Dear Miss Gleason:—

The President asks me to thank you for your note and tell you that he does not collect prints of this character. The only ones in which he is interested are scenes of Hyde Park and the Hudson River and Naval pictures.

Very sincerely yours,

M. A. Le Hand
PRIVATE SECRETARY

Miss Ethel W. Gleason,

My dear Miss LeHand:

My new play, "Save Me The Waltz," will open next Monday night, February 7th, at the National. If possible, I would like to have you attend the Opening - so please let me know how many tickets you will want.

I will be at the Carlton Hotel all of next week; and if you find you are unable to go to the Opening Night, just let me know and I will leave tickets for you any other night you may choose.

I met the President the last time I was in Washington and was completely thrilled. THERE is a personality.

My best wishes.

Sincerely,

My dear Mrs. Hand:

I am sending the list of guests invited to the Cabinet dinner last year, with the two new Cabinet members added. Will you kindly submit this list to the President and Mrs. Roosevelt to see if it be their pleasure to add to the list or omit as they wish. I want to get the invitations out.

Dear Miss LeHand:

It has come to me, quite frankly, to have Mr. Wallace sign the ballot and asked me to visit the publishing of the book. My copy was in the charge of such work.

It has been possible to have the signature of the two cards for Electors last these should be a souvenir, Mr. Schapiro promised.

The paragraphs for him and her, be grateful and I like. However, the book with you.

Sincerely,

Miss Marguerite A. LeHand,
Personal Secretary to,
The President,
Washington, D.C.

My dear Miss LeHand:

I am turning to you in a request that has come to me, feeling very sure that you will be perfectly frank as to whether or not the request should be granted.

Recently, when it was necessary for me to visit the State Printing Bureau in connection with publication of the New York State Electoral College proceedings, my copy was passed upon by Mr. George Schapiro in charge of such work in the State Printing Bureau.

Mr. Schapiro asked me if it would be possible to have The President autograph the 1940 ballot which was used by the Electors and also an autograph showing the signature of the Vice President. He had in his possession the two cards which constituted the ballots used by the Electors last December and while I did not intend that these should be a part of the volume which we are now printing, Mr. Schapiro was desirous of having them as his personal souvenirs.

If you see fit to secure these autographs for him and will return them to me, I will, of course, be grateful and I am sure that it will give him pleasure. However, the propriety of granting the request rests with you.

Sincerely,
