Franklin D. Roosevelt Library & Museum

Collection: Grace Tully Archive
Series: Marguerite ("Missy") LeHand Papers
Box 10; Folder = Correspondence: Cummings, Homer S., 1933-1939
April 15, 1933.

Dear Mr. Congressional Library,

I am enclosing a fragment of pure Tennyson: "Button Silverstreet to Hardaway.

You can tell it is genuine because it is unfinished, unsigned and unsigned.

If you know your Button Silverstreet you will realize that this is a characteristic of the whole class.

Perhaps another specimen may never be seen in this generation—I, therefore, believe the nation should preserve it carefully in a place I known.

The decorations are especially appropriate because, no doubt, you will see cherubims and a couple of angelims before another specimen is given to posterity.

Respectfully,

Cecilia Kemions S.

With my best...
go back on the job.

Tuesday

Dear Cecelia,

Here am I back again after such a swell week-end! Everything was perfect and I feel like a new person and quite ready to with my love - the end.

MRS. HOMER CUMMINGS
2700 TILDEN STREET, N. W.
WASHINGTON, D. C.

Dec. 22, 1934.

Missy, dear,

I have enclosed a prescription for the attached in your medicine bottle which you will use when the brown wrapping is taken off.

It is for Dr. E. Parks - refill of his very necessary medicine. You can ask for your order and will be in his hand in a few days. Price taking it.

Give it to him with my love - I said the
The other night at the Cabinet dinner he had been hearing things about me. I didn’t take time to ask him what—there were too many around—one must retain his own true standing as Cabinet Wife at any cost.

The party in the White House (not Coolidge’s) suite was a great success. Paula and her younger son were properly lauded and ought to feel that every well known now on.

Take good care of your dear self and wish you all joy and happiness.

Cecil.
October 6, 1939.

Dear Missy,

Cecilia wished to remember a number of her friends by some personal token of her affection, and it is in her name that I send you this pin and ring, which she brought back from Rude-Pesth. I hope you may have some of her pleasure in wearing it.

Sincerely,

[Signature]

Miss Marguerite Le Hand,
The White House,
Washington, D. C.