Miss Marguerite A. Le Hand
Personal Secretary to the President
The White House.

Dear Miss Le Hand:

Will you please take this up with Miss Grace Tully and have her advise me what disposition she wants made of this request.

You might say to Grace if she doesn't want to make known her opinion in a letter, I will be glad to have her phone me, or tell me the next time I see her.

Sincerely yours,

Dear Jim:-

Thank you ever so much for sending me the new sesquicentennial cover.

Always sincerely,

M. A. Le Hand
PRIVATE SECRETARY

Honorable James A. Farley,
Post Office Department,
Washington, D. C.
July 13, 1937.

Miss Margaret Le Hand,
The White House,
Washington, D. C.

My dear Miss Le Hand:

It is with pleasure that I send you this letter to which is affixed the new 3-cent stamp issued in commemoration of the sesquicentennial of the adoption of the Ordinance of 1787.

Included in the central design of the stamp are portraits of Manasseh Cutler, who sponsored the enactment of the Ordinance, and Rufus Putnam, pioneer leader in the settlement of the Northwest Territory, with a map outlining the new territory and the original States.

This letter is being mailed through the post office at New York City, the capitol of the United States at the time of the enactment of this Ordinance, which was designated to have the first-day sale of the new stamp on this date.

Very truly yours,
Dear Jim:

First of all, please let me tell you how much I appreciate your note of birthday greetings. Having a birthday party aboard a train was at least unusual.

Secondly, I enclose a memorandum from the President in regard to Miss Gertrude Butler. I know that this is the only answer that can be made but I am grateful to you for all that you did.

I hope to see you soon.

As ever,

M. A. LeHand
Private Secretary

The Honorable,
The Postmaster General,
Washington, D. C.
