit - I hope you will be very kind to her.

Pres. Wilson was said that people in Washington either grew or smelled. You are the former.

On my way back to New York, I shall stop over to see the President as there are several... personal matters we have to finally arrange. Please tell him that was forgotten. I don't want to be concerned in two renew of some matters. May you always have the best.

Sincerely,

Bernard W. Baruch
