Dear Miss Le Hand:

With your postscript staring me in the face I can't and won't acknowledge your very thoughtful and considerate note, but I can and do say "Merry Christmas" to you.

Sincerely yours,

[Signature]

Miss Marguerite A. Le Hand,
The White House,
Washington, D.C.
THE SECRETARY OF THE INTERIOR
WASHINGTON

July 12, 1935.

To Guard in Charge of President's Camp:

The bearer of this permit, Miss Marguerite LeHand, and five additional persons who are accompanying her are to have the full privileges of the camp, without restriction, over the week-end of July 13 and 14. They are to occupy the two cabins which have been prepared for them.

Secretary of the Interior.

Harold I. Ickes
June 17, 1937.

Dear Doctor Missy:

Your letter has just reached me. I didn't know you had been ill until Doctor McIntire told me that you were well again or you would have heard from me. When you go to the hospital you ought to do it in an ambulance accompanied by the Naval Band so that proper recognition will be taken of the fact.

The doctors tell me that I am getting along well and I will be glad to see you any time that you feel like coming. However, unless you are quite all right don't make the effort and I will drop in on you one of these days when you least expect it.

Sincerely yours,

Miss Marguerite LeHand,
The White House,
Washington, D.C.
Dear Missy:

The Frankfurters are in Washington and are living at 3624 Prospect Avenue, Georgetown. Felix called me today and I told him that no less a person than the illustrious Missy LeHand would call for him and Mrs. Frankfurter tomorrow to bring them out to the farm. He was delighted.

As you know, dinner is at one o'clock and it takes from 40 to 45 minutes to reach us. Everything will be very informal.

Sincerely yours,

Harold I. Iches

Miss Marguerite LeLand,

Dear Miss LeHand,

With my best wishes for the holiday season.

Harold L. Ickes

Dear Missy,

If only choice words could have been written for Christmas and the New Year.

The Secretary of the Interior

Harold L. Ickes

Aug. 10, 1938.
Dear Missy,

I am very sorry indeed to hear of the sudden death of your brother and I want you to know that your loss has our deepest sympathy.

Now that the President is going away on a cruise, why don’t you go off on a real rest? You might come out to the farm if you can do no better.

My best to you as always.

Harold I. Ickes
