Dear Grace:

Right after the Bob Sherwood show I flew down to Florida for a five-day rest, explaining the belatedness of this acknowledgment of your very charming wire.

I'm certainly delighted that you are one of our Sunday night audience and I trust that our representation of Bob Sherwood found favor with you, who knows him so well. The response from the press of the country has been actually staggering, all of them agreeing that this was a timely American document, in terms of his own thinking.

Some Sunday night, when you're in New York, I'd certainly love to have you at the show or if you ever have friends coming up to New York who wish to see the show, just drop me a note on it.

Every fine holiday wish.

Sincerely,

Ed Sullivan
