Franklin D. Roosevelt Library & Museum

Collection: Grace Tully Archive
Series: Franklin D. Roosevelt Papers
Box 13; Folder = Speech Drafts: Memorandum for the Press Regarding Selection of Senator Barkley to Chair the Democratic National Convention, April 4, 1932
MEMORANDUM

Memo for the Press

April 4, 1932

I am very glad to hear of the selection of Senator Barkley as the Temporary Chairman of the Democratic National Convention. I am confident that this excellent choice will be satisfactory by the National Committee when it meets late this afternoon.
MEMORANDUM

the convention.

The committee on arrangements recognized the long and valuable service of Mr. Chase in charge of the Washington headquarters by commanding
him to the consideration of the convention itself for the post of permanent chairman.

Franklin D. Roosevelt