Dear Grace:

Although several months have passed since I received your letter, your interest in forwarding Mrs. Barrow's message is nonetheless appreciated. It is very heartwarming to receive such letters as hers. I am presently taking advantage of a brief interlude in the Bavarian mountains, where we are combining a few days of duty with some relaxation, to catch up on much of my long overdue correspondence.

It would be fun to have a reunion in Washington with you, Mary, Allen and Ruth Butcher. Goodness knows when I will get home again though.

We felt very sad about Steve Early's death. He was a fine man.

We have been very busy since our arrival in France and there have been many visitors these last few months. Have given "Ike" your message and regards.

Our very best to you and thanks for your sweet note.

Sincerely,

MRS. DWIGHT D. EISENHOWER

Dear Miss Tully:

Mrs. Eisenhower and I deeply appreciated your fine message. In particular, I am gratified that you liked the Inaugural address.

With best wishes,

Sincerely,

Dear Grace,

Your nice wire of congratulations and good wishes moved us deeply and, although this is of necessity a very short note, we did want you to know how much your thoughts meant to us.

As you can well imagine, things are very hectic here, but the staff is so efficient and cooperative that I am sure I will be well organized in a very short time. It certainly is a new and different life for us, but an exciting and stimulating one, too.

Our affectionate regards to you!
